LUNCHEON SERVED AT NOON

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES*"Radio Luncheon to Entertain Kiddies"

A "RADIO" luncheon is being held this morning at Marshall Field's tea room for the purpose of entertaining children. A special feature is offered by WMAQ, Chicago Daily News, which is giving an exact reproduction of its broadcasting station. Several Winnetkans will be among those broadcasting over the microphone, a program of appeal to little folks and adults, although "grown-ups" are not permitted to be present unless accompanied by a child. At 10:30 o'clock, Georgene Faulkner, "The Story Telling Lady," and Mrs. Ford, who is in charge of the Wide Awake club, will entertain the youngsters. Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett will give two groups of her compositions for children. Mrs. Guy Stewart Bailey will sing Mrs. Bartlett's songs and Mrs. Everett Harris will assist in the accompaniments.

It happens that this is "Black Cat" week in the art department of Field's, where cats of all sizes are on exhibition, and a basket of these fascinating animals will appear on the program during the singing of Mrs. Bartlett's song, "Kittens." A new swing for children will be one of the properties used in illustration of a song which Mrs. Bailey is to sing. Luncheon will be served at 11:45 o'clock.

Dance to Aid in the Work of "The Cradle"

THE Auxiliary Cradle Board of Winnetka will benefit by a dance which is being given this evening at The Cottage on the grounds of the Heyliger deWindt home on Sheridan road. Several private dinner parties are being given preceding the dance, and at Indian Hill club a large "Dutch treat" dinner is taking place.

The Cradle, of Evanston origin, cares for homeless babies until homes may be found for them.

Katharine Mordock Another Saturday Bride

MISS Katharine Mordock has selected Saturday, June 28, as the day for her marriage to James Douglass Adams of San Francisco. The wedding service which will be read at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the Congregational church, will be followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock, 645 Maple avenue.

Child Specialist to Address Annual Meeting

THE annual May meeting of those interested in the Infant Welfare society will take place next Friday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hobart, 660 Prospect avenue. Dr. Grulee, of Chicago, one of the leading child specialists in the country, will speak at 3:30 o'clock.

EntranceEverything a Boy Needs
Is Here Under One Roof*"Johnny Tupant"
Suits*$13.50 to $17.50

The pure virgin-wool fabrics in "Johnny Tupants" suits give many more months of stylish service. The durability of their workmanship and the firmness with which the style is built in adds to the life of every suit. And don't forget that it's quite natural for a boy's coat to outwear one pair of knickers, but our extra pair doubles the wear of a suit and cuts the cost in half. Smart, mannish new patterns are offered in many desirable styles for boys 6 to 14 years.

Knicker
Trousers
$2.75 to $3.95

A universal summer outfit for all husky, romping boys is the extra knicker with a blouse and sweater. It is a very good plan to select several pairs from this showing of corduroys, serge and novelty woolsens.

Attractive
New Caps
$1.75 to $2.50

Caps in full golf style and Jackie Coogan, Jr. shapes are available—pretty tans, browns, greys and pleasing mixtures. The visors are substantially constructed and the cap itself is lined throughout.

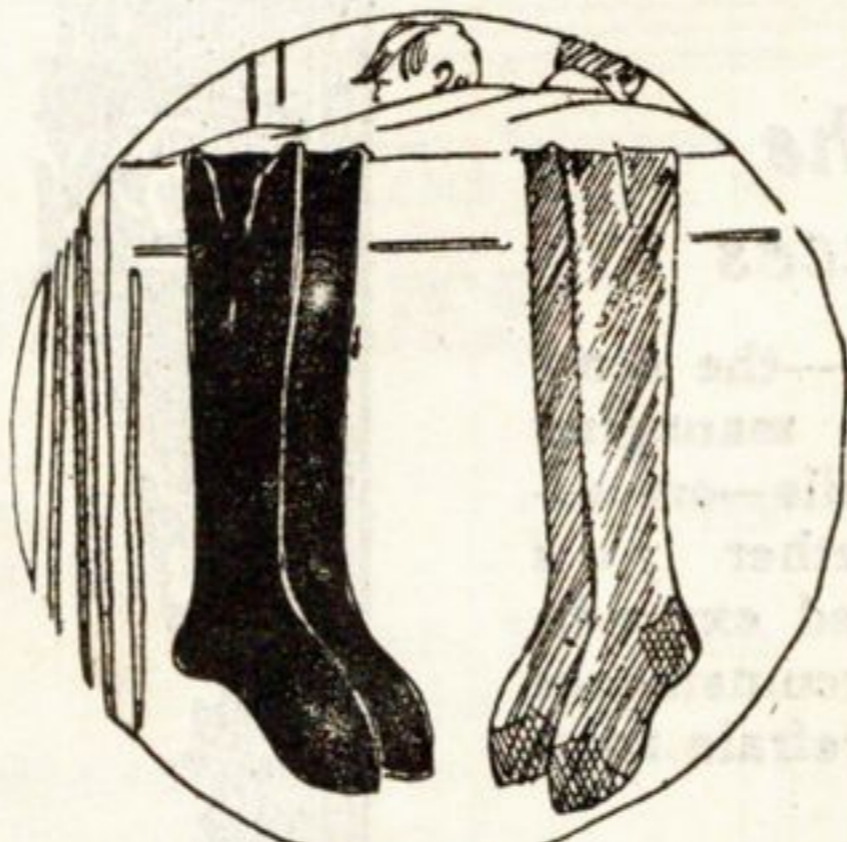

First Floor—East Room

Kaynee Blouses
$1.25 to $3.50

Blouses and shirts for that matter may be included in the range above. Some of the older boys prefer the shirts. There are percales, madras, Rajahs and mercerized broadcloths in stripes, checks, plain white or tan.

Sweaters
$4.50 to $7.50

Coat styles and slipover models are seen in bright new colors of fine soft knitted yarns and jerseys. Some are styled with collars, others have V necks and some are buttoned down front and have pockets like fathers.

Bonnie Boy
Stockings
