

'JOLLIES' SET FOR BIG SHOW

Indian Hill Vodvillians Prepared to Give Villagers Rare Treat Next Week

SEATS NOW ON SALE

Wednesday and Thursday are the Dates

Attention! Attention! All ye residents of the merry village of Winnetka know by these presents that this is absolutely (almost) your last chance to get tickets for the "Jollies of 1925," the dashing, dazzling musical comedy staged by the Indian Hill Improvement association, which will be presented in the auditorium of New Trier high school Wednesday and Thursday evenings, February 11 and 12. It features an all-star cast of well known north shore amateurs and the tunes, lines and lyrics live up to the whole standard of the show which would be a credit to a professional stage.

Dress Rehearsal Monday

The final assignments of parts have been made and a dress rehearsal will be held Monday evening at which time the finishing touches will be given to the various scenes. Those in the cast are: Union Station sketch—Train announcer, C. B. Hill; Hebrew passenger, C. T. Davis; Noah Lott, information clerk, Albert Weise; Mrs. Wood Wedd, a widow, Mrs. George Perrigo; Willie, her small son, M. G. Pryor; Indelible, a porter, George Perrigo; Reginald Fairbanks, almost engaged, Giles Weise; O. U. Sweetie, groom, Lloyd A. Faxon; Ima Sweetie, his bride, Dorothy Root, May Wedd, Geneva Edinger; Jiss Waite, a millionaire, E. A. Mercadel.

C. Hancock, W. H. Watson, Lloyd A. Faxon, C. T. Davis, Ernest Mercadel, Erler Mercadel, E. A. Mercadel, Richard Lockard, Theodore Stehlin, Percy Sawyer, Grant Hancock and Russell Jendry.

Carnival scene—Mrs. S. C. Hancock, Mrs. Sherman Orwig, Mrs. Roy A. Whipple and Mrs. O. B. Hill.

Attractive Chorus

Chorus—Ann Kenny, Katherine Kenny, Bernice Mendelsohn, Maude Mendelsohn, Helen Yount, Marion Keeney, Frances Eitzbach, Monna Kraut, Olga Mangel, Norma Clark, Wendel, Marie Biggs, Eleanor Hill, Katherine Tufts, Ernest Mercadel, Erler Mercadel, William King, Richard Lackard, Theodore Stehlin and George Wendel.

This cast of 50 persons has been rehearsing almost nightly under the direction of the Joe Brenn company of Chicago, which stages both amateur professional productions. The costumes for the show are all new and beautiful and the songs and lines are clever and catchy. Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at Adams' pharmacy and are reported selling like the proverbial hot cakes. If you intend to see this show you had better step around and get yours before they are all gone.

Hitching Behind Cars Unlawful in Winnetka

In the opinion of village officials the practice of hitching sleds behind automobiles has become so dangerous that an ordinance making the practice unlawful was enacted by the Village council at its last meeting. Whether there will be any cause to enforce the measure during the remainder of this season is problematical, but it stands ready to be enforced next winter and may be the means of saving someone from serious injury or death. The sense of the new ordinance is as follows:

"That no person shall permit or allow any person to hitch, hook or attach by any rope, wire or other means, any sled to any vehicle within the Village of Winnetka, whether such vehicle is moving or stationary. Whoever violates this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in a sum not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00)."

"Spirit" to Be Subject for Christian Scientists

The subject for the lesson-sermon at the services of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Winnetka, on Sunday, February 8, will be "Spirit."

Services are held in the Masonic temple building at 708 Elm street at 11 o'clock. Sunday school convenes at 9:35 o'clock and a testimonial meeting is held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The reading room at 526 Linden street is open daily except Sunday from noon until 5 o'clock and on Wednesday evening from 9 to 9:30 o'clock.

PANTOMIMES TO SHOW TUESDAY

Young and Old Invited to View Plays

Tuesday, February 10, the Pantomimes will be in Winnetka.

"What is a pantomime?" some of the children are asking.

A pantomime is a play without words. That means that the actors must be very much better actors than most, or people wouldn't understand what they were trying to do. Pantomimes very often are accompanied by music. The music helps one to understand the emotions of the characters. Some of the plays are very funny. Others are fairy stories. Some are quite dramatic. They are all very beautiful.

An afternoon program has been arranged especially for children—though it will be very enjoyable for their elders, as well. The first number is "The Doll's Adventures," which has met with very enthusiastic responses wherever the Pantomimes have appeared. The other longer number is a series of scenes from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," including the comic experiences of Nick Bottom and his company in their comedy "Pyrramus and Thisbe." There are a number of shorter sketches and dances, some comic, and some otherwise, to complete the program.

