

LAKE HAMLIN CAMP COST IS REASONABLE, CLAIM

$27.50 per week. Most of the camps mentioned are eight-week camps and increase the rate per week for a shorter period of camping than that schedule.

It is interesting to note these items and to stop and think how much Winnetka boys and girls are getting for the small sum of $14 per week. And it is of value to stop and figure out how much more than this amount would have to be asked if the camp were run for profit, as well as for the love of youngsters and of having them together in the out-of-doors.

Magistrate Northrop Is Back from Health Trip

Police Magistrate Clark T. Northrop, who has been away from the village for some time taking the celebrated mud baths at Waukesha, Wis., returned early this week and reported the treatments he had taken to combat a severe attack is sciatic rheumatism had been apparently successful.

The "Jedge" expects to resume his duties in the local court without delay.

Little Tots Are Praised for Skill in Dramatics

The Greeley school passes along the accompanying word of appreciation from a Winnetka mother who attended the recent operetta performance given by the six-year old children at that school:

"When a group of six-year old children can put over a performance such as the little Spring Operetta last Tuesday afternoon at the Greeley school, it means not only remarkable children but that those behind the scenes have a positive genius for directing them. The utter naturalness and lack of self-consciousness were striking.

"For three-quarters of an hour these babies sang, frolicked and danced with joyous abandon, entertaining the older children and parents with such success that the play had to be repeated on Wednesday at 5 o'clock so that the fathers might attend.

"The little Butterflies, Birds and Flowers won much applause and earned the money to buy a handsome flag for the school auditorium.

"The performance was effectively staged and lighted and was in charge of the first grade teacher, Miss Vernon, and Miss Douglass Whitehead, supervisor of dramatics.

—An Appreciative Mother."

Senior "Hop" Set For Friday Night, June 13

The 1924 Senior "hop" at the New Trier Township high school will be held Friday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock, June 13. The committee arranging for the hop, which consists of Josephine MacRae, Eva Mae Johnston, Martha Thomas, Winfield Taylor, Edward Ravenscroft and Ellis Jones, plan the best hop ever held at the school.

Miss Wright, Miss Ullrick and Mr. Windos are the sponsors of this, the biggest social event of the senior class.
