Call the "Home Folks"

WHEN you reach your journey's end, call home by long distance telephone and let wife, husband, mother or father know that you have arrived safely. It will relieve the anxiety for the safety of travelers which is always felt by their loved ones.

REGARDLESS of higher level costs of materials and equipment, the Illinois Bell Telephone Company must continue to erect new buildings, equip them with new and modern apparatus and keep abreast of the demand for service. Each new telephone added increases the utility and the value of yours.

Use the inexpensive "station-to-station" service. Call "Long Distance," give the operator the number of the distant telephone, and tell her you will talk to anyone who answers. This service is about 20 per cent lower in rate than "person-to-person" service.

Evening and night rates for station-to-station calls are still further reduced.

Sidney Greeley Marries in East Today

THE marriage of Miss Annette Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin Stiles, of Fitchburg, Mass., and Sidney Foote Greeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Greeley of 655 Maple avenue, is taking place in the east this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A reception at the Stile residence will follow after the service that will be read at the First Parish church.

The matron of honor is Mrs. Carroll Harrington of Providence, R. I., the bride's sister, who was married October 4, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth Greeley of Winnetka, the groom's sister, Mrs. Bigelow Crocker of Fitchburg and Miss Elizabeth Fuller of New York. Carl Davis of Falmouth, Mass., will act as Mr. Greeley's best man, and the ushers, Francis R. Clark and William B. Breed of Boston; Bigelow Crocker and Walter F. Stiles, Jr., of Fitchburg; John S. Fleek of Cleveland and Joseph May Greeley of Winnetka, youngest brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Greeley and their two daughters, Miss Louisa May and Miss Elizabeth, left for the east Wednesday.

Snow Needed to Complete Club Winter Sports

AN informal dinner-dance and the big New Year's Eve party, one of the largest and most attractive affairs of the club year at Indian Hill are the two events listed on its calendar at the present time. But the days and evenings of the holiday time will be taken up with winter sports, and the clubhouse and grounds will throng with young people attending club affairs and those many Winnetka hostesses will give there. The skating has been splendid, and those wishing instruction are having it from Jack Davis who has come on from California for that particular purpose. We have been told that the ski jump and toboggan slide are all in readiness for the advent of snow, but the disposition of King Boreas is uncertain at best.

The end of the week will see many of Winnetka's young people home for the holidays. Elizabeth Stutson, Richard Joy, Jack Corlett, Jessie West, Irma Otten, Amy Hagen, who was elected to the varsity hockey team, Mary Ramsdell, Donald Dick, and Phillip Joy are coming from Illinois. Harriet Stilling, Julia Spiegel, Virginia MacLeish, and Louise Sherman will arrive from Bradford; Caroline Roberts, Virginia DeLay, and Christine Baumann from Smith; and Donald Crawford from Yale. J. H. Rogers from Lawrenceville school.

From Madison are coming Serena Forberg and Eleanor McEwen, from Williams, Cabray Wortley. Mary Louise Fenton will be here from Bishop school, California; Ashton Wilson and Virginia Wallace from Principia; Harriet Leonard from Radcliffe; Phoebe Fuller, Margot Atkin, and Isabelle Scott from Dobbs Ferry; Beatrice Ripley from Baldwin; Marcelle Vennema from Miss Mason's school, the Castle; Margaret White from Rockford, and Robert DePau from Beloit. On Tuesday, Paul and Richard Goble will arrive from Massachusetts Institution of Technology.

The meeting of the West Elm Street circle on Tuesday, December 9, at the home of Mrs. N. N. Henrich, was an all day affair that developed into a real Christmas party. Mrs. Carl Hanson assisted the hostess. The women sewed in the morning and early afternoon. At 1 o'clock the hostesses served a delightful luncheon, bright with Christmas decorations. A group of children from Skokie school presented "The Birds' Christmas Carol" for the afternoon program. Later quite a stir was created by the appearance of Santa Claus himself who had a gift for each one present. This was the occasion of one of the most enjoyable affairs of several seasons.

"The Golden Goose," the second play put on by the Junior league, is attracting many kiddies to the Playhouse Saturday mornings, as one may verify if she attempts to enter the Fine Arts building at noon, and encounters the crowd of youngsters rushing out. This production of the clever league players is the prize winning play of the National Junior League contest, won by Miss Dorothy Holloway of Cincinnati. It opened December 13, to continue for four weeks. The costumes were designed by "Ginny Carpenter."

Miss Georgene Faulkner will entertain the little folk of the Mathean Day Nursery of the Chicago Commons on Monday, December 22, at 11 o'clock. She will depict in story and costume the entire Santa Claus family including Grandpa and Grandma. Mrs. Theodore Coyne of Provident avenue, a new member of the nursery board, has arranged this program in combination with the old time Yule tree festivities.

The Christmas party given by the Kindergarten of the Congregational Sunday school takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The mothers are invited to be the guests of the little ones, each of whom is asked to bring a new, or used gift in good condition, for the children of the Chicago Commons.

Miss Edith Dillon, 814 Prospect avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is now slowly improving.

The Christmas festival of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college will be held this year in Trinity Episcopal church on Friday afternoon, December 19.

One of the loveliest Christmas customs of the college is the presentation by the students of gifts for little children, and this year each girl has taken an individual child in one of the city mission kindergartens and has chosen her gift for him with the same thought that she might put into the selection of a toy for her own small brother.

The candle processional by the choir, and the presentation of the gifts by the students, will be followed by the traditional Christmas story of the college, the legend of the Christ Child, told by Miss Edna Dean Baker, with the organ accompaniment as arranged by Francis M. Arnold.

This Christmas service is a lovely introduction to the Christmas season, and north shore friends who are able to attend will be most welcome.

Mr. Alfred Washington, and Mrs. Henry Hanson Brigham have issued invitations for a tea at the home of Mrs. Washington, 91 Beach road, Glencoe, on Saturday, December 27, from 3 until 6 o'clock, for their daughters, Miss Gwendolen Washington and Miss Edith Brigham. Following the tea, a dinner will be given for the assistants at the home of Mrs. Brigham, and later in the evening there will be dancing at Skokie club. Miss Washington graduated from Smith college last June, and Miss Brigham, a graduate of Miss Merrill's school, Mamarsueck, N. Y. is now attending the University of Chicago.

Relatives and a few intimate friends will be present at the simple, informal wedding ceremony that will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Lonquist, 418 Central avenue, Wilmette, next Wednesday morning, December 24, when Miss Audrey Lonquist will marry Theodore E. Mead, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Mead of Monterey, Cal.

A wedding breakfast will be served at the close of the service. The two attendants will be Miss Virginia Limbocher of Detroit and James Swan of Wilmette. Mr. Mead and his bride will be at home after the first of the year at 301 Nassau street, Princeton, New Jersey.

Members of the North Shore Musical society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. E. L. Essley, 234 Warwick road, Kenilworth, on the afternoon of December 29. Appearing on the special program given at this time will be Mrs. Alvene Resseguie, guest artist, who will sing three groups of songs; Mrs. Eloise Wilder, pianist, who will give two groups of piano selections, and Mrs. Erna Akely, accompanist.

Mrs. Harry L. Street of 592 Sheridan road played at the Young Fortnightly club in Chicago on Wednesday night. Members of the Wednesday club were the guests of the Fortnightly, and a very charming musical program was one of the main features of the evening. Mrs. Street and Miss Mary Hansen were the violinists, Miss Lewis played the 'cello, and Mrs. Bates the piano.

Mrs. Charles Walcott Hubbard, 849 Foxdale avenue, has left with her two sons for Mexico where they have planned to spend the Christmas holidays.
