

LOCAL CLUBS REPRESENTED AT TENTH DISTRICT MEETING

North Shore League Will Meet Monday Afternoon to Sew

THE next event on the North Shore Catholic Woman's league program for January is the sewing the social service department will do at the home of Mrs. Frederick Hubsch, 1072 Spruce street, Winnetka, Monday, January 26, at 2 o'clock.

League members are urged to attend the Requiem Mass offered for their deceased member, Mrs. John V. Clinnin, on Tuesday morning, January 27, at 8 o'clock at the Sacred Heart church.

Monday's meeting of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league at the Winnetka Woman's club was called to order by the president, Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster. The members thoroughly enjoyed the three numbers on the program. Mrs. H. Norman Cophorne sang a group of charming songs, and J. A. O'Donnell gave a very graphic description of her trip through Spain. Her talk on the cathedrals was of particular interest. The dramatic readings of Miss Florence Meade were most enthusiastically received.

Tenth District Clubs Meet on North Shore

THE Federation of Clubs of the Tenth Congressional district held its mid-year meeting in the Highland Park Woman's club Tuesday, January 20. The Highland Park Woman's club was the hostess club on this occasion.

Limited Reservations For View Day Luncheon

THE annual View Day at the Chicago Art institute is one of the eagerly anticipated programs of the Woman's Library Club of Glencoe. February 26 is the day set for the luncheon and tour, the former to be held at the Illinois Athletic club. Owing to a necessary limiting of reservations, only 100 guests can be accommodated. The first 100 Library club members applying for tickets will be supplied, and the paid reservations are to be made with Mrs. Francis Graham, Glencoe 74, as soon as possible. A month's notice is given in advance so that every woman may have the opportunity of attending the luncheon, and if there is a large enough overflow of applications, arrangements will be made for entertaining the applicants for luncheon elsewhere.

Owing to the crowded dining room at the Athletic club because of the building activities of the new Union League club, it has been necessary to limit the reservations to so small a number.

Two Speakers on Next Library Club Program

OTTO R. BARNETT, president of the library board, will talk on the Glencoe Public Library at the meeting of the Woman's Library Club of Glencoe on Thursday afternoon, January 29, at 2:30 o'clock. The other speaker on the program will be James Weber Linn of the University of Chicago who will discuss "Current American Literature." As usual a social hour and refreshments will follow the program.

The musicale on January 15 was heard with great delight by an unusually large audience which was very appreciative of the artists as well as of their excellent choice of selections.

The current events and literature classes conducted by Mrs. Anthony French Merrill each Monday morning at 10 in the Sunday School room of the Union church have been very well attended. The profit from these talks will be directed into the fund for the beautiful new home the club is planning to build.

Friday mornings at 9:30 o'clock Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber of Winnetka lectures on parliamentary law, under the auspices of the civics department. Her talks are held at the home of Mrs. Albert R. Gates of 690 Greenwood avenue.

This is the second year the department has conducted such a course and the enthusiasm with which Mrs. Lieber is heard prove the venture to be well worth while.

Women's Organizations to Give Radio Programs

A NOTICE has recently come from Radio Station WLS announcing a Homemakers' Hour the programs for which will be furnished by women's organizations in the middle west. It is stated that Mrs. Grace Viall Gray, president of the second Illinois District of Women's clubs will be in charge of these programs from the Sears Roebuck station.

The note reads, "Beginning on January 26 and on every Friday and Monday afternoon thereafter, Homemakers' Hour programs are to be put on. The first District of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs of which Mrs. Joseph S. Worker of Chicago is president, will arrange the initial program and others to follow in the order of application for a date for the staging of a radio program.

"According to present plans, women's clubs wishing to broadcast programs are to make application for dates and to submit programs at least two weeks in advance of the presentation. This is in the nature of a contest, the most popular program will be that receiving the largest number of commendatory messages."

Non-club Members May Hear Next Book Review

THE regular monthly Book Review meeting of the Woman's Club of Wilmette will be held at the club Friday morning, January 30, at 10 o'clock. These meetings are open to non-members.

