Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, well known in Winnetka, where she once lived, will become the bride of Mr. Thomas L. Marshall, son of Judge and Mrs. John H. Marshall of Carlestown, Illinois, at a simple home wedding to be solemnized on Monday afternoon, April 28, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter of 1545 Astor street. Rev. Dr. Norman Hutton will read the marriage service at 4 o'clock. Miss Marion Farnsworth and Mr. Norman Pritchard will be the only attendants. Mr. Marshall and his bride will be at home after June 1, in Lake Forest.

Dr. George W. Haskins, 1189 Asbury avenue, formerly of Wilmette, announces the engagement of his daughter, Margaret Adams, to Mr. Charles John Van Vleet, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Van Vleet of East Aurora, New York. After the wedding, which will be in June, Mr. Van Vleet will take his bride to Santa Barbara, California, where they will reside. Dr. Haskins has sold his house in Hubbard Woods, and he and his daughter will leave Winnetka next week to make their home at the Evanston hotel.

The Winnetka Attic Puppets have been engaged to give a performance of "Dr. Dolittle" at the Tea room, Marshall Field's, at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning, April 19.

Neighbors Night is set for Wednesday evening, April 23, on the Rudolph Matz hall, Community House. This is the time when the Winnetka Congregational church will be at home to all its friends in the village. The men are planning a number of features that will insure an evening of music and fun and conversation. The whole affair is to be very informal. This is the invitation to all neighbors, both old and new to village life, to come and be at home together, and to test the welcome of the church.

The Alicia Pratt Dancers will present the "Pied Piper of Hamelin" and "A Dream of Old Egypt" on Saturday afternoon, April 26, at 3:15, at Skokie school. Tickets will be on sale at Adams drug store and at the Winnetka pharmacy. The funds cleared from this performance will be donated to the Winnetka Infant Welfare and the Evanston Junior auxiliary of Infant Welfare.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Moon, 1386 Asbury avenue, entertained informally last Friday in honor of Rev. and Mrs. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church. A large number of members in Hubbard Woods, both older residents and new, enjoyed this opportunity to gather together for an informal, social evening.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 29, a card party will be given at the Chicago Beach hotel at 1:30 o'clock to benefit the Chicago Junior School for Needy Boys. Mrs. Brion J. Arnold heads the committee on arrangements. Many north shore women are interested in the work of this organization.

The Woman's Bible class of the Congregational church cordially invites all women of the community to join them in the study of the Psalms. The thirty-ninth Psalm will be the topic for Sunday, April 20. The class meets in the Neighborhood Room of Community House at 9:45.

Marcia Converse, Katherine Sherman, Alice King, Lila Anderson, Ruth Shellman, Ruth Bowers, Genevieve Emerich and Mary Harris were members of a progressive house party held in Wilmette and Winnetka during several days of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Kahn of Rogers Park are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a baby daughter on March 28. Mrs. Kahn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam S. Mendelsohn of 358 Winnetka avenue.

Mrs. L. A. Townsend left on Wednesday for her home in Galesburg Illinois, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Dickson of 1228 Scott avenue.

In connection with the forty-second anniversary of the Chicago Woman's aid on April 10, the birthday of Mrs. Benjamin F. Langworthy, of Bryant avenue, was celebrated with a luncheon at the clubrooms in the Kimball building.

Miss Alice Boak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boak of 1030 Sheridan road, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Donnelly of Pittsburgh, is expected to return to her home the last of this week.

Mrs. John W. Scott of Hubbard Woods has sailed for Europe to join Miss Barbara Scott and Miss Emily Scott who have spent the winter in Italy. They expect to spend several weeks motoring through France.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peirce of Rogers Park have leased Mrs. Carlston's house on Provident avenue, and will take possession April 23.

The Harry Cadenheads who have been living at 733 Elm street, are moving to their new home on Provident avenue next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Donovan, of Wilmette, have bought a house at 429 Hawthorn lane, where they will move on April 24.

Bess Stutson of Sunset road entertained sixteen guests at bridge on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McInerney of Indian Hill road are again in Winnetka after a Mediterranean cruise.
