The audience which crowded the new Evanston Country club was most enthusiastic over the Pageant of the Seasons presented by students of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college last Tuesday evening.

Announced by heralds and trumpeters came Autumn, most gorgeous of seasons, attended by the autumn winds in waving scarf dance and by a stately procession of sun-crowned maidens bearing high the gifts of the harvest—the royal purple of the vineyard and ruddy gold of ripened sheaves.

The conception of Winter was probably the most unique; glittering ice crags yielded a myriad of tiny frost sprites, mischievous and nimble as Jack Frost himself. Tal Valkyrie in silver tunics and helmets made King Winter's icy realm a thing of beauty, into which the Christmas trees with lovely glow of candle light and a group of old English carolers brought the warmth and cheer of the Christmas season.

Spring, dainty and sweet as a dewy eyed maiden, responded joyously to the pipings of Pan. Delicate as a rainbow, light as thistle-down, she danced and swayed beneath blossom-laden boughs.

With scarcely a pause came Summer, rich in color, her maidens dancing with garlands, and crowning her their lovely queen.

Much credit must be given to Miss Etta Mount and Miss Margaret Farrar of the Kindergarten college for the composition and production of this remarkably beautiful pageant. The singing by the freshmen girls of the college, under the very competent direction of Miss Louise St. John Westervelt, was entirely satisfactory because of its abundant volume, its spontaneous rhythm, and its delightful quality.

The Queen, gracious and appealing, was played by Miss Nellie Ball, a senior, who was chosen by the students as representing the college spirit and ideals.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Lum delightfully entertained a number of their friends last Monday evening at the Winnetka Woman's club with a song recital given by Mrs. Lum's two sisters, Mrs. Louis Edward Underwood of Swampscott, Mass., and Mrs. Frank Edwin Brown of New York City. Mrs. Underwood, who has a beautiful contralto voice, and Mrs. Frank Brown, at the piano, gave a program of charming selections.

The opening dinner and dance of the season at Skokie club will take place on Saturday evening, June 7. The dinner, which will be served at 7 o'clock, will be followed by dancing on the terrace. The Tuesday afternoon bridge games for women commenced this week, to continue every week throughout the summer. Members desiring to do so may entertain guests at luncheon.
