

Two Well Known Artists to Give Club Musicale

MRS. Norman Harris, chairman of the music committee of the Winnetka Woman's club announces an unusually interesting program for Thursday afternoon, February 5, at 2:30 o'clock. Joseph Brinkman, pianist, and Robert W. Quick, violinist, will give a joint recital. Robert Sanders will be the accompanist.

Mr. Brinkman received a brilliant ovation when he appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra on the afternoon of Friday, December 5, and Saturday evening, December 6, of this season. Mr. Quick has just won the violin contest held by the Society of American Musicians and will appear as soloist with the orchestra at one of the popular concerts in February. The program given by these artists will be announced next week.

The March program of the music department will be a song recital by Clara M. Sheville.

The MacDowell Musical Club of Winnetka met at the home of Mrs. Paul C. Seyl, 279 Ridge avenue, on Monday afternoon, January 12. A program of English music was given.

The quartet of the Glencoe Union church added greatly to the program by singing a number of negro spirituals.
