

Handiwork of Shut-ins to be on Sale in Kenilworth

THE last few weeks before Christmas are crowded with sales of attractive gifts needed to complete the lists of busy shoppers. The purpose for these varies. On Tuesday, December 2, the Vocational Society of Shut-ins will hold a sale in Kenilworth at the home of Mrs. Harry Vissering, 257 Kenilworth avenue. Given annually, this affair provides the opportunity for the sale of lovely articles made by handicapped men and women who desire to aid in their own support. From 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the evening, a splendid selection of handmade gifts, everything for babies, cushions, footstools, and rugs will be on display for residents of our villages. Those who know of the work of these men and women consider it as fine as any exhibited at a Woman's exchange.

The Vocational society is the medium through which these invalids sell their handiwork to the outside world. The society is partly supported by small donations, by its membership, and by these sales. Women from Chicago and the north shore volunteer their services to instruct the shut-ins in their work.

Mrs. Harry Vissering and Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of Kenilworth are members of the board of directors, the former in charge of the sale to benefit this cause, so well worth while. Assisting them Tuesday will be several board members from Oak Park and Chicago, and Mrs. Sidney Eastman, Mrs. John P. Oleson, Mrs. Harry D. Harrison, Mrs. Charles Ware, Mrs. Fred D. Bright, Mrs. B. C. Hawkes, Mrs. John C. Carpenter, Mrs. Mark Cresap and Mrs. Otto C. Owen.

The December meeting of the New Trier circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Kuipers, 485 Elder lane, Tuesday, December 2. Mrs. Jesse Barnes is the assisting hostess. A very interesting program has been planned.

Things of Beauty Which Endure

DIAMONDS

NO COMMODITY on earth—well bought—depreciates so little with time and wear as diamonds. You may enjoy—with pride—the intimate possession and use of nature's masterpiece for a generation or more, at which time its value may have enhanced. Do you know of another article of luxury of which this may be said?

We have been diamond merchants for 67 years. The experience and judgment gained therein are at your service today. Every diamond that we offer is worthy of its price and of your approval.