The books to be discussed on this occasion are: "The Autobiography of an Idea" by Louis Sullivan, reviewed by Mrs. A. J. Coburn; "The White Monkey" by John Galsworthy, reviewed by Mrs. W. W. Kerr; "Outward Bound," a drama by Sutton Vane, reviewed by Mrs. J. C. Comfort.

There will be no meeting of the current events class on January 28, but it will convene February 11. Notice of the subject Mr. Kline will discuss will be announced later.

Bertha Iles Will Speak at Winnetka Club Mon.

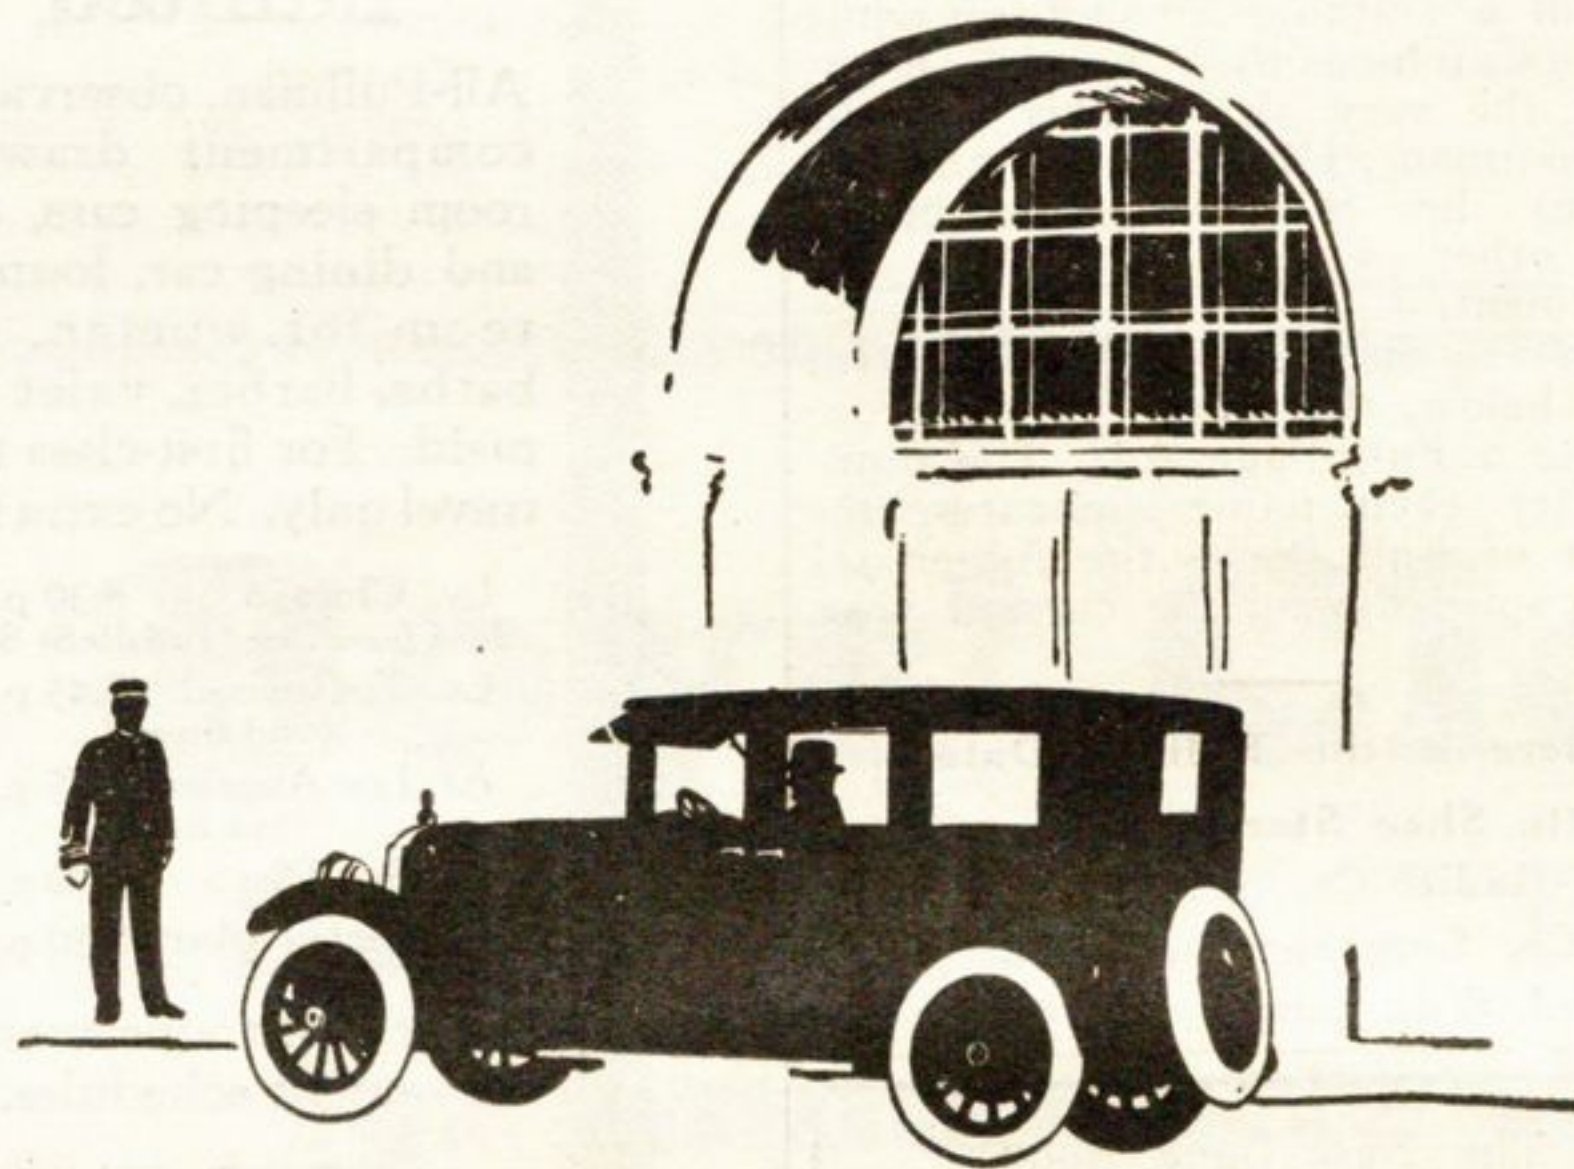

THE drama class of the Winnetka Woman's club announces as the speaker for the meeting on January 26, Miss Bertha Iles, director of the Civic Theater of Chicago, and president of the Academy of Dramatic Education. Her talk on "The Child in the Dramatic Play" will be illustrated either by her own pupils in person, or by slides. She will speak at 2:30 o'clock. The drama class feels itself extremely fortunate in having secured Miss Iles and hope-that a large number of members will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this delightful speaker.

Effective Speech Class Commences Next Monday

COMMENCING January 26, at 9:30 o'clock and continuing each Monday morning for ten weeks, Miss Maude Miner will conduct classes in "Effective Speech" in the Woman's Club of Wilmette, under the auspices of the art and literature department. For information call Mrs. S. R. Mason, Wilmette 2184. Several such classes have been conducted in the past, and already there has been quite an enrollment for this course.

QUALITY CARS AT LOWER PRICES

It is interesting to note that the remarkable price revisions recently announced on all enclosed models of the Packard Six were made in the midst of one of the most prosperous years the Packard Motor Car Company has ever enjoyed.

The Revised Prices, at Detroit

Five Passenger Sedan	($790 reduction)	$2585
Seven Passenger Sedan	($840 reduction)	2785
Five Passenger Sedan Limousine	($640 reduction)	2785
Seven Passenger Sedan Limousine	($790 reduction)	2885
Four Passenger Coupe	($690 reduction)	2585
Five Passenger Coupe	($765 reduction)	2685

Many will ask how such unusual price reductions can be made without to the slightest extent sacrificing anything in the car—beauty of line, perfection of finish or quality in either chassis or body.
