You have often wanted to furnish an extra room at little cost—yet you wanted it attractive and artistic.

The bedroom group sketched above offers a real opportunity. The design is patterned after the quaint spool turnings that were so popular two generations ago. Many fine old pieces found in homes of the "Old South" were fashioned with spool turned legs.

If you will write us we will gladly give you an interesting history of the spool design.

The prices are very reasonable—listed separately for your convenience.

Come in and spend an hour the next time you are in Evanston. Our stock of home furnishings is complete and carefully selected. You will be pleased at the prices.
