

KITE TOURNEY HERE SATURDAY

School Children to Compete in Events

Preparations are rapidly nearing completion for Winnetka's first annual Kite Flying tournament to be held Saturday morning, June 14, beginning at 9 o'clock at the Skokie Playfield under auspices of the Winnetka park board.

Scores of school children are expected to compete in the various events which are classified according to grades.

As a special feature the park board has decided that the seventh and eighth grade winner of the kite flying the highest in 15 minutes will be awarded a Junior golf membership in Playfield for the current season.

Prizes and medals are to be awarded for each event and should the tournament prove successful, it will be made an annual event.

Rules for the tournament have been prescribed as follows:

All kites must be made and flown by the owner.

A kite will be considered to fly if, after once up, it can be flown from a standstill position.

All entrants must be school pupils residing in Winnetka.

Girls can compete as well as boys.

There will be three classes and awards will be made in each class.

The Junior class will include all grades up to and including sixth grade.

The Intermediate class will include the seventh and eighth grades.

The Senior class will include all grades above the eighth grade.

There will be no charge for entrants or for spectators.

All entries should be mailed at least one week before the tournament to the Winnetka Park Board Kite Tournament Committee, stating the name of entrant and grade in school.

If a group of pupils enter one kite, the names of each of the group should be stated on the entry.

Glassware That Resists Breakage

The Bulge Protects The Edge

NONIK Glassware is unique; it is scientifically designed to reduce breakage. The bulge, or gentle outward curve near the top of the glass, protects the edge, absorbs shocks and provides a firmer grip. The shape involves a patented mechanical principle which gives much greater strength to the sides of the glass. Only made in thin blown clear crystal with smooth fire melted edges and fire polished. Test Nonik, tip the glass over, note how it bounces back and protects the edge. Your family will appreciate "NONIK."
