Attic Marionettes To Perform On Saturday

WE welcome again the news that the Attic Marionettes will give their initial performance this season on Saturday afternoon, March 29, at the Evanston Woman's club at 3:30 o'clock. These clever players have chosen for this occasion a dramatization of "Dr. Dolittle," the entrancing story "To all children, children in years and children in heart," from the pen of Hugh Lofting, who tells of Dr. John Dolittle of Puddleby-on-the-Marsh, who with his many kinds of pets, sets sail for Africa to give medical aid to monkeys who have been suffering with a strange malady. It is the tale of their astonishing adventures in Africa, in the jungles, at Polynesia, on the Barbary coast, and on their trip home.

Those instrumental in the production, and the dramatic personae are: Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., Mrs. Nathaniel Blatchford, Mrs. Henry Tenney, Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. Frederick Mason, Mrs. Samuel Greeley, Mrs. Sebastian Hinton, Mrs. Richard Bull, and Mrs. Norman Harris who has written the incidental music.

This play which will benefit the Southern Woman's Educational alliance will be given under the auspices of the Chicago branch which includes southern women of Chicago and along the north shore. The alliance was organized as a southern center which aids the girl in finding out the education she needs, and then helps her to obtain it. It has grown until it now has branches in some of the large cities throughout the country. The first branch was established in Chicago in 1922, and Mrs. Charles N. Strotz of Chicago is a member of the executive board. Tickets are on sale at Adam's Drug store.

The plan of the Arden Shore directors to replace the worn out tents with permanent houses is already materializing. One or two houses have been given as individual gifts, but Wilmette is the first village community to give such a house to the camp. The proceeds of the card party given at the home of Mrs. Francis J. Casey, 347 Central avenue, on Friday afternoon, February 29, and the funds given to the local Arden Shore board by the Economy Shop in return for services, have made the gift possible. The friendly cooperation of the merchants which enlarged the proceeds of the party, and increased the village support of the Economy Shop help to make this house a real community gift.
