Skelton Still on Job Smashing Swim Marks

Robert Skelton of the Illinois A. C. and a north shore man formerly of New Trier High school, broke the Olympic and American 200-meter breast stroke swimming record in a trial heat of the Olympic tryouts at Indianapolis, Saturday. Skelton's time was 2:58 3/5 as compared with the Olympic record of 1912 when the distance was made in 3:01 4/5. His time was one second better than the American record held by himself.

GIVES PAINTING TO N. T.

The Girls' club at New Trier High school, realizing the school's lack of original paintings, has purchased a picture entitled "A Scene in New Hampshire," done in oil by Karl Buehr. This gift was presented to the school last Friday by Josephine MacRae, retiring Girls' club president.
