

"Gert," Better Get That Mail at the Post Office!

Another dead letter has been received by Postmaster Elmer E. Adams of Winnetka and has been sent by him to WINNETKA TALK with the request that information be published that may lead to the finding of the sender of the letter. He makes the statement that on every occasion when the TALK has published information of this sort the writer of the dead letter has been located.

The postmaster's note follows: "A letter addressed to Mrs. Louis Grodent, 1634 Charles street, Winnetka, Ill., mailed on October 9, 1924, has been returned from the dead letter office with a request to find the sender. This letter contains money and is signed "Gert." If "Gert" will call at the Winnetka Post Office and identify the contents we will be glad to return the letter to her. It pays to put your return address on your mail."

Bowling and Indoor Now Attract Legion Athletes

Bowling and indoor baseball teams which have been organized by Winnetka Post, No. 10, American Legion, are practicing early and often and are rounding into splendid form, according to post commander, Thomas J. Lynch.

Like Duds you'll say "this place for mine - I think Suds' work is superfine"

WHEN you once get acquainted with the character of our work you will be as much of a booster for this laundry as Duds is. He consistently maintains that our work is the best that he's struck yet—and Duds has traveled around a great deal and ought to know what he is talking about.

THE NEW HALL OF FAME

Another Star in the New Hall of Fame

John Charles Thomas
on his first Brunswick Record

JOHN CHARLES THOMAS, for years a reigning favorite of light opera, and recently in concert, is now exclusively on Brunswick Records.

He is the latest addition to the renowned New Hall of Fame, that select group of world's finest musical talent.

His rich mellow baritone voice is suited best to the ballads that he sings. And on his first Brunswick Record—"Smilin' Through" and "Mother o' Mine"—he sets a new high standard for ballads.

We will be glad to play this immortal record—Thomas' first—for you. Come in any time. And remember, we've always new Brunswick Records at our store,

"What's in a Name?"

The name of every institution has behind it a reputation acquired through its dealings with the public.

The name of this bank stands for helpful service to all with whom we come in contact.

You will enjoy bringing your banking business to us, and we shall enjoy counting you among our depositors.

Are You Investing or Speculating?

Don't speculate, INVEST.

The difference is plain.

The man who speculates does not know what he will get back when he puts his money into an enterprise.

The man who invests does know.

When you put your money in this bank on a certificate of deposit you know it will draw interest for you every day you leave it here.
