

ACTIVITIES OF WOMAN'S CLUBS GRADUALLY CEASING

Annual Exhibit of Wilmette Artists May 9, 10 and 11

THE annual exhibit of the work of Wilmette artists will be held at the Wilmette Woman's club on May 9, 10, and 11, with an opening reception on the evening of May 9 to the artists exhibiting. This year's entry list includes the names of fifty artists, with even more exhibitors expected. The public is invited to attend this exhibition which is open to the public for these three days without charge. On Saturday morning from 10 o'clock until 12, the exhibit will be open to the school children, and will remain open to all visitors during the rest of that day and throughout Sunday afternoon and evening.

More than 1,000 persons viewed the last exhibition, and an even larger attendance is expected this year.

The annual meeting of the Woman's club of Wilmette was held on Wednesday, April 23. Mrs. Maurice Lieber of Wilmette spoke in the morning on club ideals. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon was given over to reports and the annual election. Mr. John Minnema entertained those present with two groups of American folk songs.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. R. E. P. Kline, president; Mrs. N. P. Colwell, 1st vice-president; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. George W. Kibby; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Arthur J. Dickinson; recording secretary, Mrs. Myron West; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ralph Huff; treasurer, Mrs. H. S. Griswold. Following is a list of the chairmen of the different departments: Mrs. Sumner Mason, art and literature; Mrs. Lafayette Cozzens, child and home; civics and legislative, Mrs. J. G. Wray; music, Mrs. Herbert Mulford; bulletin, Mrs. J. B. Boddie; philanthropy, Mrs. Charles McCue; program, Mrs. Harvey A. Bush; social, Mrs. Ezra D. Fuchs; house, Mrs. J. M. Camelon.

Woman's Catholic Club Holds Annual Meeting

THE annual meeting and luncheon of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette was held at the Woman's clubhouse on Friday, April 25, at which time new officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. C. A. Barton; first vice-president, Mrs. Clarence Kavanagh; second vice-president, Mrs. R. E. Holmes; recording secretary, Mrs. N. J. Conrad; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. W. Bettinghouse; treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Boylston; chairman of fine arts department, Miss Jane Keefe; chairman of civics department, Mrs. Joseph Joyce; chairman of the sanctuary department, Mrs. Edward Dolan; chairman of philanthropy department, Mrs. F. M. Nolan; Mrs. John Boylston, Mrs. J. E. Dunn, and Mrs. Clarence Wieland were the three newly elected directors.

Under the graceful direction of Mrs. L. W. Crush, program chairman, and toastmistress of the day, many delightful speeches were made by the honored guests at the luncheon table.

An unique and pleasing feature of the afternoon was the speech given by the new president, in which she outlined a history of the activities of the past presidents. This speech was written in poetry by the president, and addressed to the club in a gracious and pleasing manner.

As the out-going president, Mrs. W. L. Ballard, concluded her "Swan Song," a very beautiful silver flower basket was presented to her.

The afternoon was closed with a group of songs by Mr. Paul Mallory, whose exquisite tenor voice furnished a pleasing conclusion to a most delightful day.

League of Women Voters in National Convention

AT the convention of the National League of Women Voters just held in Buffalo, Illinois was distinguished by having two of its women selected by the nominating committee as officers for the ensuing year: Miss Julia Lathrop, candidate for vice-president, and Mrs. William G. Hibbard of Winnetka was renominated for director of the fourth region. Mrs. Walter Benson of Winnetka went to the convention as a representative of the Winnetka League and of the Efficiency in Government committee of the Illinois League.

Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the league since its organization in Chicago in 1920, retiring now because of ill health, addressed the meeting on April 25, telling of the growth, of the administrative methods, and of the finance of the league during its four years' history.

Mrs. Millar to Speak at Wellesley Club Meeting

ON Wednesday afternoon, May 2 the North Shore Wellesley club will meet with Mrs. Ralph C. Brown, 1024 Hinman avenue, Evanston, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Wyness Millar of Evanston will talk on "Modern Tendencies in Child Study."

Mrs. Millar, who was Ann George, is a well known educator. She was the first foreign pupil of Madame Montessori, and it was she who introduced that system of education into this country. Mrs. Millar, the translator of Mme. Montessori's books, is interested in two schools on the north shore. She has been giving lectures in Evanston at the Nursery school, and in Winnetka she is the supervisor of the advanced work in the Dorothy Sears Montessori school where she teaches two days a week.

Winnetka Club Closes Season With Recital

ON Thursday, April 24, the Music department of the Winnetka Woman's club gave a delightful recital, with Mr. Robert Quick, pianist, and Mr. Robert Sanders at the piano. The first number on the program was Sonata E major.....Handel Adagio-Allegro Largo Allegro

The next number played was Introduction et Rondo Capriccioso by Saint Saens, which was followed by the always popular

- (a) Nocturne E flat major...Chopin
 - (b) Vogel als Prophet.....Schumann-Auer
 - (c) Memories.....Czerwony
 - (d) Indian Snake Dance...Burleigh
- The fourth number was changed from the Hymn to the Sun to the Hindoo Chant....Rimsky-Krosakoff-Kreisler! The last number of the concert was Polonaise A major.....Wieniawski. The attendance was regrettably small, but most enthusiastic. Tea was served in the club parlors after the recital.
