Editor's note: Accompanying is the final installment of interesting information regarding the recent Fiftieth Anniversary celebration of the Winnetka Congregational church. This material contains a report of the closing ceremonies of the Jubilee fete.

On Thursday and Friday evenings, October 23 and 24, the Religious Pageant presented by the Community Players under the direction of Mrs. Sherman M. Goble, was attended by capacity audiences, who were deeply impressed with the spiritual message contained in each of the six episodes. The beauty of the lines, written and arranged by Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, the aptness of the stage setting, the richness of the color in scenes and in the costumes and the earnestness of the players themselves, combined to produce an effect of deep significance and of lasting value.

On Saturday evening, many friends, both old and new, gathered at the parsonage to meet Mr. and Mrs. James A. Richards, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, and their guests, Mrs. Edwin F. Snell, Mr. and Mrs. Dowd and Dr. and Mrs. Winchester. Miss Harriet Kidder, daughter of the first regular minister of the church, was present; also Miss Kehr, daughter of Cyrus H. Kehr, one of the early residents of the village. Miss Kehr was born in Winnetka, and lived here until about ten years of age. She is at present Dean of the Women's faculty at Lake Forest college.

On Sunday morning, Rev. James A. Richards preached from the text, "The Next Fifty Years," and told the very definite plans and hopes of the church body for its further development and growth in the community.

The Jubilee exercises were brought to a fitting conclusion late the same afternoon by a candle light service of consecration at which the communion was celebrated. The visiting former pastors, Mr. Dowd and Dr. Winchester assisted Mr. Davies and Mr. Richards at this service.

Mrs. Samuel Carothers of Ben Avon, Pennsylvania, has been spending a few days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Fleming, 787 Foxdale avenue.

Mrs. William Crilly, 606 Provident avenue, will entertain the Pine Street circle Tuesday, November 11, at 2:30 o'clock.

PARENTS GO TO SCHOOL IN PLACE OF CHILDREN

In compliance with a general wish expressed by parents of children attending the Winnetka public schools, a Go-To-School evening, similar to those held at intervals at New Trier high school, will be observed in each of the Winnetka schools next week.

The parents will come to their children's session rooms where they will be met by the teachers. Each teacher will explain briefly the subjects taught by her and the scheme of the curriculum.

At the Horace Mann, Hubbard Woods and Greeley schools, the parents and teachers will assemble at 8 o'clock. After a half-hour session with the teachers the parents will assemble in the auditorium to hear an address relating to school work. The Horace Mann school parents will meet Monday night, November 10; Hubbard Woods, Wednesday night, November 12; Greeley school, Thursday night, November 13.

The Skokie school meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, November 11, when the parents will meet with the teachers in their children's session rooms. A regular school program will be conducted with abbreviated class periods. At 8:30 o'clock, all the parents will meet in Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall, where C. W. Washburne, superintendent of schools, will speak on the results of the Commonwealth Fund investigation of individual instruction, and Willard H. Beatty, principal of Skokie school, will talk on "The Junior High School Program."

Mrs. Carroll Ridgway and her children have left for Pasadena, where they will pass the winter months.

I'm up against it. The wife told me to bring home the meat for dinner tonight, but I don't know what to get. Every butcher shop you go into has the same old thing. There's no variety or selection.

The trouble with you is that you take too much for granted. If you traded at PETERS MARKET as I do, you'd have no complaint to make. There isn't another shop in town that carries as large selection of meats as they do. They have all the staples as well as lots of specialties. Watch for their Saturday specials.
