REALTORS

"The word 'REALTOR' is a coined word belonging to the National Association of Real Estate Boards. The North Shore Real Estate Board of Suburban Chicago, being members of the state and national associations, is the custodian in this section of the legitimate use of the word; it means more than one who sells real estate—it means that those who use the word legitimately have subscribed to the Code of Ethics of the National Association, and that his business is transacted along the lines of square dealing, intelligent service and fair play. It means that the user of the word is accountable for his acts. The courts have sustained the use of the word in advertising to legitimate persons or firms belonging to the national organization and have, therefore, recognized the high standard which the real estate men have set for themselves and for their dealings with the public. The legitimate use of the word 'REALTOR' is therefore a sign of public protection and should be so recognized."
