

TENTH DISTRICT CLUBS URGED TO ADOPT "BUDDY TABLES"

Winnetka Musicale Occasion of Open Meeting at Club

THE music department of the Winnetka Woman's club announces that the joint recital by Joseph Brinkman, pianist, Robert Quick, violinist, and Robert Sanders, accompanist, on Thursday, February 5, will be an OPEN MEETING!

Edward Moore of the Chicago Tribune, stated in the December 6 edition of that paper. "The most spontaneous, the most hearty, and the longest continued applause given to any soloist of the season, fell to Joseph Brinkman when he appeared with the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Orchestra hall last night, playing the Liszt Hungarian Fantasy. Fireworks started out from all over the keyboard under his fingers it is true, but he had more than virtuosity. He was able to give the piece an appearance of high manner and sentiment which one infers is what Liszt had in mind. When such qualities get into what is at first only a display piece, the player has gone beneath the surface. Mr. Brinkman was loudly welcomed as having furnished the most attractive and persuasive solo appearance of the season, and he deserved it."

Mr. Quick as winner of the contest for violinists held under the auspices of the American Society of Musicians will appear as soloist with the Orchestra in one of the February popular concerts.

Mr. Sanders, who will accompany Mr. Quick, is a composer of great promise and has had a number of his compositions played in Chicago the past year.

These young artists will give the following program at 2:30 o'clock:

The musicale is in charge of the music committee comprising Mrs. Norman Harris, Mrs. Darrell Boyd, Mrs. Horace Tenney, Mrs. Gilbert Scribner and Mrs. Charles Mordock.

THE first regular program of the coming month for the Woman's Club of Wilmette occurs February 4. The morning meeting at 11 o'clock is in charge of the civics department which announces that the talk will be on a subject of general interest. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

The second musical on the calendar is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The Florentine Trio, together with Helen Hedges, soprano, will give the program. The Trio, consisting of Margaret Conrad, violinist;

