

EMINENT WOMEN GOLFERS PLAY IN ONWENTSIA TOURNEY

Three Local Clubs Have Entrants in Championship Play

MORE than 150 women members of golf clubs in the vicinity of Chicago and throughout the west entered the twenty-second annual championship of the Women's Western Golf association in play at Onwentsia during the week. The present holder of the title, Miss Miriam Burns of Kansas City opened the meet, teeing off with Mrs. E. E. Harwood of Olympia Fields.

Several of the players most eminent in the golf world were entrants. In addition to the Western champion, Miss Burns, Miss Edith Cummings, national champion; Miss Bernice Wall, Wisconsin champion; Miss Louise Fordyce, holder of that title for Ohio, and the six former western champions, Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr., Mrs. S. L. Reinhart, Mrs. Perry Fiske, Mrs. Melvin Jones, Mrs. David Gaut and Mrs. J. S. Pritchard were listed. Mrs. Farlin Ball, president of the Women's Western association was also one of the players.

Indian Hill, Skokie and Sunset Ridge were represented.

Mrs. Charles A. Klotz, who has been in charge of the arrangements for visiting golfers, Miss Dorothy Klotz, Mrs. Robert C. Bennett, Mrs. Howard O'Brien, Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mrs. E. W. Ellis, Miss Margaret Knapp, Mrs. Paul Noyes, Mrs. A. Fletcher Marsh, Mrs. R. H. Ripley and Mrs. G. B. Massey were members of Indian Hill contesting in the event.

Mrs. Edgar Stevens, Miss Ernestine Pearce, Mrs. Paul Chace, Miss Helen Pope, Mrs. H. G. Phillips and Mrs. H. B. Hackett entered from Skokie, and Miss Virginia Ingram represented Sunset Ridge.

It has been said that the field this year was one of the strongest in the history of the tournament.

Woman's par for the course of 6,440 yards is 87 which Miss Cummings has bettered by ten strokes.

The thirty-two low scores in the tourney were to qualify for the championship, the next sixteen for the Onwentsia cup and the next sixteen for the association trophy. The scores were not only to count in the qualifying round, but in the play for the Maschmeyer trophy, in which the four low net scores made by one club were to count.

Miss Cummings was guest of honor at the dinner given by Onwentsia club on Monday evening for all the tournament players. Many luncheons were given during the week of the largest golf event (for women) of the season.

Miss Elizabeth Merrill leaves Friday for Oshkosh to spend the week-end with Mrs. Morris Bell, formerly Miss Blanche Moritz.

Golfers Tee off Monday For Skokie Championship

THE largest event of the summer at Skokie is the play for the club championship, which starting Monday morning with the qualifying round, will be played off all during the week.

Monday's events were carried off in spite of the unfavorable condition of the course due to heavy rain. In the ball sweepstakes match of the morning, Mrs. A. J. Mitchell won the first low net score and Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Cullen tied for the second. Mrs. Gerlad Child was winner of the approaching and putting contest in the afternoon.

August introduced a new feature in golf, of interest to both men and women players. Commencing on Thursday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and continuing each Thursday in August, there will be two-ball mixed foursomes followed in the evening by a buffet supper and dancing.

Next Week's Match at North Shore Uncertain

THE excessive heat and the wet condition of the course made golfing at North Shore anything but easy on Tuesday, nevertheless a small field gathered together and played off the events scheduled for the occasion. Mrs. Rogers won low net, and Mrs. A. D. Collins, Mrs. Wallace Miller and Mrs. H. P. Harrison were the winners of the ball sweepstakes. In addition, the qualifying round for the August trophy was played. During the luncheon hour the prizes won this season were awarded.

It had been expected by those in charge of the golf events that the play for the club championship would start on Tuesday, but the condition of the course may make it advisable to postpone it until later.

Sunset Ridge Schedules Medal Play on Tuesday

NEXT Tuesday the event for women at Sunset Ridge will be 18 hole medal play with handicap.

This week a two class flag tournament occupied the golfers. The Class A event was won by Mrs. H. W. Bye, with Mrs. Roy Huszagh having the fewest putts on the 18 holes. Class B, the nine hole match, was won by Mrs. S. Edwin Earle, with Mrs. Thomas McNally taking the fewest number of putts.

The luncheons and bridge games which have been a feature of "Ladies' Day" have been attracting large numbers, reservations for more than 100 having been made each week.

Miss Virginia Ingram who entered from Sunset Ridge in the Western Championship tourney at Lake Forest, qualified in the second flight with 105, but was defeated on Tuesday.
