Keen interest is indicated in all the north shore communities in the Howard Street Exposition scheduled for the week of November 3-8 in the Chicago north limits business section. Included among the myriad displays of commodities will be special window exhibits of hosiery, lingerie, homecraft, basket-weaving, pottery and wax products. There will also be a table dressing contest and free motion pictures.

A feature of the week's program will be a lecture by George Nixon regarding the Howard street and Niles Center "L" Extension. Hundreds of gifts, souvenirs and prizes await those who visit the exposition.
