Open Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday Evenings

The Chamber Music concert given at the Kenilworth Assembly hall on Sunday afternoon was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience.

The trio composed of Madame Spravka, pianist, Richard Czerwonky, violinist, and Robert Ambrosius, cellist, play with the understanding of artists and their ensemble is most satisfying. The trios played were the Beethoven B flat major and the lovely one by Smetana in G minor.

Mr. Czerwonky talked most interestingly about Beethoven, his life and music, and Madame Spravka spoke with charming enthusiasm about her great compatriot, Smetana, whose centenary is soon to be celebrated.

The Beethoven trio with its simplicity of style and varying moods was delightfully refreshing. The Smetana number was a happy contrast. It is brilliant in color and sparkles with true Bohemian vivacity.

A North Shore Chamber Music association has grown out of these musicals of which Mr. Howard Wells is president and Mr. Walter Marx secretary and treasurer.

Those who have accepted to act as patrons and directors are: Dr. L. H. Mettler, Miss Helen Sears, Mrs. Percy B. Eckart, Mrs. Philemon Kohlsaat and Mrs. Homer Cotton. The next and last performance of this season will be given on April 6.

An university romance culminated in marriage last Saturday evening, when Miss Dorothy Smith Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Carney of Evanston, became the bride of Leslie Goodwin Arries of Chicago. The ceremony was read at six o'clock at St. Mark's church, Evanston, by Rev. Arthur Rogers. The bride is a graduate of Northwestern university in the class of 1921, and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Arries who was graduated from Northwestern in 1918 belongs to the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Arries have gone to California for a six weeks' trip and upon their return will occupy an apartment either in Evanston or Rogers Park.

Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Souders of Kansas City, announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances Ruth, to Mr. Richmond T. Battey of Winnetka, on Saturday, January 12, at Kansas City. Mr. Battey who formerly was a resident of Topeka, Kansas, is now attending the University of Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Battey have taken up their residence at 709 West Iowa street, Urbana, Illinois.

Before going to their new home, Mr. and Mrs. Battey were entertained by relatives in Winnetka and Glencoe. Mrs. A. F. Battey of 839 Cherry street, entertained for them at dinner on Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Battey of Glencoe were host and hostess at a dinner on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson of 138 Woodland avenue, are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, Junior, on January 20, at Grant hospital.

The Chicago chapter of Beta Theta Pi has invited the Northwestern chapter to a dance and frolic at the Chez Pierre February 18. Plans have been promulgated for more than a year to get the two chapters together to promote harmony between them. Each year the two schools have been holding sings at which time the two fraternities gather around the shrine of fellowship. This month's innovation has been promoted by the Chicago chapter members who expect more than one hundred active chapter men from the two schools to take part. Prominent alumni of the schools and the chapters have been asked to act as sponsors. The Chez Pierre will be specially decorated to the tastes of the Chicago men. The social committee of Northwestern which is furthering plans for the affair, is composed of Townsend Copeland of Chicago, Ellsworth Taylor of Wilmette, and Cameron Garbut of Sheridan, Wyo.

One of the brilliant affairs of the winter season will be held in Chicago on Friday evening, February 8. The officers and directors of the Bond Men's club of Chicago have sent out invitations for a dinner-dance to be given at 7:30 o'clock in the Gold room of the Congress hotel. Among a long list of patronesses the names of the following Winnetka women appear: Mrs. Francis P. Butler, Mrs. H. Spaulding Coffin, and Mrs. Howard v. Pention.

During the past week, a number of the season's debutantes have been taking turns at Marshall Field's at setting attractive tables representative of various social affairs and festivities. Miss Janet Fairbank, who is the niece of Mrs. Laird Bell, set her table to represent a house-party dinner. An informal Sunday night supper party was illustrated by Miss Margoid Langworthy. Miss Ann Kales and Miss Frances Thorne were among those who did their share of table-setting.

Of interest to many on the north shore is the wedding of Miss Perene Prince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Prince of Evanston, who will be married to Spencer Phillips of Montclair, N. J., on February 9, in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception at the Evanston Woman's club.

Miss Henrietta Bush of Glencoe will be maid of honor; and Mrs. Gordon Clark, of Wilmette, the Misses Lucille Singer and Louise Thompson of Evanston and Miss Frances McGregor of Pontiac, will be bridesmaids. Stuart Phillips will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will include Edward Fargo, Gordon Clark, Harry Montgomery and Charles Carney.

Mrs. William P. Sidley of 739 Humboldt avenue, is in California, accompanying her husband on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson of 429 Sheridan road, are spending two weeks in New York.
