M'CLURE HEADS STATE ADVERTISING ALLIANCE

W. Frank McClure, 219 Broadway, president of the Wilmette Sunday Evening club and a prominent civic leader, last week was elected president of the newly organized Advertising Clubs of Illinois at a meeting held in the Chicago Association of Commerce offices. Mr. McClure is vice president of the Albert Frank and company advertising agency.

One of the first responsibilities accepted by the new organization is to secure legislation in Illinois against fraudulent advertising practices. A bill similar to the "Printer's Ink Statutes" now in effect in 23 states will be suggested for passage before the next session of the state legislature.

The new organization of clubs follows a long effort by the advertising council of the Chicago Association of Commerce and of other Chicago, state and national associations to co-operate in getting an "honest advertising" statute for Illinois. The only existing state efforts which have been able to prevent fraudulent advertising are, notably, the Investor's Protective bureau in Chicago, a Better Business bureau in Peoria and a municipal ordinance in Joliet.

"There is a distinct need in Chicago, it being the nation's second largest city, for a law that will enable prosecution of advertisers who misrepresent their goods," said Mr. McClure.

The statute was given approval by 3,000 people in a rising vote at another meeting in Orchestra hall, at which, besides representatives from the advertising council, there were men from the local Engineering Advertising association, Woman's Advertising club of Chicago, Advertising post of the American Legion and the American Council of Advertising Agencies.
