

CIZEK EXHIBIT LECTURE THEME

Novel Method of Art Instruction to Be Explained to Local Teachers

UNIQUE PHILOSOPHY

Skokie School to Be Scene of Demonstration

Hanns Koller, who is in charge of the famous Cizek exhibit of children's art in the Art Institute of Chicago, will speak at the general faculty meeting of the Winnetka teachers, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Skokie school, telling something of the philosophy which underlies the remarkable art instruction which has been given in Vienna for a number of years by Professor Franz Cizek. The Winnetka teachers have invited the faculties of the Highland Park, Glencoe, Kenilworth, and Wilmette public schools, New Trier Township high school, and North Shore Country Day school to be present at this meeting. They also welcome any parents who are interested.

The exhibit of children's work, which is at the Art Institute for a month, was first shown at the British International Exhibition in Wembley, and then at the Metropolitan museum in New York City. It has also been shown in the Brooklyn institute, in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Chautauqua.

Gains International Fame

The work of the Cizek school has won international fame for the remarkable art production of its children. While Cizek is from Czechoslovakia, the school itself is in Vienna. Very little technique is taught, it being the ideal of Professor Cizek to develop each child's individuality and originality to its utmost. To quote Mr. Koller, who is to address the Winnetka teachers:

"The thousands of children who have developed their individualities by working in an atmosphere of freedom, love and understanding and the manifold character of their capacity and activity are a joyful witness to the eternal presence of the creative spirit in every human being.

Advocates Creative Effort

"It is the children, if we allow them to be children, who will attain what we grown-ups have in all ages so grossly failed even to approach, who will make the way clear for the only true aim—that of free and cultured humanity on earth."

Community House Ready for Season's Activity

Activities at the Community House are increasing from week to week as the villagers are returning from their vacations and the organizations are starting their year's work. Thursday, Troop I of the Boy Scouts held their first meeting and on Friday the Pathfinders assembled for the first time this season. Next week a complete program of general activities will be announced.

Gymnasium classes will be formed soon and a schedule will be arranged to accommodate all those who desire to play or to enter the gym classes that will be held. The English classes for foreigners and those who are eager to learn to read, write and speak English, will be held every Tuesday evening starting the first week in October. Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks Moulton will be in charge of the classes in English.

At this time people who are acquainted with the work of directing boys' and girls' groups, or can teach English to those who are not familiar with the language, are asked to give their services. Mrs. E. W. Wortley will be glad to receive the names of volunteers. She can be reached at the Community House during the morning.

THIRD PARTY CAMPAIGN OPENS ON NORTH SHORE

A meeting of Progressive women, who are eager to foster the growth of the Third party on the north shore, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edwin Meyers to perfect a permanent organization and discuss future activities.

Mrs. Anna K. Hulburd, vice chairman of the Illinois Woman's division of the LaFollette-Wheeler campaign committee, presided, appointing the following chairmen:

Mrs. Walter Vose, Evanston; Mrs. Agnes Nelson Lamb, Wilmette; Mrs. E. J. Snyder, Kenilworth; Mrs. E. A. Meyers, Winnetka, (temporary); Mrs. Clarence Balke, Highland Park; Mrs. Florence Wampler, Ravinia. The chairman for Glencoe is to be named later.

The new organization feels especially fortunate, it is explained, in securing for its first mass meeting, Oswald Garrison Villard of New York, editor of The Nation, who will discuss campaign issues of the day at the Elm Place school auditorium, Highland Park, Sunday, September 28, at 3:30 o'clock, and in Evanston on Sunday evening. These meetings are open to the public.

Everyone on the north shore who is interested in the Progressive movement is urged to affiliate with this group by handing his name to the nearest chairman.

Yes, that is the PETERS' MARKET. I don't wonder that you remarked how nice it looked, for it's the best market in town. They carry the best variety of meats and their quality is higher. You ought to try them out, Happy. You'll find their prices as low as any place in town.

So that's the PETERS' MARKET is it? It certainly looks clean and nice. They have mighty nice equipment. It's the only one in town, I guess. I suppose their prices are pretty high.
