IN SOCIETY

Ruth Stone to Speak in Winnetka February 18

FOR the third time an attempt is being made to bring Miss Ruth Stone and her eager audience together. When she spoke before the Women's club the weather was so inclement that comparatively few dared to brave it. Since so many regretted their failure to hear Miss Stone, the Woman's Society of the Congregational church asked her to speak on January 21, as previously advertised. This meeting it was necessary to omit. Miss Stone, however, was gracious and has granted us another chance. She will speak at 10 o'clock, February 18, at the World Friendship meeting in the Neighborhood room at Community House.

Miss Stone is now with the personnel department of the Western Electric company, but has recently traveled extensively in the Near East, and from these travels she takes her theme, "Impressions of Religious Tendencies in the Near East." This meeting is for all who will be glad to hear Miss Stone.

Prior to the address the following brief program will be given: Devotional, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty. World Crier, Mrs. Edwin E. Brown. A Group of Songs, Mrs. Ernst von Ammon.

Friends are invited to bring their own sewing, and to stay to luncheon at 12:15. In the afternoon, meetings will be held of the work committee upstairs, and the executive board in the Neighborhood room.

Hostess List for Wellesley Benefit

THE advent of each day means hours of busy activity for Wellesley alumnae of the north shore, who as members of the Chicago Wellesley club, are united and untiring in their efforts to carry out the extensive plans for the afternoon bridge parties on February 24 to benefit their college endowment fund.

On this occasion, the following alumnae will be hostesses in the north shore towns: Evanston, Mrs. Irwin Rew, Mrs. Chester Tripp, Mrs. Samuel Walter White, Mrs. Andrew K. Rodgers, Mrs. John McClellan, Mrs. Herbert Pope, Mrs. Bruce Scott, Mrs. Alfred Tyler, Mrs. Chester Woodley, and Mrs. Richard Lake; Wilmette, Mrs. Charles Ray McCallum, Miss Jean Ten Broeck, joint hostesses, at the home of the latter; Kenilworth, Mrs. Fred Bulley and her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Starrett, joint hostesses at the home of the former; Winnetka, Mrs. William Sherman Hay, Mrs. Hubert Howard, and Mrs. Frederick D. Montgomery; Glencoe, Mrs. Bruce MacLeish; Highland Park, Mrs. William F. Peter and Mrs. George E. Bliss.

About 30 members attended the meeting of the West Elm Street circle held on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Willis S. Hilpert. Mrs. Burton Atwood was the assisting hostess. Mrs. Carrie Prouty gave a talk on Winnetka, and Mrs. Charles Sommer gave some piano-logues. A delicious luncheon was served. Every woman present brought family heirlooms and told the history of each one.

Mrs. Andrew W. Mitchell, 254 Scott avenue, has as her guest this winter, Miss Verbeth Martin of the Pearson hotel, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and their guest have just returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where they spent a month.

Mrs. Raymond E. Durham, 808 Auburn avenue, returned on Friday night of last week from a ten day visit with friends in the East.

At a meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the Cordon club, representatives of the Alumnae Forum of Eastern Colleges discussed plans for a joint luncheon and conference to be held at the Blackstone hotel February 28.

The purpose of this luncheon and conference, it is said, is to interest prominent educators and others in the problem of entrance requirements and preparatory work necessary to pass the rigid standards established by the larger women's colleges of the East.

Those present at the meeting included Miss Eleanor Donnelly and Mrs. Richard Bently of Bryn Mawr; Mrs. Robert S. de Golyer and Miss Emma George Hemmingway of Goucher college; Miss Harriet McGee and Mrs. James J. Forstall, representing Mount Holyoke; Mrs. John Jay Healy, Miss Frances Hooper and Mrs. Arthur D. Welton, Mrs. W. Dow Harvey and Mrs. John Matter of Vassar college; Mrs. Louise Taft Smith, Radcliffe college; Mrs. Hubert Howard and Mrs. Ralph C. Brown, Wellesley college, and Mrs. Walter Warren and Mrs. John Green of Wells.

Mrs. Walter E. Webb and her daughter, Miss Helen, of 334 Hawthorne avenue, will entertain a group of young people at a luncheon given on Saturday, February 21, in honor of Miss Dorothy S. Hare of South Orange, N. J., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gerald Grant of Glencoe. Those present will include: The Misses Esther Nielson, Marian McGregor, Harriet Mac Neille, Alice Channer, Margery Miller, Janet Cunningham, Mabel Enright, Anita Earnshaw, Edith Mariana, and Jean Duncan.

The Phi Beta Phi fraternity is having a card party on Friday, February 20, at the Evanston Country club, for the benefit of the house fund. Mrs. Homer W. Bang, 612 Hinman avenue, Evanston, is president of the house association. Mrs. Walter S. Schinz, 2225 Ridge avenue, is chairman of the ways and means committee. Others assisting in arrangements are Mrs. F. P. Pruitt, Mrs. Harold Wilzgar and Mrs. Harry Daniels.

Mrs. Fillmore Campbell, formerly Miss Katherine McKinney, returned to her home in New Wilmington, Pa. on Friday of last week after a five week visit with her mother, Mrs. William McKinney of 605 Cherry street. Among the affairs given for Mrs. Campbell while she was in the village were the shower given by Mrs. Daniel Noe and the tea given by Mrs. Wellington Coolidge.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Crilly, 606 Provident avenue, are entertaining a group of friends this evening in celebration of St. Valentine's day. A midnight supper will be served.

Miss Dora Seeberger has arrived in Winnetka from China for an extensive visit with Mrs. Stephen Foster, 596 Maple avenue.