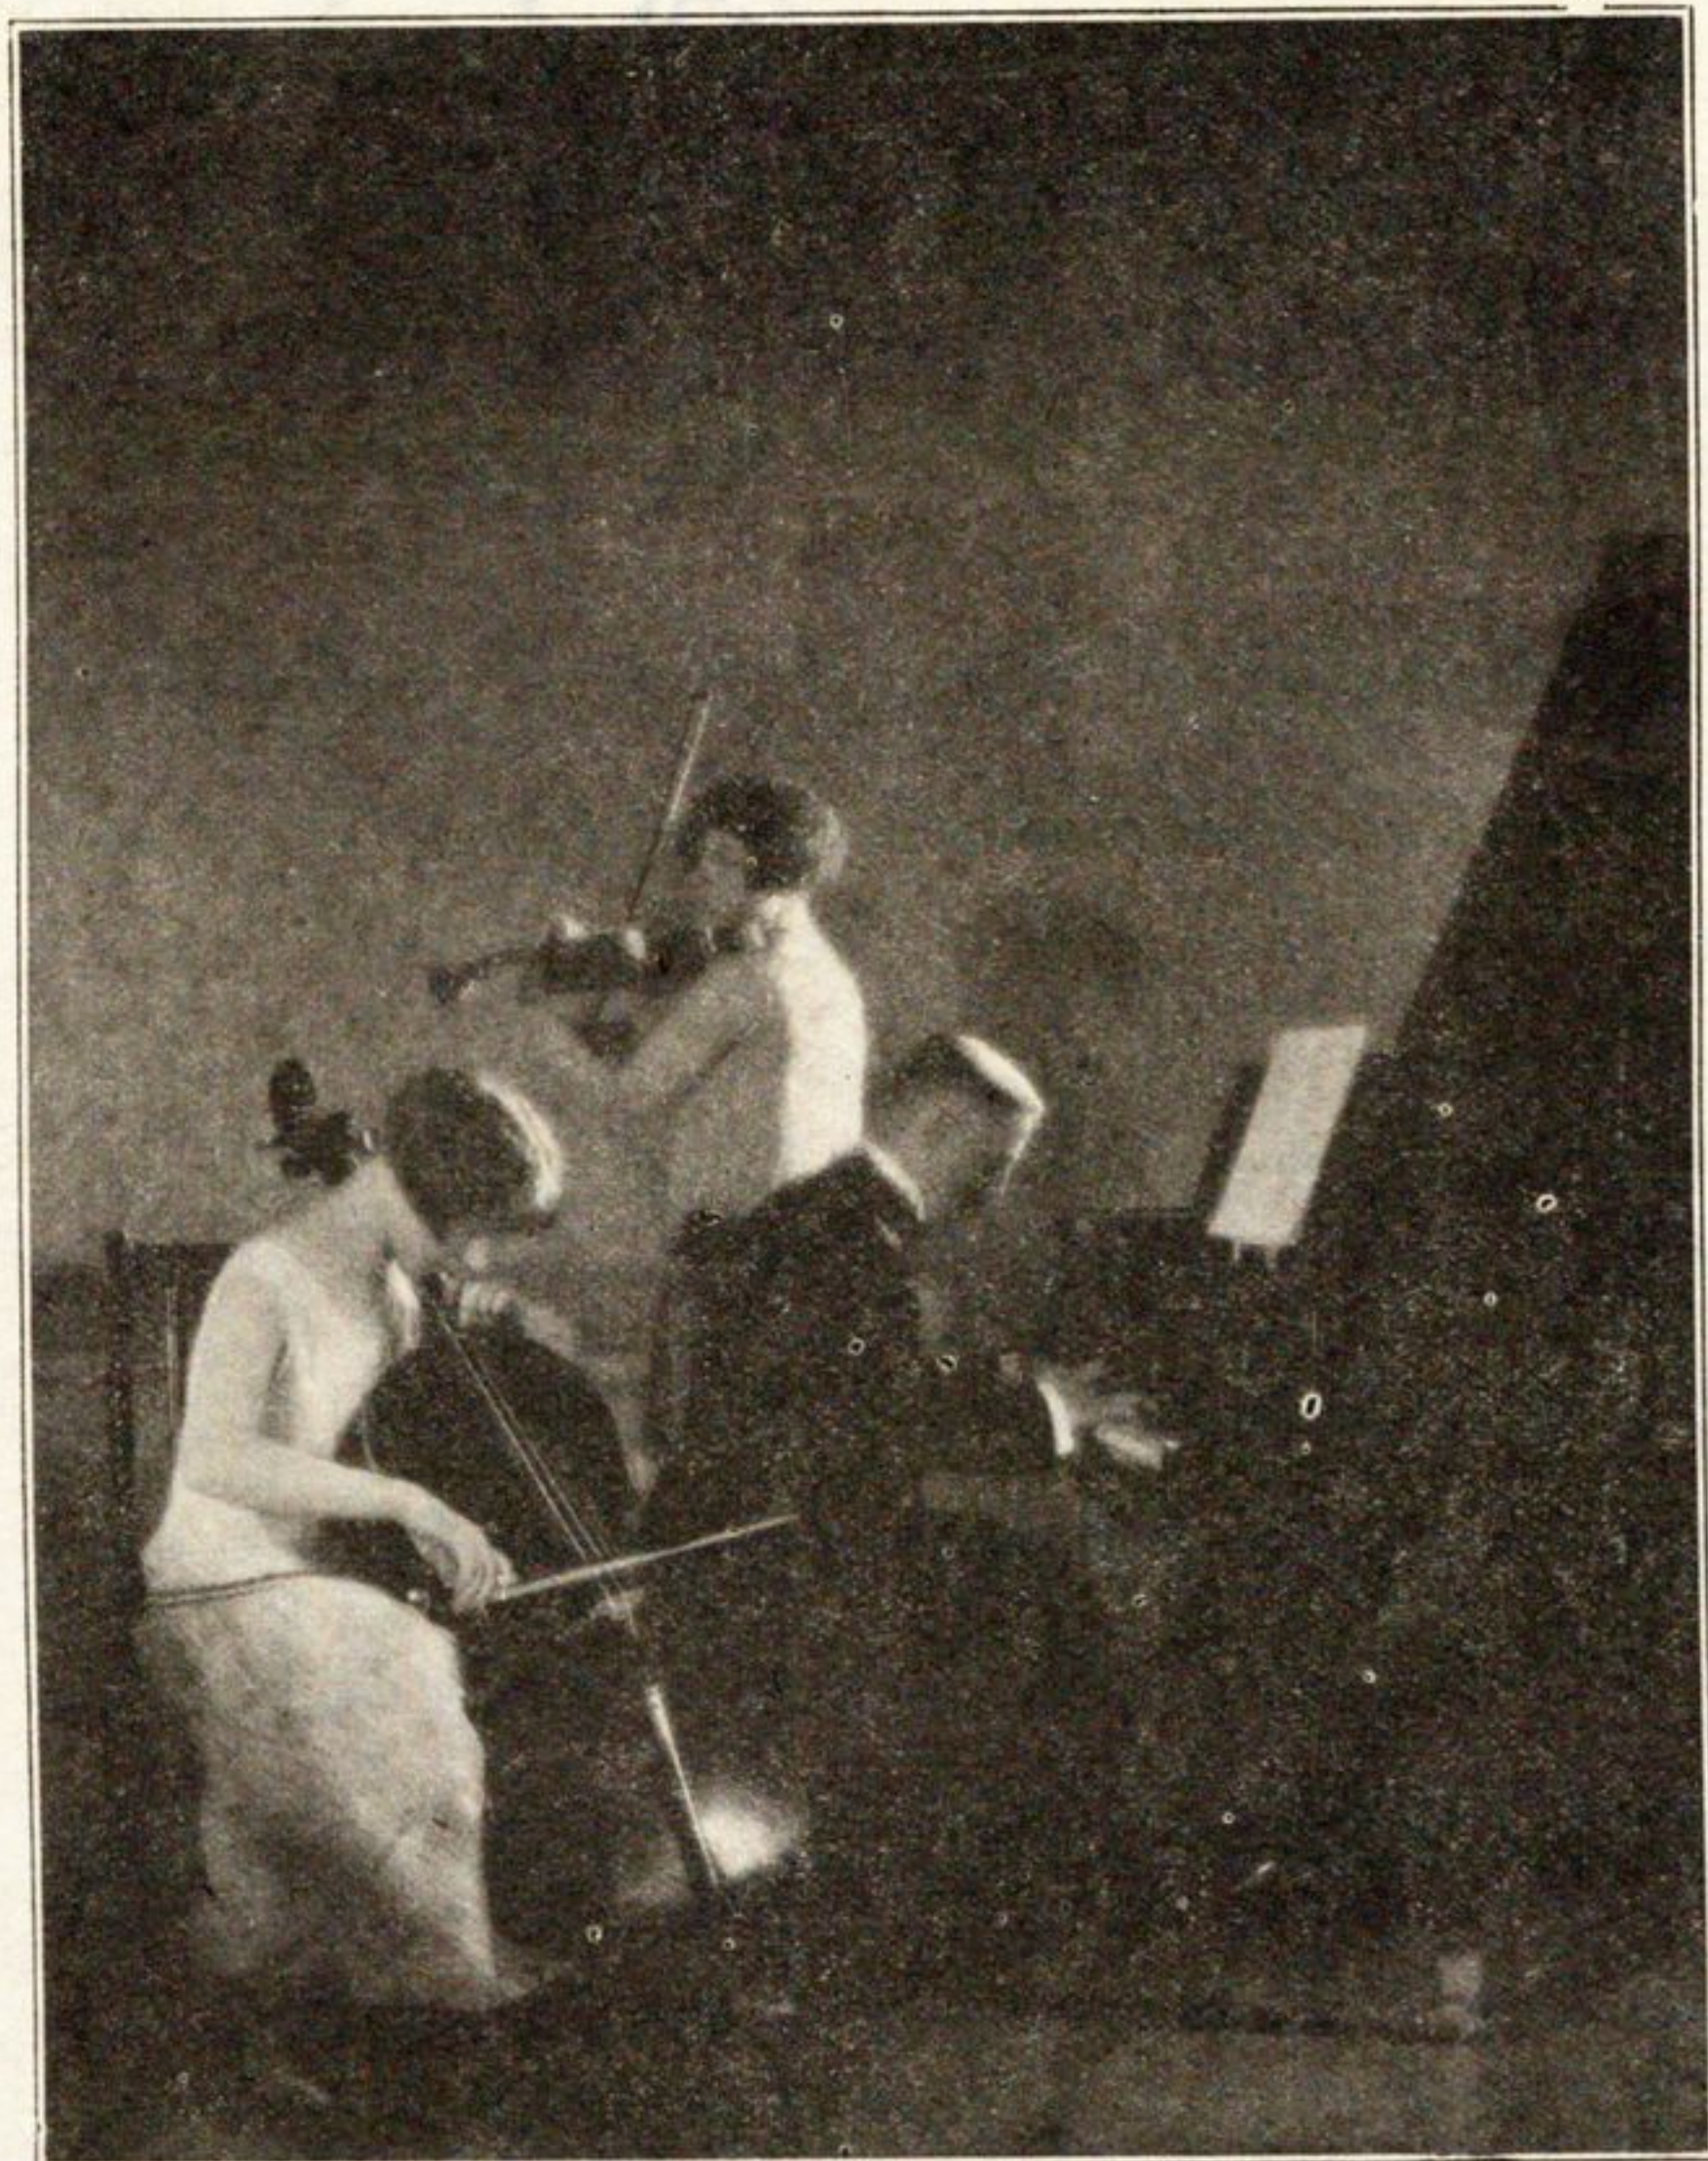

Hilda Hinricks, cellist; and Preston Graves, pianist, offers an exceptional combination of three concert artists whose ensemble and solo work ranks with the best. They are well known in Chicago and the Middle West.

Helen Hedges, a young soprano of very great promise, has had her musical training in Chicago. Although one of the so-called "younger artists" Miss Hedges has received commendation from many world renowned musicians for whom she has sung. She appeared at third Friday of February from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon at the Woman's Club of Wilmette. The philanthropy department of the club provides all materials, and a delightful luncheon is served at a very small cost. The sewing for the coming month is under the direction of Mrs. Willard H. Thayer. Wilmette women can give concrete evidence of their interest in the orphanage by meeting at the clubhouse on these two Fridays.

Take Inventory

That's in style right now, and it can be done in the home to as great an advantage as in the business. Go through your cedar chests and closets and call on us to renew the many things you find there. You will be surprised at the magic we shall work with them. Returned to you fresh, their beauty and color restored until you see them as new garments. Take your inventory. You'll find so much that is just mussed up a bit and slightly soiled. Things that are in style because they fit your own individuality. Send them to us and you will marvel at their clean, fresh and chic appearance when returned to you—literally renewed.

THE PACKARD EIGHT—

Of all the famous Packards, each the greatest car of its time, none won world-wide acceptance so quickly as the Packard Eight.

Go where you will among the great cities of the world, there will you find the Packard Eight—standing at attention in front of some smart club in Buenos Aires; gracing the grounds of some old English manor, or purring along the Champs Elysees like some great, contented, living thing.

And at Aix-les-Bains; at Vichy; at Tourquet; at Wiesbaden, and other famous watering places where car beautycontests have been the season's fad, proud owners of Packard Eights have entered their cars and been awarded first prizes in competition with the finest cars of all the world.

