"Good Furniture Makes the Home"

"Quaint American"
Furniture

The best furniture for a girl's room is the kind which expresses most of the joyous spirit of dainty youth. Delicate lines in the design of the pieces, fascinating color and beautiful decoration, combined with utility and dependable construction are indispensable requisites. "Quaint American" furniture supplies all these needs and more, including the opportunity to select groups of pieces which meet any individual desire and necessity. And then too, when your girl has grown up or gone away to school, her bedroom will serve as a most dainty and attractive guest chamber.

The pieces sketched above may be had in jade green, Chinese blue, poppy red, black lacquer decorated, or antique walnut.

The prices in the antique walnut are as follows:

Vanity	$61.00
Bench	8.00
Chiffonobe	46.50
Rocker	8.85
Nite Stand	14.50
Bed	43.50
Rocker	27.50
Dresser (not shown)	56.00

Any piece may be bought separately.

Three Weeks Remain for Club Winter Season

INDIAN Hill is a busy place these days with weather ideal for winter sports, and the club a popular place for members to have dinners and skating parties throughout the week. Not much time remains before the club closes its doors for repairs, to blossom forth in the spring with attractive new appointments and changes. Tonight is the occasion of a dinner-dance. Next Saturday is the time set for the adult ice carnival, and a large dinner-dance on January 31, brings the season to an end.

Drama Class Engages Bertha Iles as Speaker

THE Drama class of the Winnetka Woman's club is most fortunate in having secured for its next speaker, Miss Bertha Iles, director of the Civic Theater of Chicago, and president of the Academy of Dramatic Education. Her subject will be "The Child in Dramatic Play," which will be illustrated either by her small pupils in person or by slides. She will speak at the club on Monday afternoon, January 26, at 3:30 o'clock.

Informal Reception Tonight at Case Home

MR. and Mrs. Francis M. Case, of 160 Sheridan road, are opening their home this evening to neighbors in their part of the village, to meet informally Rev. and Mrs. James A. Richards and Rev. and Mrs. J. W. F. Davies.

Those who heard Miss Ruth Stone at a recent meeting of the Woman's club will be glad to know that she is to be heard in Winnetka again. Miss Stone is a member of the Personnel department of the Western Electric company at present, but recently traveled extensively in the Near East. In her previous talk Miss Stone impressed her hearers with her ability to grasp and weigh a situation; therefore her talk upon "Impressions of Religious Tendencies in the Near East" should be of particular value. Miss Stone will speak at the next meeting of the Woman's Society of the Winnetka Congregational church, Wednesday, January 21, at 10 o'clock in the morning. Prior to her address the following brief program will be given:

Devotional—Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty
A Ten-Minute Survey of World Events—Mrs. E. E. Brown.
A Group of Songs—Mrs. George E. Frazer.

The usual sewing will be done and luncheon served at 12:15.

The annual meeting of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago will be held at a luncheon at the La Salle Wednesday, January 28, it was announced by Lucius Teter, president of the society.

The woman's auxiliary of the society will also hold its annual meeting at the same place, but at 10:30 in the morning.

Arrangements for both meetings are being made by a special committee as follows: Mrs. James M. Sheldon, chairman, Mrs. Robert W. Hamill, Mrs. Frank Winans, Mrs. I. E. Lacker, Mrs. Lyle Harper, Miss Ruth Lester and Mrs. Erie M. Lubeck.

The following pupils of Marion R. Lasier are taking part in a recital at the Woman's club today: Mary Anne Lowrey, Harriet Pearl, Albert Chambers, Eleanor Brooks, Caroline Barrett, Batlett Price, Helene Adler, Georgia Schoenthal, Katherine French, Helen Parsons, Constance Addenbrooke, Margaret McKenzie, Louise McKenzie, Rosalie Roach, Jack Thomson, Dorothy Thomson, Marian Thomas, Nancy Thomas, Jane Parker, Betty Parker, Gretchen Onderdonk, Jean Henning, Adelia Barroll, Margaret Hubsch, Louise Hubsch, Elizabeth Dunlap and Billy Cunnyng-ham.

Miss Frances Kern, formerly head of the department of education of the Kalamazoo Normal school, has become a member of the supervision department of the faculty of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college. For the present Miss Kern is residing at the Library Plaza hotel, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. McNamara have returned from a three months' trip abroad and are occupying the home of Mrs. A. A. Beebe, 25 Indian Hill road, during the latter's stay in California. Upon her return the first of April, the McNamaras will move into their own home at 267 Ridge avenue.

The Ash Street circle met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William F. Babcock of 566 Ash street. Miss Ruth Matz and Mrs. Sylvanus George Levy, of the Winnetka League of Women Voters, were the speakers of the afternoon. Their subject was "The Child Labor Bill."

Mrs. Clifford Bell and Mrs. Lydia Husston of Winnetka were guests who attended the "Pelican Roundup" luncheon given on Thursday at Carson Pirie's and by Winnetka members.

Mrs. George Friestedt and her son, George, of 972 Tower road were the guests at the Artists' contest given at Orchestra hall on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Gage of Hartford, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara Belva, to John Woodward of Nashville, Tenn. For the past six years Miss Gage has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W.
