

'MOLLUSCS' IS TITLE OF PLAY

Community Dramatists to Give It April 30

"Molluscs." Do you know what a Mollusc is? There are those that appear on land as well as in the sea! Have you ever met a Land-Mollusc? If you have, you will recognize it if you see the play to be presented by the Community Drama club on Monday evening, April 30. This will be given through the Players' committee of the club, in the new Rudolph Matz hall of Community House.

"To a Mollusc there is no pleasure like lying in bed feeling strong enough to get up." Mrs. Baxter is a Mollusc; and her brother Tom's struggle to reform is the story of this very delightful three-act comedy.

The cast of characters is as follows: Mrs. Baxter. Mrs. Talliaferro Milton Mr. Baxter. Mr. Robert A. Bryant Miss Roberts. Mrs. Edw. H. Ball, Jr. Tom Kemp. Mr. L. L. Buchanan The play is under the direction of Miss Marigold Langworthy.

Monday evening, April 28, will be "guest night." But on Wednesday evening, April 30, the Community Drama club will present this to the public for a small admission fee. Residents of the village are asked to keep this date in mind.

Saturday morning, April 26, at 10:30 o'clock, a Food sale will be given at the Community House by the Camp Fire Girls, and the proceeds will go toward replenishing the Camp Fire treasury.
