

CHURCH LEADER NAMED BISHOP

Mgr. Kelley Consecrated on October 2

The consecration of Bishop Francis C. Kelley, who was pastor of St. Francis Xavier's church of Wilmette for seven years, took place Thursday morning at the Cathedral of the Holy Name Cardinal George Mundelein was the consecrator. Visiting bishops from Mexico and Canada participated in the consecration.

Bishop F. C. Kelley

Bishop Kelley will celebrate his high pontifical mass at St. Francis Xavier's church Sunday October 5. The Ouilmette Council of the Knights of Columbus will hold a banquet in honor of the prelate Thursday evening, October 9, at the Orrington hotel. The bishop will leave for Oklahoma, October 14.

Bishop Kelley was born in Vernon River, Prince Edward Island, Canada, October 23, 1870 and was educated at St. Dunstan's college Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island and Nicolet Seminary, Quebec, institutions of the University of Laval. He was ordained priest on October 23 1893 for the Diocese of Detroit, and was pastor for 12 years of the Parish of Lapeer and missions in the Detroit diocese. October 18, 1905 he founded the Catholic Church Extension society of the United States in Chicago under the patronage of Archbishop Quigley. Six months later he founded the Extension magazine.

Bishop Kelley was captain and chaplain in the Spanish war, and later in the Michigan national guard. He was aide-de-camp with the rank of colonel to the commander-in-chief of the Spanish American War Veterans and for 10 years was vice commander-general of the Military Order of Foreign Wars. At various times he has been chaplain of the Illinois Commandery of the Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War. Bishop Kelley has published five books.

The bishop has had diplomatic experience as a special negotiator, on behalf of the Holy See, on the question of German and Austrian missions, and had charge of the interests of Mexican exiles on behalf of the Catholic church of the United States during the Carranza revolution in that country. This past June he was appointed Bishop of Oklahoma.
