

Marion Fulton Makes Debut With Reception and Dance

MISS Marion Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank David Fulton of 884 Hill road, Winnetka, will make her formal debut to society on Saturday afternoon, December 27. Poinsettias and Christmas greens are to be used in decoration in the Fulton home where the reception will be held from 4 o'clock until 7. Miss Fulton will wear a gown of white velvet trimmed with ostrich and rare old lace. Her mother will be dressed in blue velvet, brocaded with silver.

The friends of the debutante who will assist are Miss Beatrice Ripley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ripley; Miss Mary Louise Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Fenton; Miss Eleanor Dennehy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dennehy of Astor street, Chicago; Miss Jane Hawley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy F. Hawley of Milwaukee, and Miss Helen Anderson, Miss Fulton's room-mate at Syracuse university, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Smith of Evanston. Assisting Mrs. Fulton will be Mrs. E. Ashley Gerhard, Mrs. Edwin Price, Mrs. Charles McNie, Mrs. John Candler Cobb, Mrs. H. E. Harmon of Highland Park, and Mrs. George Earl Snyder of the Orrington hotel, the debutante's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton have issued several hundred invitations to the young people for the dance they are giving at Indian Hill club, Tuesday evening, December 30, at 8:30 o'clock. The guests will be served with supper at 11. Preceding the dance, Mrs. Charles McNie will entertain the 20 house guests of the Fultons at dinner.

On Tuesday, Mrs. John Candler Cobb gave a delightful winter sports luncheon for Miss Fulton and her friends at Indian Hill club. Poinsettias, the brilliant flower typical of the season, were used in decoration. After the luncheon coffee was served in the club lounge.

The first annual Kiddie's Christmas party was held on Wednesday at the Winnetka Masonic Temple under the auspices of the Winnetka Lodge, number 1078, in cooperation with the Winnetka chapter of the Eastern Star, number 942, and the Winnetka Temple club. This is the first year the project has been undertaken, but the success of the affair augurs well for the succeeding years. One hundred and fifty children were loaded with presents. They were served with refreshments and Santa Claus came out of a box to give his small admirers entertainment. There was also a beautiful Christmas tree. The party lasted from 2:30 until 5.

W. F. Groene is master of the lodge and he gives the statement that he was much pleased with the work the Eastern Star chapter has done, and much credit should be given to Mrs. R. B. Webster and her committee in arranging all the details of the undertaking.

Mrs. A. B. Martin is matron of the Eastern Star chapter of Winnetka.

Whenever possible, Christmas is the time for family gatherings, and this year many Winnetkans observed the day in this way.
