Infantile Paralysis Found in Kenilworth

A case of infantile paralysis has made its appearance in Kenilworth and has brought forth the following notice to parents by the Kenilworth Board of Education:

"Due to the appearance of a case of infantile paralysis in our village, the Board of Education has consulted leading physicians in regard to preventative measures.

"Children are urged to brush their teeth thoroughly after every meal. An antiseptic gargle of three parts of water to one of peroxide should be used. An additional precaution is to swab the nostrils morning and evening with a 10 percent solution of argyrol.

"If children are suffering from colds or other indispositions we suggest immediate consultation with the family physician."

Pioneer in Rotary Work Called by Death Sunday

Harry Ainsworth Wilkie, son of Mrs. S. H. Wilkie and brother of Mrs. P. B. Kohlsaat of 341 Woodland avenue, Winnetka, passed away on Sunday, September 21, at his home, Pine

Crest Inn, Tryon, North Carolina. Mr. Wilkie was at one time member of the firm of Wilkie and Sellery, merchant tailors of Chicago. He was also an early president of the Chicago Rotary club, the mother of all Rotary clubs. His many friends on the north shore testify that his life was a realization of the Rotary motto, "Service Before Self—He Profits Most Who Serves Best."

St. Andrew Brotherhood Holds Kenilworth Session

The Diocesan Brotherhood of St. Andrew will hold its annual fall conference at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth, this Saturday, commencing at 2 o'clock.

A varied program has been arranged which includes a baseball game between the clergy and laymen, bowling, hikes, gymnastic games in the gymnasium and other contests. At 5 o'clock there will be services in the church, to which the women are invited. Rev. Leland H. Danforth, rector, and Rev. Edward Prince of Lake Forest will conduct the services, and Rev. George Craig Stewart, St. Luke's church, of Evanston, will deliver the sermon, "The Lure of the Harvest Field."

A dinner will be given at the Kenilworth club at 6 o'clock for the men and boys. Among the speakers of the evening will be Lawrence Choate, head of the Chicago branch of the brotherhood. Every church in the diocese is to send as many men and boys as possible.
