

Atmosphere of Spring Prevails at Wedding

SPRING flowers in profusion and banked palms formed the simple, artistic background for the small home wedding that took place at the William S. Moore residence, 531 Washington avenue, Wilmette, Saturday evening, January 31, when Miss Dorothy Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Dean of Morristown, N. J., became the bride of Harold E. Moore. Dr. Hubert Carleton of St. Augustine's Episcopal church read the service at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. A supper was served after the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of net and filet over a slip of crepe de chine and lace, and her veil of tulle was held to her head with a band of pearls. Bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley formed her bouquet. Mrs. Harris L. Baker, Jr. of Glencoe, her matron of honor, her classmate at Bradford academy, was attired in orchid panne velvet and carried pink sweet peas. Another school friend, Miss Elizabeth Merrill of Evanston, played during the ceremony. William S. Moore, II was the little ring bearer, and the bridegroom's father served as his best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be at home after February 10 at Noblesville, Ind. where Mr. Moore has taken a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean returned to their home in Morristown Monday evening being the home guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore.

Members of the North Shore Musical society will give their next program February 23 at the home of Miss Adelaide Jones, 1020 Central avenue, with Miss Flentye and Mrs. Stewart assisting. The following numbers will be played:

The last monthly program was given at the home of Mrs. Harold R. Sherman, 714 Washington avenue, Wilmette, on January 26. An interesting letter from Mrs. Maculey, who is now in Rome, was read to the club and a program of considerable merit was given by the following members: Mrs. MacShane and Mrs. Akley played four hand selections in a very artistic manner. Mrs. MacShane also played a beautiful suite composed by Surkow Ryder and dedicated to Mrs. MacShane. Mrs. Dazey of Madison, Wis., Mrs. Coards, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Seaver and Dorothy Rae gave the vocal part of the program, and as always afforded great pleasure and showed fine musicianship. Mrs. Cree played a violin concerto with great depth of feeling.

Anita Willets Burnham of Winnetka, well known north shore artist who has delighted many club audiences with her clever tales of foreign travel, will broadcast her talk, "Abroad with a Paint Box and a Family of Six" from WQJ, Chicago, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, February 7, and February 14.

Mrs. R. W. Carlsten of 326 Woodlawn avenue and Mrs. Thomas Wheatley of 329 Fairview avenue have just returned from Bloomington where they visited Mrs. Carlsten's parents for a few days. Mrs. Carlsten's father, Herman Hoffman, accompanied his daughter to Winnetka for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Head announce the birth of a daughter, Lyda Mary, January 8. Mrs. Head is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Shepherd of 1531 Central avenue, with whom she and her family are staying at present.

About 60 Alpha Phi alumnae were entertained at luncheon Saturday, January 31, at the home of Miss Dorothy Yonkers of 911 Sheridan road.
