Kenilworth Happenings

Mrs. E. F. Snyder and Mrs. John Lind have gone as delegates from the Kenilworth Garden club to attend the meeting of the Garden clubs of Ameri- ca, held in Richmond, Virginia, Wed- nesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Mrs. Lind will go from there to attend the National Farm and Garden association convention at Washington, D. C., returning by way of Philadelphia and New York. While in Washington she will attend the re- ception which Mrs. Coolidge will give at the White House to the members of the convention.

Miss Dorothy Bennett, 185 Sheridan road, returned home on Sunday morn- ing from a trip in the east. Miss Ainslee Bennett, a student at Ogontz school in Philadelphia, spent two weeks in New York with Miss Dorothy. Miss Bennett on her re- turn journey spent a few days as the guest of a former room mate at Ogontz, Miss Caroline Hunter of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Douglas Crooks came from Knox college, Galesburg, Illinois, to spend the week-end of April 19, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Crooks, 615 Cunnor road.

Mrs. P. D. Rathbone, who is en- joying an extended stay in Pasadena, will not return home until some time in the summer.

During her recent visit to New York, Miss Carabelle Russ had the honor of having the well known sculptor and artist, R. Hinton Perry, invite her to sit for a red chalk portrait, for his exhibition at Rheinhardt's Fifth Ave- nue Galleries.

The exhibition which has just closed, included oil portraits of many socially prominent people among whom were: La Princesse Marie de Bourbon, Mrs. Cordelia Biddle Duke, La Vicomtesse de Frise, Mrs. Harry Owsley and the Prince and Princess Yousouppoff.

Dr. Frank Cheeseman left on Sat- urday for a motor trip to Culver, Indiana, where he will visit his son, Eugene Cheeseman, who is a student at Culver academy. Mrs. Cheeseman and Miss Virginia Hedrick left on Sunday for Culver where Miss Hed- rick, as the guest of Eugene, attended the annual prom which took place on Tuesday evening.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Alice Smart, daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson Helm of Kansas City, Missouri, to Mr. Belknap Carleton Hawkes, on Tuesday evening, May 6, at Independ- ence Boulevard Christian church, Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes will spend their honeymoon in Europe.

Mrs. Herbert Deyo and daughter, Miss Bernice Deyo, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vissering, 257 Kenilworth avenue, for the past two months, left Tuesday, April 14, for their home in Pasadena. Mrs. Deyo is Mrs. Vissering's sister.

Miss Cornelia Keith, 310 Woodstock road, spent the week-end of April 19, as the guest of Miss Muriel Badger of Detroit.

The Rector's Aid society of the Kenilworth Episcopal church is plan- ning a bridge party for Wednesday, May 7, at the Kenilworth Assembly hall. Mrs. Henry Taylor is in charge of the tables and any one making up a table will please notify her, tele- phone 761-R. The proceeds of this affair will go to the Rectory fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Chandler have returned from St. Petersburg where they have been spending the winter. Mrs. Clarence Malcolm Fuller (Lucy Chandler) and son, Tom, are the guests of Miss Hatti Chandler in Rogers Park. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will be in McHenry, Illinois for the next couple of months.

The Junior League, a group of Ken- ilworth girls of high school age orga- nized a little over a month ago for the purpose of doing philanthropic work, has already made quite a contribution of articles for Arden Shore. A little later on the girls plan to sew on nightgowns for the children at the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winfield Winship returned to their Kenilworth home April 21, after a sojourn of several weeks in Cuba, stopping at Key West, Miami, Palm Beach, St. Augustine and Jacksonville, Florida, Baltimore, Md., and Philadelphia, en route to Kenilworth.

Mr. Arthur T. McIntosh was elec- ted president of the Kenilworth School board on Saturday, April 12, to suc- ceed Mr. Alexander Hannah. Mrs. Charles M. Holmes was another new member and Mrs. William J. Taylor who has held the office of secretary for several years, was reelected.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry H. Everett who have been in New Mexico for the past month, are now in Valera, but are expected home the end of this week. Dr. Everett is much benefitted by the change and rest, and will resume his practice on his return.

Mr. Frank Avery Gerould who was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., returned to his home in Philadelphia on Monday, April 21. Mrs. Gerould and daughter, Patty, will remain with her parents for a month or six weeks.

Mr. James Prentiss and Mr. Grant Ridgeway returned home on Monday, April 21, from a sojourn of several weeks at Asheville, North Carolina. Mrs. Prentiss and Mrs. Ridgeway will not return until sometime in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Danly, 336 Essex road, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joyce, 531 Essex road, left on Easter Sunday for Excelsior Springs, Mis- souri, where they will be for the next ten days.

Mrs. C. F. Ames and son, Lewis, of Rochester, New York, are the guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of Melrose avenue. Mrs. Ames is Mrs. Hedrick's sister.

The Kenilworth club announces the last formal dance of the season on Friday evening, May 2. A May pole and other special features are promised.

Mrs. John Marshall Roberts and daughter, Caroline, have gone to Washington, for Easter vacation.

Mrs. B. C. Hawkes is planning to leave about May 15, for an extensive European trip.
