Kindergarten Faculty Gives Play

THREE performances of Racketty Packetty House, a delightful play for children, will be given by students of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college at the Woman's club of Evanston on Saturday, December 13, at 10:30 in the morning and at 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Children, and others who remember the play of Pinocchio, which was given at the Toy Carnival in Evanston last year by students of the college, will find that for vivacity, humor and charm, Racketty Packetty House will outshine even the former play.

The play, dramatized by Miss Clara Belle Baker from the story by Frances Hodgson Burnett, will be given under the direction of the Misses Etta Mount and Margaret Farrar of the college faculty. The program for the day will be under the auspices of the North Shore Alumnae association, of which Mrs. Harry G. Phillips is president. Mrs. Julius L. Gutmann, of Evanston, is in charge of general arrangements, and Miss Virginia Solberry and Miss Anna F. Murray are in charge of the sale of tickets.

Maude Mendelsohn Early December Bride

THE wedding of Miss Maude Mendelsohn of Winnetka to Harold A. Solomon of Chicago will take place December 3, at the Sovereign hotel at 7 o'clock with Dr. Gerson Levi officiating.

The bridal party includes fifteen. Mrs. Albert A. Kahn of Chicago will be the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Bernice Mendelsohn, Miss Ethel Stern, Miss Dorothy Kaye, Mrs. Arthur Solomon, all of Chicago, and Miss Marie Levi of Wilmette. The best man will be Walter Solomon, and the ushers, Arthur Solomon, LeRoy Kaye, Albert A. Kahn, and Lawrence Eiseman.

The bride will be very attractively gowned in white Romaine crepe. Her veil is to have a duchesse and rose point lace crown. Her bouquet will be white roses and lillies-of-the-valley. The attendants of the bride are to be gowned in dresses of soft pastel shades with garden bouquets to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Blumenthal of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Strause of Patusville, Pennsylvania, include the out-of-town guests. After a wedding trip in the east, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon will return to Winnetka to make their home.

Thanksgiving "Goodies" on Sale Wednesday

THE women of Christ Church Guild will hold their annual Thanksgiving food sale at the Parish house on Wednesday, November 26, beginning at 11 o'clock.

Cakes, cookies, pies, jellies, and all the good things for which these sales have become famous will be on display.

Home made mince meat will be a special feature, orders for which may be given to Miss Lamb, Winnetka 884.

Rev. and Mrs. Quincy L. Dowd of Lombard, Illinois, will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. William Harding King, at her home on Maple avenue. Mrs. King's other guests on that occasion will be Mrs. Dowd's sister, Miss Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Copeland, who are now living in Michigan City, and their son and daughter, Townsend and Miss Betty. Miss Ruth Copeland is attending school in the east.

Miss Katherine Sherman of 1062 Ash street, who is attending the University of Wisconsin, is bringing home as her houseguests, Miss Grace Sherman of Munster, Ohio, and Miss Jean Colby of Janesville. They will stay over the week-end and attend the Wisconsin-Chicago game.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo von Hoisten and their family, 773 Prospect avenue, returned to Winnetka early this month after an extended absence. Upon their arrival from Europe in September they spent two months in Michigan before coming home.

Mrs. Edward S. Rogers of 375 Chestnut avenue left Monday for New York. She will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Armstrong of 365 Sheridan road are expected home Monday from an eastern trip.

Dorothy M. Scharf of 509 Cherry street, a former New Trier student, has been appointed secretary of the Girl Reserves work at Elgin, Illinois, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. The work is carried on in the grammar and high schools of the city, and under her direction, fourteen groups have been organized and are doing good work.

She recently returned from the annual conference of secretaries held at Peoria, where she represented her department.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry of 870 Sheridan road announce the birth of a son, Leonard, at St. Luke's hospital, last Wednesday. Mrs. Casselberry is the daughter of John R. Leonard of Winnetka and has lived in the village since she was a child. Her first son, Hibbard Casselberry, Jr., is now two years old.

Mrs. C. P. Van Schaack of 614 Linden avenue entertained Mr. and Mrs. Victor Harding and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ickes of Hubbard Woods, Mrs. E. Wrightson of Wilmette, and Mrs. W. K. Kenly of the Fortnightly club, Chicago at a box party at Monday night's opera.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carpenter's little daughter, Josephine, was christened at Christ's church at 5 o'clock by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhart. After the ceremony, there followed a supper at the home of Mrs. William O. Green of Locust road.

Mrs. Lillian Drew of Traverse City, Michigan, is the guest of Mrs. William Cook and family of Lincoln avenue. Mrs. Cook will accompany Mrs. Drew to Detroit next week where they will visit Mrs. Cook's sons, Ralph and Chester, and their families.

The first of the series of subscription dances to be held at the Woman's club will be on Saturday night. There will be a supper served at the club before the dance. F. Goddard Cheney is the promoter of these dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farwell Ferry of 391 Sheridan road are giving holiday dances on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 30 and 31, for their children who have been away at school through the year.

The Oak Street circle will meet Tuesday, November 25, at the home of Mrs. William Morse of 433 Providence avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hanville of 840 Foxdale avenue, left Thursday for New York City where they will spend two or three weeks.
