

MEN BEAT WOMEN BUT IT'S HOCKEY

Male Gladiators Use "Four Horsemen" Tactics

An exciting game of field hockey was played on Thanksgiving day between the Winnetka Woman's Hockey team and an aggregation comprising their husbands and friends. The men won 6 to 1, victory coming by virtue of superior speed and brute strength rather than skill, according to the vanquished.

The women were never quite sure of the number of their opponents, as substitutes were rushed into the fray with great abandon to supplant the breathless gladiators. On several occasions the game was halted to count the number of male contestants. The customary count was 12 rather than the required eleven.

Due to their ignorance of the rules, many fouls were charged against the men.

Following the manner of Knute Rockne, the men early elected a quartet of players who were dubbed "The four horsemen." They were injected into the argument whenever the fortunes of battle favored the female species.

The women hockeyites concede that after a little coaching, the men will develop into a speedy and powerful team. Outstanding stars were William Laing, Perry Smith, Walter Fisher and Thomas McLaren. The men's lineup included: Roy West, Perry Smith, Larned Greeley, Charles Matz, Henry Tenney, John Coolidge, Preston Coolidge, Don Harvey, Thomas McLaren, Paul Starr, Robert Elmer, Robert Brown, John Bull and others.

The Woman's team comprised the following:

Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mrs. Henry Tenney, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Paul Starr, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Thomas McLaren, Mrs. Preston Boyden, Mrs. Dow Harvey, Mrs. Sebastian Hinton and Miss Margaret DeLay.

On Saturday, November 29, the Winnetka Woman's Hockey team defeated the Midway team 5 to 1 in the title match of the Chicago Hockey league. Today the second Winnetka squad will meet the second Midway team for the championship in that class.

Mrs. B. A. Leader caused considerable confusion in the afternoon session at the Skokie school one day last week by appearing during the noon hour with her new moving picture camera slung over her shoulder. She wanted to get a film of her two boys, Donald and Jack, playing with their classmates. She had no trouble finding willing actors, in fact, the only trouble was experienced by the teachers in getting the actors in to their desks when the last bell rang. Mrs. Leader has been besieged by other children and teachers to take similar pictures of their rooms and she has made a number of promises for the near future. —Adv.
