

CLUBS COMMENCE NEW SEASON WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Reception and a Musical to Open a New Club Year

THE Woman's Club of Wilmette will open its year's activities on October 8, with a reception to the officers:

Mrs. R. E. P. Kline, president; Mrs. N. P. Colwell, first vice president; Mrs. George W. Kibby, second vice president; Mrs. Arthur J. Dixon, third vice president; Mrs. Myron H. West, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph T. Huff, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. S. Griswold, treasurer.

The reception will be followed by a musicale given by Nedelka Simeonova, violinist, and B. Fred Wise, with Betty Baker at the piano.

Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline

Nedelka Simeonova is a young Bulgarian girl who has lately come to this country after many successes abroad. She has played before many of the nobility of Europe, as well as enthusiastic audiences there, who have acclaimed her a genius and virtuoso. She has also achieved great success in Boston and New York where critics foresee a wonderful future for her.

Mr. Wise is a Chicago man, and a graduate of the Chicago university, where he was a member of the choir and also soloist of the Varsity Glee club. Since then he has rapidly come before the public with his beautiful tenor voice and his winning personality. He has been a soloist with many of our leading Choral societies and was chosen tenor for the Opera in English Foundation in 1923. He is to be the soloist for the first concert of the Apollo club this season.

Wellesley Circle Meets in Winnetka October 7

THE North Shore Wellesley circle will have the first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Hubert Howard, 643 Walden road, Winnetka, Tuesday, October 7, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Howard is president of the Chicago Wellesley club.

Frank D. Slutz Lectures at Skokie School Oct. 18

THERE will be a lecture by Frank D. Slutz at the Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall, Skokie school, October 18, at 8:15 o'clock under the auspices of the Winnetka Woman's club, and the Parent-Teacher associations of the Winnetka Public school, New Trier High school and the North Shore Country Day school. Mr. Slutz is director of the Moraine Park High school of Dayton, Ohio. His subject will be "The Science of Being an Acceptable Parent." The Moraine Park school is carrying out a plan now so successfully used at Antioch college. Every person in Winnetka will be vitally interested and is invited to hear this unusual lecture.

Library Club Opens on Evening of October 9

MONICA Graham Stults, soprano, accompanied by Harriet Rutledge and Wally Heymar, violinist, with Arthur C. Becker at the piano, will give the program which will be the opening meeting of the Woman's Library club of Glencoe on Thursday evening, October 9, at 8 o'clock in the Glencoe Union church. At this time Mrs. William A. Fox, the new president, and the other officers will receive the members and their guests, and the 138 new applicants who will be received into membership during the evening. Receiving with Mrs. Fox will be Mrs. William T. Cresmer, first vice president; Mrs. Homer F. Horton, second vice president; Mrs. Benjamin F. Pinkerton, recording secretary; Miss Ethel Serene DeLang, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Harry D. Wiley, treasurer, and the directors, Mrs. Paul L. Battey, Mrs. Francis S. Graham, Mrs. George E. Orr, Mrs. Fred P. Patton, Mrs. Chesley R. Perry and Mrs. Charles A. Steele. Members of the Men's club are especially invited on this occasion.

Mrs. Stults, a prominent Chicago soloist, with her imposing soprano voice and commanding presence, has been the choice of the Chicago Apollo club for its concerts on several occasions and for its presentation of the "Elijah" next January. Her reliable musicianship has brought her many engagements and she ranks easily among the foremost singers of the west.

Harriet Rutledge, who has appeared with many artists in the east, made her initial appearance as accompanist in a joint recital by Walter Allen Stults and Monica Graham Stults. She has received many splendid notices for her charming accompaniments.

Wally Heymar, violinist of Polish birth, spent her early student days in Germany. This gifted young violinist since her coming to America for years of study has procured a firm place for herself in the estimation of concert goers by the versatility and the artistry of her performances.

Arthur C. Becker, who accompanies Miss Heymar, is well known to musical Chicago as Dean of Music in De Paul university.

He is a fine soloist as well as accompanist and organist, and is much in demand for his unusual accompaniments. He has appeared often with visiting artists on the shortest possible notice, never failing to give a most interesting and musically performance.

State Daughters of 1812 Give an Autumn Reception

MRS. Levering Moore of Glencoe is president of the Illinois Daughters of 1812 which gave its autumn reception for members and guests at the Sovereign hotel Thursday.

Members Tee Off Oct. 8 for Club Championship

NEXT Wednesday completes the scheduled events for women's golf at Indian Hill. Members will play off the qualifying round for the club championship.

Catholic Woman's Club to Meet with Mrs. Seng

A MEETING of the Fine Arts department of the Women's Catholic Club of Wilmette will take place at the home of Mrs. Wendelin P. Seng, 401 Lake avenue, Friday, October 10, at 2 o'clock. An attractive program has been arranged. Mrs. L. W. Crush will give a reading. Mrs. F. J. Oelerick will give a paper entitled "Modern Schools of Painting." A second reading will be given by Mrs. Jack Hughes, and Miss Muriel Seng will furnish the music.

An interesting meeting was held Friday at the new school auditorium. Mrs. Charles Barton, the new president, presided, and the other new officers were present. Mrs. Clarence H. Kavanaugh is first vice president; Mrs. R. P. Holmes, second vice president; Mrs. N. J. Conrad, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Bettinghaus, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. A. W. Boylston, treasurer.

Dr. John J. Lapp gave very interesting information concerning a new magazine, "The Common Weal," soon to be published. The music of the Whiting trio was delightful. During the afternoon, the Rev. Francis J. Wagner, who has been the spiritual advisor for the club, gave a farewell talk. Great regret is felt by the club members that his new duties are taking him to Highwood. The Bishop of Texas spoke, and Bishop Kelly made the club a parting visit.

Kenilworth Neighbors to Meet Next Thursday

THE initial meeting of the season of The Neighbors, the woman's club of Kenilworth, will be held for members and their guests on the afternoon of October 9. The meeting will be in charge of the department of music of which Mrs. Ernest Fleischmann is chairman. A delightful program will be given by Madame Sara Anderson Regneas of New York, dramatic soprano and Madame Ella Spravka, accompanist.

Mrs. John Howard Jones

Madame Regneas who is Mrs. Fleischmann's sister, is highly her in the east, and is very prominent in New York musical circles.

Those who have heard Madame Spravka at the Chamber Music concerts, know of her charm and great talent.

A social hour will follow the musicale, and the new officers will preside and receive the guests. Mrs. John Howard Jones is president; Mrs. Edwin Hedrick, vice president; Mrs. Robert Watt, recording secretary; Mrs. Edgar A. Stevens, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clyde P. Ross, treasurer.

The Nokol Guarantee Is Bonded by the Fidelity and Casualty Company

Nokol - the pioneer automatic oil heater for homes

The first Nokol Automatic Oil Heater was installed over five years ago. It offered the first efficient method of heating the home. It spanned the whole gap from the primitive, dirty, laborious coal furnace.

Today Nokol is nation-wide, with more than 20,000 installations throughout the country. And it is still the Pioneer. It is today as far in advance of all other home-heating systems as it was six years ago. It gives today guarantees of efficiency, performance and economy approached by no other home-heating device, coal or oil.

Install Nokol now, in cold weather, when you need heat.
