Teachers in Schools Appear in Casts

The Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall of the Skokie school was the scene of the presentation of two delightful plays by the Parent-Teacher association of Winnetka, under the direction of Miss Douglass Whitehead, Wednesday evening of this week.

"Tickless Time," a comedy in one act, written by Susan Glaspell and George Cram Cook, was given first, while "The Pot Boiler," a satire by Alice Gerstenberg ended the program. Later in the evening a dance was given, music being furnished by the Vagabond orchestra.

"A Day in Arcady," a song cycle for two voices, was rendered by Mrs. C. E. Karlstrom and Mrs. William A. Thrall, with Mrs. Everett Harris at the piano, between the plays, was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Karstrom also sang "Nursery Rhymes" by Curron and the "House that Jack Built" by Sydney Homer. Mrs. Thrall sang "Brown Bird Singing," a composition by Haydn-Wood, and "Voice of April" by Rogers.

The scene of "Tickless Time" was laid in a garden in Provincetown, and the following made up the cast:

Ian Joyce, who has made a sundial
Robert Bryant
Eloise Joyce, wedded to the sundial
Mabel Vogel
Mrs. Stubbs, a native... Hazel Hartwell
Eddie Knight, a standardized mind
Wm. C. VanHorne

Assistants... Miss Bishop, Mrs. Warren Carter, Elizabeth Kirchner.

PRESENT "BLUE BIRD"

The Horace Mann school will give the first and last acts of Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird," Friday, May 2, as its part of the program which the schools of Winnetka will give at that time. It is not yet decided what the other schools will present.

Why does an airplane fly?

—because, while its wings tend to keep it afloat, its propellers drive it ahead with sufficient force to overcome the downward pull of gravity. In the daily drive of work and play,

Puretest Castor Oil

helps to keep the system internally clean and functioning smoothly.

Puretest Castor Oil is made by a new process which renders it absolutely pure. Not nauseating like old-fashioned castor oil, but easy to take.
