THE PUBLIC FORUM

Editor, Winnetka Talk:

My attention has been called to an article concerning the fine work Mr. Franco is doing with the decorating at Horace Mann school in executing the plans of the lanelli studios. An error in the article should be corrected. It is stated that the color scheme was designed by Miss Lockwell of Chicago. As a matter of fact, it was the work of Alfonso lanelli and Ruth Blackwell, both of the lanelli studios at Park Ridge.

The scheme of decoration is at once so unique and so attractive that I feel that the designers should be given full credit without in any way detracting from full appreciation of the conscientiousness and understanding execution of Mr. Franco and his staff. Sincerely yours, C. W. WASHBURNE.

Winnetka Baseball Men To Meet Chicago Beavers

The Winnetka baseball team played its first game of the season last Sunday with the Steger, Ill., nine comprising the opposition. It was a thrilling opener with the final count 3 to 2 in Winnetka's favor.

The locals will hook up against the Chicago Beavers tomorrow on the home lot and there is promise of another fight-to-the-finish affair. Skokie Playfield is the place and the time, 3 o'clock.

Gift Shop Owner Comes Laden With Treasures

Some day in the coming weeks, when Winnetka patrons of the Gift Shop on Lincoln avenue happen by that attractively appointed novelty mart, they will be greeted by unusual activity attendant upon the unpacking of many cases of rare old antiques intermingled with paraphernalia representing the newest whims in the realm of beadings, woven things, china, glassware and what not of household and personal adornment.

Miss Grace Herbst, who conducts the Shop, returned last week from an extended trip through eastern Canada, New England and New York in which she combined pleasure with the business of replenishing the waiting shelves.

Miss Herbst was enthusiastic this week in commenting on her journey, and promises some very agreeable surprises for the patrons of the Gift Shop when they set out upon their autumn and holiday shopping expeditions.

Automobiling

Is becoming more dangerous every day because automobiles are more numerous every day. If you carry insurance, it adds comfort and the pleasure is greater to know that if accident does occur, you have something with which to pay the doctor. Take out a policy with the Aetna Insurance Company, which has ninety million dollars to pay claims.
