SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

The Nelson Utley's Soon To Return from Cuba

MRS. Nelson Monroe Utley is the former Miss Marion Farley Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Francis Bryant of Hyde Park. Her marriage to Mr. Utley, who is the son of Mrs. George C. Utley of Glencoe, took place on Saturday evening, January 19, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Hyde Park. They are to return soon from a honeymoon in Cuba to occupy an apartment in Hyde Park.

Both Mr. Utley and his bride have many acquaintances in Wilmette, having been occasional guests of Mrs. Frank J. Baker, formerly of 507 Lake avenue, until her departure for the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Loyd Faxon To Give Drama Reading

ON Monday afternoon, February 11, Mrs. Loyd Faxon will read "Lady Windemere's Fan" in the neighborhood room of Community House at 2:30 o'clock. Anyone in the village who is interested is invited to attend.

The reading is given especially as a preparation for those who hope to see Miss Margaret Anglin's interpretation of this drama during her coming engagement in Chicago. The afternoon is given under the auspices of the Community Drama club.

Garden Club Holds Election of Officers

AT the annual meeting of the Garden club of Winnetka which was held on Wednesday, January 30, at the home of Mrs. Hathaway Watson on Sunset road, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Hathaway Watson, president; Mrs. John H. Harding, recording secretary; Mrs. Alfred McCordic, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ezra Taylor, treasurer. A board of gardeners was also chosen of which Mrs. William Otis, Mrs. George Forrest, Mrs. John Scott, and Mrs. Frederick Scott are the members.

Among the various entertainments planned by local sororities is a musical program of interest to be given by Vera Poppe, the celebrated cellist, at the Woman's club of Evanston on the evening of February 13, under the auspices of Mu Phi Epsilon sorority.

Miss Poppe has an international reputation as a cellist, having played in Europe with the London Symphony and with other equally well-known orchestras in this country. Her program in Evanston is being anticipated with pleasure by music lovers of the city.

The cellist was born at Wynberg, a residential section of Cape Town, South Africa. Her father was a colonial in the government service and her mother, a Russian. At an early age she won honors at the South American university, and from there she went to the Royal Academy in London for further study. She has appeared as soloist with the Minneapolis symphony orchestra and has given concerts in New York city and throughout America. In addition to being an artist, Miss Poppe is also a composer.

Pupils of Elsie Zeit gave a small recital at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday, January thirty-first.

Miss Zeit gave two numbers—a Spanish dance "Aragonesa," and a toe dance "En Masque." The dances given by the children were: "Pierrot and Pierrette" by Amelia Jacobs and Jane Portis; "Little Bo-Peep" by Marion Korsmo; "To a Nose-gay" by Virginia Raclin, Virginia Lang and Louise Moses; "The Wind-Tossed Rose" by Helene Alder; "A Peasant Dance" by Dorothy Vehon and Georgia Schoenthal; "The Busy Bumble Bee" by Louise Keckley; and "In a Field of Flowers" by Jean Baumgartl.

In the Spring, Miss Zeit expects to give a large recital which will be open to the public. The last one was only for the parents and friends of the pupils.

The mid-winter prom of Roycemore school last Saturday evening was one of the most enjoyable social affairs held there in some time. Festoons of crepe paper and red hearts transformed the gymnasium into a gay scene of revelry. More than 150 members of the sophomore, junior and senior classes, together with the faculty of the school, attended. The affair was in charge of the Commonwealth, the social organization of the school. Miss Elizabeth Lee, president of the organization, with her partner, led the grand march.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McNie of 266 Forest avenue, had as their house-guests over the week-end, Mrs. McNie's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarlane of Watertown, South Dakota. Mr. McFarlane, who is the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, was in Chicago on business with the Chicago chapter of that lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams, of 487 Ash street, departed on Wednesday for a European tour which is to last for three or four months. On Friday evening of last week, a number of their friends surprised them at their home with a "farewell" party.

At the meeting which was held on Tuesday evening, February 5, at Grove House, the home for convalescent women and children, on Central street, Evanston, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. Hathaway Watson, president; Mrs. Heyliger deWindt, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Frederick Scott, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Hobart, recording secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Houghteling, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Leslie Wheeler, treasurer; Mrs. Chester Ericson, assistant treasurer. The two newly elected directors are Mrs. Kent Clow and Mrs. Robert Gardner. The members of the board are from Chicago, Evanston, Winnetka and Lake Forest.

It is explained that the Home is very desirous of finding a woman with a practical knowledge of sewing who would be willing to give over several hours once a week to the instruction of these women and girls who have been sent there from hospitals, industrial boards, and by private individuals, in order that they may receive help and care during the period following severe illness. Any woman who is interested in so devoting some of her time may communicate with Mrs. Hathaway Watson, 900 Sunset road.

A meeting of the Play-reading group of the North Shore Theatre guild was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Laird Bell, of Hubbard Woods. Lord Dunsany's "If" was the play read by the following persons: Mrs. Harry Barnum, Mr. J. Williams Macy, Mr. William Van Horn, Mrs. William Ogden Coleman, Mr. Ernest Ballard, Mr. Walter Strong, Mrs. Laird Bell, Mr. Harry Barnum, and Miss Olive Grover. Miss Olivia Fentress merits great credit for the clear presentation of the drama under her direction. The meetings of this group are open to any member of the guild residing in Winnetka and Hubbard Woods. They have been reported very enjoyable and have been a medium for the discovery of new talent. This group convenes every three or four weeks at the homes of the members, and an announcement will be made later of the time and meeting place for the next gathering.

Winnetka was well represented at the North Shore National Kindergarten and Elementary college alumnae luncheon at which Mrs. Florence Capron of Evanston presided on Saturday last, at the Orrington hotel. Mrs. Morris Lieber in her own gracious manner gave a most inspiring and illuminating address on "Child Welfare Work in Illinois."

Among those present from Winnetka were Mrs. Montague Ferry, Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, Mrs. Theodore Coyne, Mrs. Harry Lay, Mrs. Thomas Windes, Mrs. Percy Bradstreet, and Mrs. William Sutherland.

Mrs. Frank E. Plowman entertained informally at her residence, 421 Linden avenue, on Thursday evening, in honor of her cousin and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Palmer, who have come to Winnetka quite recently.