In the evening "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be repeated with two other pantomimes, "The Strolling Player" and "La Querida Del Toreador," and one or two shorter episodes. This is a program with father and mother more in mind, but still one which young folks should thoroughly enjoy.

Willard Beatty, principal of the Skokie school is so anxious that children, young and old, should find it possible to come that he has made a special rate for high school children in the evening, taking them in as though they were still below 12 years of age. Tickets for the performances are on sale in the offices of the four Winnetka schools, at the Community Pharmacy, and Adams Pharmacy in Winnetka, as well. Also at the door on the night of the performance.

Children's Pageant Wins Praise at Local School

Capacity crowds flocked to the two performances of the pageant "Service," presented last Saturday night and Monday afternoon as a part of the program when the new auditorium and gymnasium at the Horace Mann school was dedicated.

More than 200 children of the school took part in the pageant, which was written and staged especially for the occasion by Miss Douglass Whitehead. At the Monday afternoon performance, to which admission was charged, more than $100 was taken in by the school.

The pageant was voted a huge success by all who saw it. All the stage properties and costumes were made by the children.

We're Not Slipping Back, Class Decides

Whether or not the world has made any spiritual progress was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Men's class of the Winnetka Congregational church last Sunday morning. The question was placed before the meeting by one of the members who argued that the recent war, the attitude of the rising generation and political irregularity all indicated a retrogression in the spiritual qualities and morals of the present day.

The response from the floor was almost instantaneous and it was quite apparent that there was no cause for pessimism in this respect.

Dr. Edmund D. Soper of Northwestern university will address the class this Sunday on the subject "Life after Death."