But best of all, at home the Packard Eight has been received so generously that month after month there has been an actual shortage of cars.

ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE

Dr. Nathaniel Butler to Address "The Neighbors"

THE Neighbors, the woman's club of Kenilworth, announces that its next meeting on February 5 will be a lecture by Dr. Nathaniel Butler of the University of Chicago who will speak on "Religion, Education and Democracy." Dr. Butler is well known on the north shore and with the mention of his name goes the assurance of a splendid lecture.

Those in attendance at the gathering of The Neighbors on January 22, when Dr. Abram Mendenhall gave a talk on "Quality in Bone China" declared the occasion one of the most fascinating and profitable in the club's history.

There was nothing of the formal lecture in the manner in which Dr. Mendenhall told of his intimate knowledge of the making of English bone china. His years of experience and his visits to the great potteries of England provided him with a wealth of information that embraced a far wider and more interesting field than the mere naming of his topic implied. He conveyed to his audience the worth of fine bone china. He described the differences in design and the outstanding features of the various well known makes of this ware, and he told of their influence in the carrying out of artistic decoration in the home.

He stated that every bit of the output from the large bone china potteries in England was handmade. He gave a detailed account of its manufacture, how a special clay from England and Wales, no longer exported, combined with pulverized bone from the forelegs of cattle from Argentina is combined to form 55 percent of the mixture that forms the body of the finished product. Fourteen other elements are then added to compose a foundation absolutely impervious to the absorption of the glaze, a condition that gives this china its great strength and durability and distinguishes it from other ware. He illustrated his point by placing a beautiful Minton plate on the floor and standing on it, to the amazement of his audience. He stated that the plate would bear a weight of 250 pounds without breaking.

He related how the potters have become artists in their work through years of adept application to their especial task, how they put great care and pride in their work, and how art is expressed in the lovely colorings and designs peculiar to each make of bone china.

Dr. Mendenhall's charming personality delighted his audience and the club feels very grateful to him for the delightful afternoon.

Winnetka Woman's Club Explains Guest Rules

THE Winnetka Woman's club held its regular meeting on Thursday, January 22.

It was announced that the Chicago Woman's club was cooperating with several of the women's organizations to further the Child Labor problem and that Mr. Owen Lovejoy would speak at that club on January 29. Miss Matz made clear the ruling in regard to guests visiting the club. There will be two open meetings during the year, and each member may invite one resident guest to either of these meetings without fee. At all regular meetings members may invite one non-resident guest without fee and one resident upon payment of fee. It is understood that one living outside of the village limits is considered non-resident.

Mrs. William Hamm gave a splendid paper on some of the events which took place at the meeting of the Tenth District clubs at Highland Park, January 20.

Mrs. Norman Harris has a delightful program planned for February 5.

Mrs. Homer Cotton will give three lectures on "Music Appreciation" before the Woman's Club of Wilmette. Notices will come later as to dates.

Mrs. Frazer and her committee have a keen appreciation of the fine talent in the village and have been bringing to the club delightful programs prepared by "our own" women. The first one was given December 4, and the program for this meeting was given by Mrs. Preston Boyden who completely captivated her large audience. She gave a paper on "The Renaissance of American Poetry." Mrs. Boyden has a complete understanding of the poets and discussed fearlessly the moderns. After much applause, she read one of her own very much worth while compositions.

Tea was served by Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden, Mrs. Robert W. Anderson, Mrs. Mrs. Ralph Buck, Mrs. Montague Ferry, Mrs. Charles F. Harding and Mrs. John C. Markley.

February 6, Day of Garden Club Meeting

THE Garden Club of Wilmette holds its next meeting Friday, February 6, at the home of Mrs. C. P. Berg, 1320 Greenwood avenue. Mrs. Weedon, who will be in charge of the meeting will give a talk on the gardens of France and England that she visited.
