Valse ..... Levitzki Little Garden Club to Meet Friday, October 3

RIDAY, October 3, has been selected for the next meeting of the Little Garden club at the home of Mrs. Walter Gore Mitchell, 1009 Oakwood avenue. A complete attendance is desired at the 2:30 o'clock meeting called for the transaction of the club's business affairs.

TRANSFORMATION that is truly marvelous invariably takes place when we clean a rug of yours. Colors that have become grayed and indistinct through age or hard wear regain their original beauty almost as if by magic. Delightfully soft, both in texture and in color, and with the back in splendid condition, you will be as proud of your rug as on the day when first it came to your home.

As clean and sweet as your finest linens it will come back to you looking like new and with years added to its life. The modern equipment, experienced and careful workers in our plant, are responsible for producing this wonderful result at a cost so low as to be surprising. Whether your rugs are oriental or domestic weaves their appearance will be improved and their life lengthened by our delicate process of cleaning. Phone us and we will estimate.

What Kitchen Aid Will Do for You

Mixes dough for bread, cakes, pie, ginger-bread, doughnuts, rolls, etc. Mashes potatoes-two or two dozen, to a wondrous fluffiness. Makes mayonnaise (drops the oil gradually), one cup, or as many as you Beats eggs and icings; batter for pancakes, waffles, etc. Whips cream or evaporated milk, meringues, icings, etc.

Creams various other ingredients. Beats and creams fudge, fondants, etc. With attachment, it freezes ice creams, sherbets, mousses, or any frozen dessert. It grinds coffee, chips ice, chops meat, nuts, raisins, etc. It strains soups, purees, through a fine sieve.

Strains apple sauce. It is not necessary to pare or core the apples. This adds immeasurably to the flavor. It slices potatoes (to any desired thin-

Cuts shortening in pastry.

And it will retain the temperature (either hot or cold) of whatever product it is mixing.

All of this it will do-and more!

What They Say About

Kitchen Aid TRADE MARK REGISTERED

ITCHEN AID is winning friends every day in every city where this remarkable laborsaving device has been introduced. On the North Shore, owners and users are enthusiastic in their praise of Kitchen-Aid. The proud possessor of one does not hesitate to recommend it to her friends. Following are some of the good things that have been said about Kitchen-Aid. (Names on request):

Whips Potatoes "If Kitchen-Aid did nothing but whip potatoes the way it does, I would consider it a good investment.

My family always did like mashed potatoes, but they say Kitchen-Aid makes them more truly satisfying. They are delicious with milk whipped in the way Kitchen-Aid does it." (A-3)

For Whipping Cream "We like whipped cream desserts. (B-8)

Kitchen-Aid is absolutely necessary in our home." Good Apple Sauce

"It's easy to make good apple sauce with Kitchen-Aid. You don't have to pare or core the apples."

Likes to Make Fudge "My daughters like to make fudge with our Kitchen-Aid." (A-14)

No Tired Arms

"Kitchen-Aid certainly saves time and labor. No more tired arms or aching back no matter how many guests."

A Delightful Gift "I never have any bad luck with my cakes since my husband gave me a Kitchen-Aid on our wedding anniversary. I think it is the most delightful gift I ever received." Just Fun to Cook "I don't mind doing without a maid now that we have a Kitchen-Aid. Really, it's just fun to cook with (B-14)Proves Versatility

"I had four items for dinner yesterday on which Kitchen-Aid did the hard work—a veal loaf, mashed potatoes, mayonnaise dressing (best I ever tasted), and the nicest, lightest sponge cake you can imagine."

Does Two Things at Once "I find I can actually do two things at once with Kitchen-Aid. I don't have to stand and stir anything (A-12)

Used for Every Meal "I find myself using Kitchen-Aid for one thing or another at every meal in the day. I could not get along without it now." (A-20)

Ease to Serve Mousse

"I think a raspberry or fresh peach mousse is about the most delicate and delicious dessert one can have, but I only rarely served a mousse before I had a Kitchen-Aid. Now I have mousse once or twice every week. They're so fine and easy to make with my Kitchen-Aid.'

Pleases the Maid

"My maid says she really likes to cook now that we have a Kitchen-Aid. She says she doesn't get tired Saves Hard Work

"My sister in New Jersey has used a Kitchen-Aid for more than a year. She persuaded me to buy one and I thank her for saving me hours of hard work." (A-21)Does Better Cooking "I believe any woman can be a better cook with Kitchen-Aid. Everything comes out so nice. I always feel sure of results now; -and I used to be very timid in attempting a new recipe." (A-22)Makes Good Biscuits

"Kitchen-Aid mixes a batch of biscuits in just a few minutes, and I don't have to touch the dough until I roll for cutting. They're delicious biscuits, too-so light, crisp and tender." (A-24)

Does All the Hard Tasks

Look over the list of Kitchen-Aid accomplishments at the top of this announcement. See how it picks out the hard tasks, the arm-aching, nerve-disturbing, time-wasting tasks, —all those things that have an element of uncertainty in them,—and does them for you like clock work, without flaw or mistake.

The turn of an electric switch, the rest is left to Kitchen-Aid.

So versatile is its work that leftovers heretofore thrown away are made inviting and appetizing. The economy in using Kitchen-Aid is one of its strong points.

The cost of Kitchen-Aid is but a small item added to your regular household expenses,—a few dollars a month, on the Budget Plan, until it is paid for. Once yours, it saves consistently and unceasingly for you, -time, energy and money.