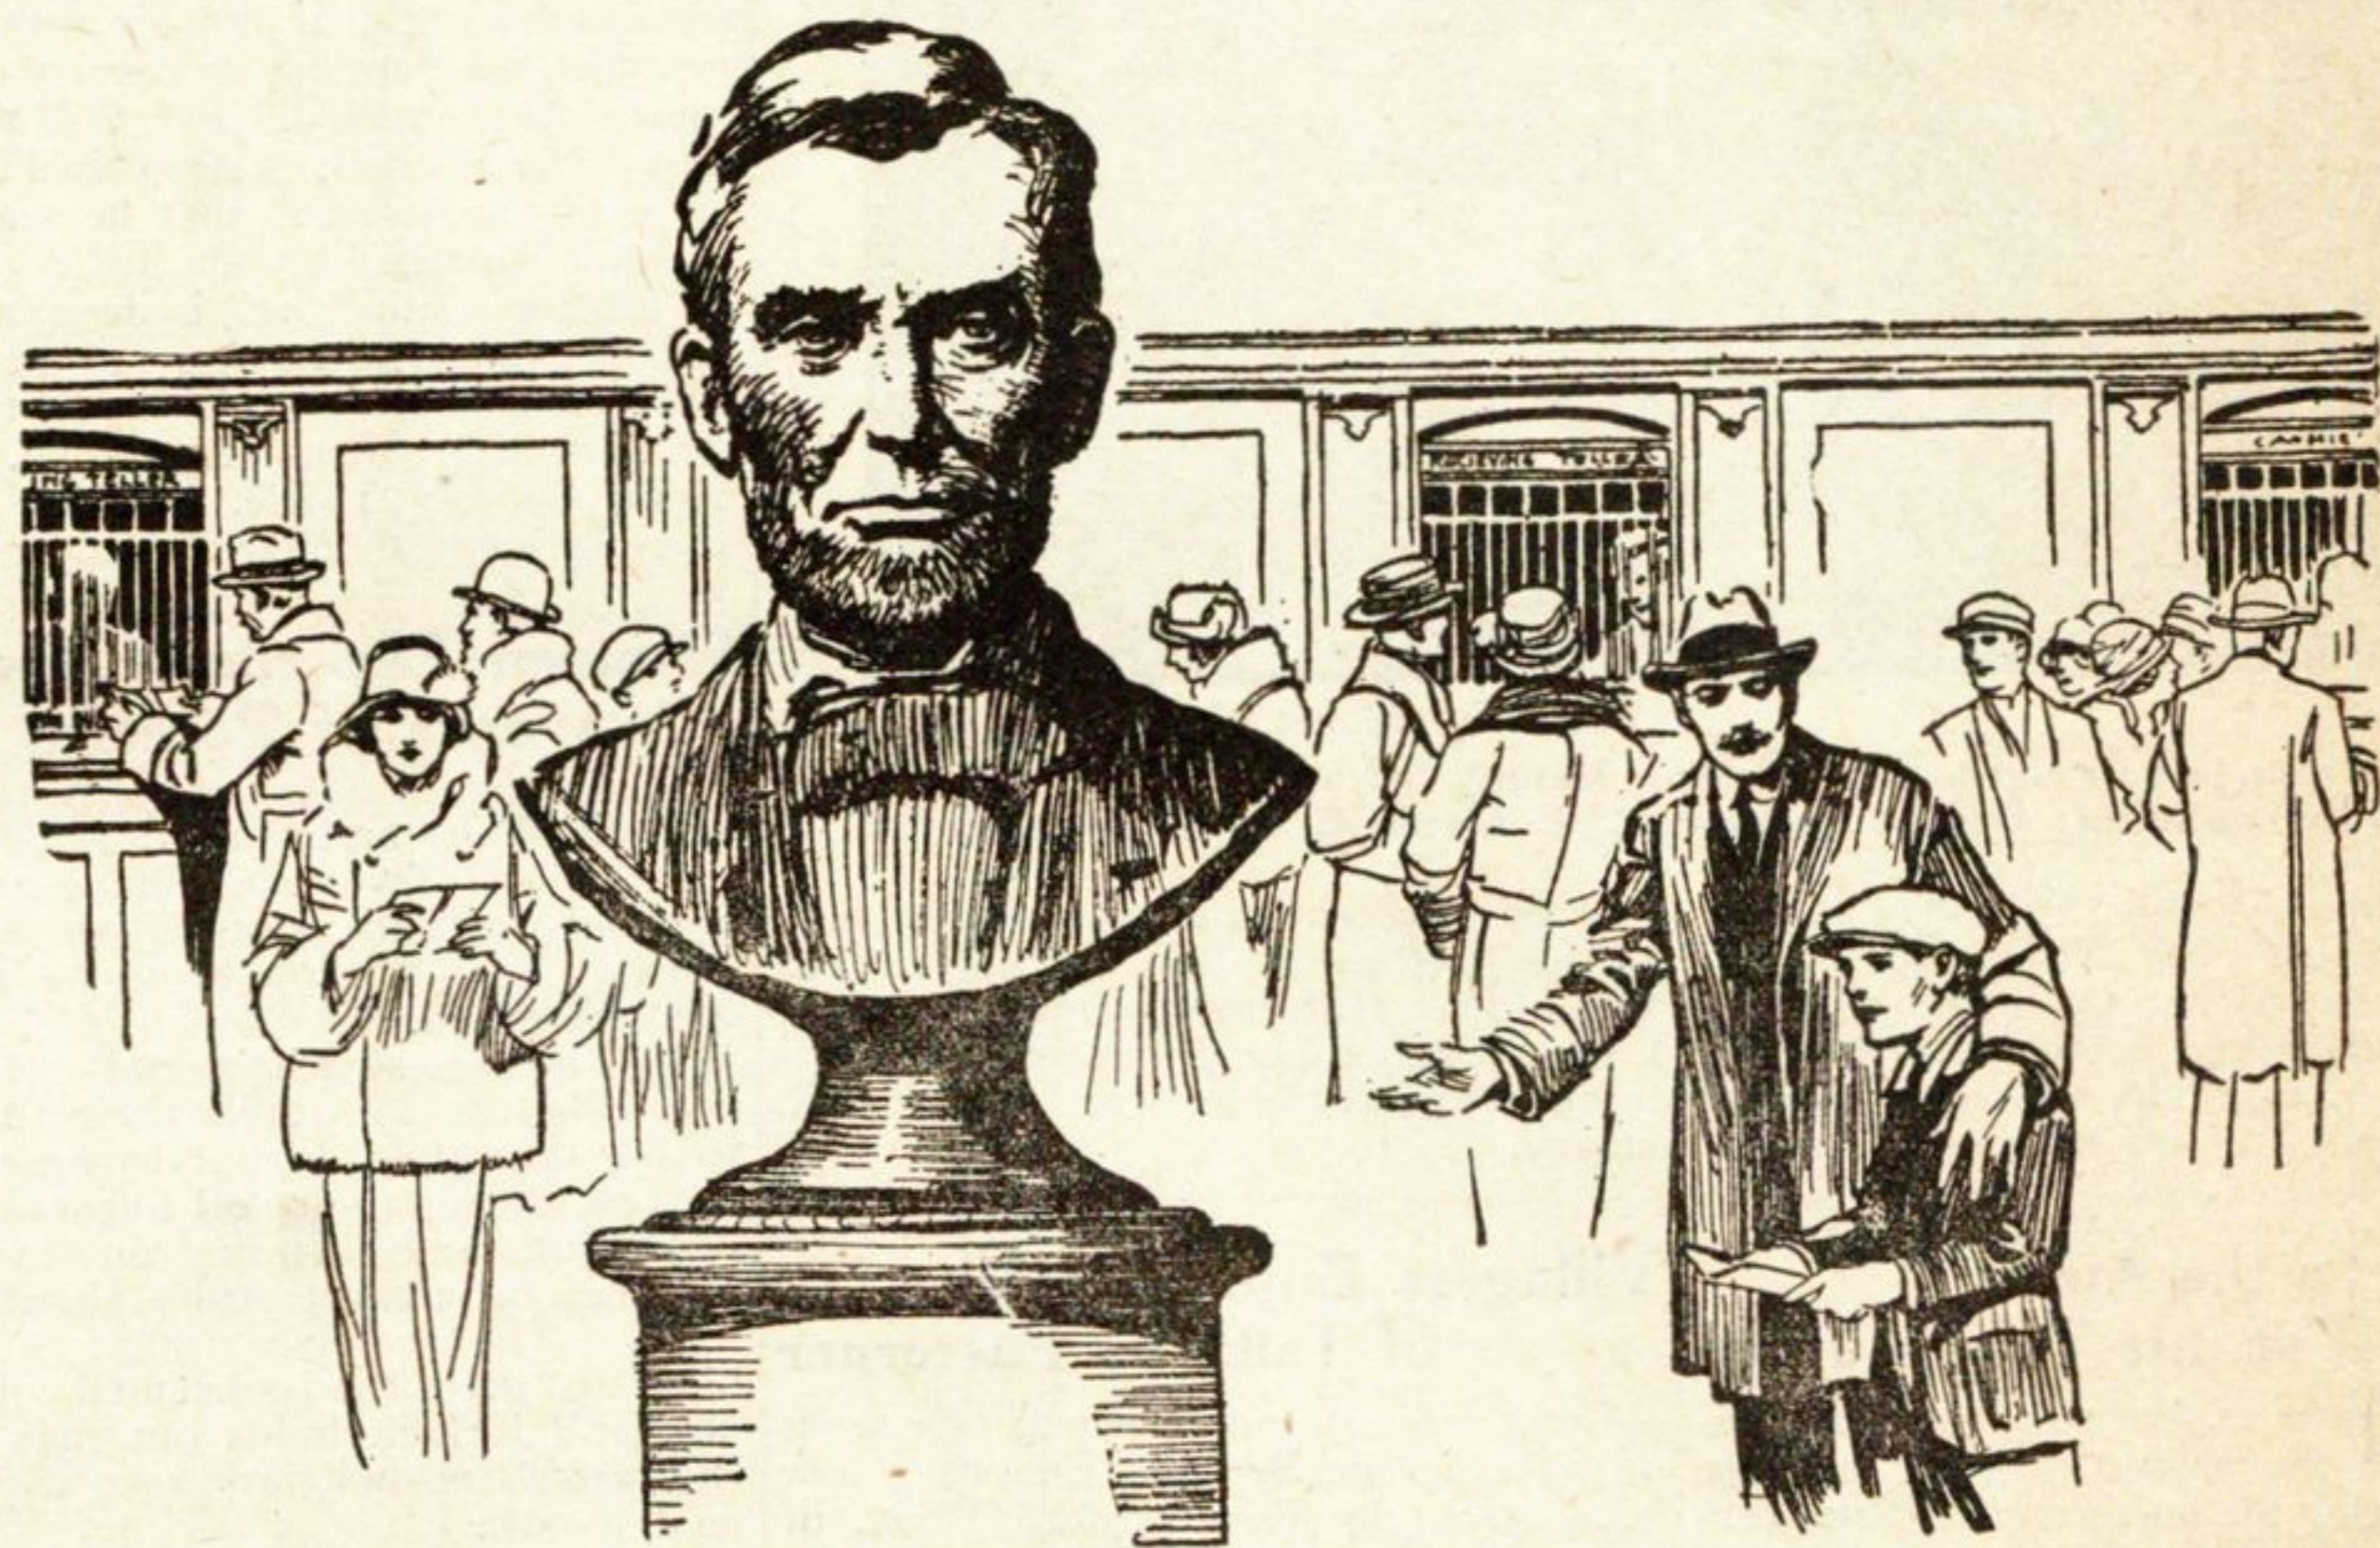

The class constitutes an open forum and all men of the village are welcome to meet with it in the American Legion room at the Community House at 9:30 o'clock every Sunday morning.

The Ash Street circle meets Tuesday, February 10, at the home of Mrs. Richard B. Webster, 266 Provident avenue, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Jacob Replogle will assist the hostess.

Summon Summer Campers to Sign Up with "Chief"

"Chief" J. W. F. Davies is again making plans for the summer camps at Lake Hamlin, Mich., of which he is director. Boys and girls who are thinking of registering for this year's camp are advised to communicate as soon as possible with Mrs. E. W. Wortley, assistant to the director at Community House.

It is especially important that the old campers register without delay, in order to avoid disappointment later on, as new applications are being made now, and the camps are limited in number to 30 each.
