

Tony Sarg's Marionettes Will Play at Evanston

TONY Sarg's Marionettes, the original Marionettes that gave "Rip Van Winkle," "The Rose and the Ring," and "Don Quixote" are coming with a beautiful new production of Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island." The performance will be given at the Evanston Woman's club, Wednesday afternoon, January 14, at 4 o'clock, and Wednesday evening, January 14, at 8:15 o'clock. In this play, the Puppets are seen at their best, and there are beautiful scenic and lighting effects. Among the special features are a Pirate Chorus, a Hornpipe Dance, a Pirate ship in a storm at sea, and some wonderful animals.

All the famous characters appear, including Billy Bones, John Silver, Captain Flint, Captain Smollet, Mrs. Hawkins, Jim Hawkins, Dr. Liversy, and pirates, sailors and villagers.

Make early reservations for seats. Tickets will be mailed if check and self-addressed stamped envelope accompany order.

The front section of the house will be reserved for children.

Tickets are on sale in Evanston at Evanston Pharmacy, Davis street, and Chicago avenue, North Shore Talking Machine company, Church street and Lee's Drug store, Chicago avenue and Main street. In Wilmette, at Snider & Cazel's, Wilmette and Central avenues. They will also be on sale at the door.

The production is under the direction of Rachel Busey Kinsolving, Telephone Harrison 0536, 925 Fine Arts building, Chicago.

When two Russians who had been engaged specially to do the "kozatski," a Russian folk dance, for "Salome of the Tenements," confessed to Sidney Olcott that they knew nothing about that trepsichorean feat, the director pressed into service his two trusty assistants, Carl Fleming and Fred Fleck. They donned old clothes, make-up and the traditional over-size derbies. There's nothing like being versatile if you work in the Paramount studio.
