SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Out-of-Door Dancing Begins at Indian Hill

ALTHOUGH the summer sports season officially commenced last week, according to club calendar, the first of the Saturday night dinner-dances is being held this evening at Indian Hill club, an event to be continued every week or two until autumn. After the dinner which will be served at 7:30 o'clock, dancing will follow out-of-doors, that is if the "weather man" agrees. One of the dinner parties on this occasion at which fourteen guests will be present is that of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zeiss.

On Wednesday the regular "Ladies' Day" programs commenced which will take place weekly throughout the season, with golf matches in the morning and a special luncheon at noon. It is thought that the Friday bridge games may start next Friday, although definite arrangements for that day have not been made.

This year has revived the interest in tennis, and the club is featuring that sport more than usual. George Higgins of Boston, who has been asked to come here as an instructor, will be at the club daily to give lessons.

During the past week, Indian Hill has been the scene of two large society affairs. On Tuesday night Mr. Dole of Chicago gave a dance for his son, John Luther Dole, and his fiancée, Miss Barbara Dunham, who will be married on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Dennehy of Hubbard Woods, entertained at a dinner and dance on Thursday in honor of Miss Marion Warner and their son, Thomas C. Dennehy, whose marriage takes place today.

Garden Reception After Noe-Smith Wedding

THIS afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, a small, simple wedding is taking place at Christ church, the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiating. Relatives and a few friends will be present when Miss Virginia Noe, daughter of Mrs. Virginia E. Noe marries Horace F. Smith. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Marjorie Smith will be the maid of honor, and Jane Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, will be the little flower girl. Dr C. O. Miller will serve as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held in the garden of the F. Goddard Cheney home, 648 Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after June 25, at 989 Ash street.

Among the those who have entertained for Miss Noe before her wedding are Mrs. Wellington Coolidge and Miss Kathryn McKinney, who were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower given on May 31, at the McKinney home on Cherry street. Mrs. Paul G. Smith, 1035 Ely road gave a luncheon and bridge at her home on Friday, and that evening Mrs. Forest Lowrey, 550 Oak street, was hostess at dinner.

The Cradle Beneficiary of Garden Musical

A GARDEN tea musical will be given on the Burnham terrace, Evanston, Saturday afternoon, June 7, at 3:30 o'clock for the benefit of the Cradle society. The musical program will be given by the Little Symphony orchestra of Chicago. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Warren Buckley, 1516 Asbury avenue, Evanston. Mrs. John B. Hunter and Mrs. Clifford Off are co-chairmen of arrangements, and the general committee: Mrs. Daniel Burnham, Jr., Mrs. John C. Slade, Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, Mrs. J. J. Wardall, Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, Mrs. Guy Shepard, Mrs. William Walrath and Dr. Gladys Dick.

At the meeting of the Chicago Farmington society held last week at the home of Mrs. A. Ballard Bradley, 808 Willow street, Mrs. Sydney Treat was reelected president. The other officers are Mrs. DeForest Hulburd, vice president; Mrs. Helen Isham, second vice president; Miss Caroll Elting, secretary; Miss Edith L. Ware, treasurer.

After completing her year's work at Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., and taking her college board examinations. Miss Marion Fulton, accompanied by her roommate, Miss Virginia Davidson, will go to White Sulphur Springs for a visit, after which she will return to her home, 884 Hill road, bringing Miss Davidson with her to be her guest for two weeks.

Barbara Mettler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler of Hubbard Woods, is one of this June's graduates at Roycemore school. The commencement exercises are being held in Evanston this afternoon.

Mrs. Raymond E. Durham, 808 Auburn avenue, has had as her guest for four days this week, her sister, Mrs. Arthur Sweetzer of Geneva, Switzerland. Mr. and Mrs. Sweetzer and their four children will spend the summer with Mrs. Sweetzer's mother, Mrs. Robert Gregory of Chicago, who has taken a house at Coolidge Point, Magnolia, Mass. The Sweetzers will be in this country for four months.

On Friday afternoon the children of the fourth grade, Country Day school, gathered together for a picnic in the garden of the Samuel Greeley home, 200 Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hagen, 1387 Scott avenue, are leaving Sunday to motor to Champaign, Illinois, to attend the graduation exercises of their son, Frededick, Jr., who will have completed his course in agriculture. Mr. Hagen, Jr., will return to Winnetka for a short time before taking a trip through the west later in the summer.

Last week-end Miss Mable Forberg and Miss Ruth Forberg, 958 Linden avenue, visited their sister, Miss Serena Forberg, who is attending Madison university. The three sisters, with a party of friends, motored to the Dells and Devil's Lake, returning to Madison Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howe, Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Bemmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell, all of Winnetka, spent last week-end in Winona, Minnesota, at a house party given by Mr. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Norman Copthorne, 1183 Asbury avenue, are expecting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Allyn and their daughter, Betty, of Hartford, Conn., to arrive in Winnetka Monday for a week's visit. Mrs. Allyn is Mr. Copthorne's sister.

On Friday afternoon, June 6, Mrs. E. Crilly, 375 Sheridan road, was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the maternity and children's department of the Post-Graduate hospital.

The Edward Mains are moving out from Evanston to their summer home on Hill road.
