To those who are interested in the very finest specimens of Oriental Rug Weaving in the large sizes

We suggest—as worthy of special study and consideration—the following

ORIENTAL CARPETS

These are but a few of the many fine specimens which our huge stock affords—selected by our own representatives in the Orient and imported direct to this establishment.

Those seeking Oriental Rugs of rarest excellence will find here a collection unsurpassed anywhere in America—in point of quality, value and assortment.

ROYAL KAZANSHAH, size 22.5 by 13.7, a Rug of unique beauty and quality that will appeal especially to the connoisseur. The general tone is mulberry, in all-over floral medallion design, with detail employing a wealth of Oriental colorings. It has one wide border patterned in blue, wine, green and ecru, and twelve small borders in exquisite harmonies. Any description of this Rug—however well done—would be inadequate. The value is most exceptional at $12,000.

ROYAL ISPAHAN, size 20.6 by 13.8, Garden of Roses design carried out in minute detail. The natural form and color of flowers and foliage, blended and softened by rarest artistry, form the motif, surrounded by a frame of one large and sixteen small borders of quaint and unusual richness—a masterpiece. The price is $5,200.

ROYAL PALACE SAROUK, 26.5 by 14.6. Deep Persian blue ground; all-over design of leaves and flowers in color combinations of soft rose, old gold, and ivory—designed and outlined with colorings of mulberry and wine; one large border, six smaller ones. Rich and beautiful specimen. Price, $4,500.

LAVERE KIRMAN, 20.8 by 10.0. Royal blue ground; all-over design richly ornamented in hues of old rose, soft green and ecru; one rose border, six smaller ones. Very odd in size and unique in design. Price, $2,100.

ROYAL ISPAHAN, 22.4 by 13.10. Finest weave; old rose ground; Tree of Life covering the entire field; colorings of golden brown and sky blue; one large and eighteen small borders in typical Oriental color combinations. Price, $3,250.

ROYAL KIRMANSHAH, 19.3 by 17.2; an unusually fine specimen. Rose and olive green ground; floral and conventional disk design, elaborated in ivory and sky blue; one large and eight small borders. Price, $3,600.

ANTIQUÉ BIJAR KURDISTAN, 27.6 by 17.3. Royal blue ground; wild, bold, beautiful Kurdish design. Very heavy. Price, $3,500.

ROYAL KASHAN, 21.2 by 13.10. Royal blue ground; all-over design decorated with tan, light blue, red, and mulberry, with touches of gold; one large and four small borders. Price, $7,500.

We will undertake commissions to find in the Orient rugs of special size, design and characteristics which may not be available in America

New Trier Girls Work for Arden Shore

A GROUP of freshmen girls at New Trier has chosen Arden Shore as the object of its interest and community service during the four years of high school work. Before Christmas the girls began to sew for the babies, and by June will have finished a number of useful articles in preparation for the summer camp work.

Valentine's Day they gave a party at the camp for the boys of the winter camp who are there to have their health improved through proper rest and nutritious food, and to learn to care for themselves. All but four of the 26 girls in the group went to Lake Bluff, taking with them a large supply of party "goodies" and a gorgeous red Valentine box so well filled, that each of the 37 boys could participate.

Most of the girls had never visited the grounds, so the boys were more than delighted to act as hosts on a sightseeing ramble. This, with the singing, dancing, and refreshments made the time pass quickly, and the end of the afternoon found an enthusiastic group of young people eagerly anticipating another visit in the spring.

Temple to Be Scene of Social Festivity

AMONG the large events on Winnetka's calendar for next week are two affairs that will be given by the Winnetka Chapter, No. 942, Order of the Eastern Star. The Chapter is planning a series of three card parties, the first of which will take place Tuesday afternoon, February 24, at 2 o'clock, in the Masonic temple. Tables will be provided for five-hundred and bunco as well as bridge. There will be a prize for each table and tea will be served at the close of the games. Mrs. Forbes Cadenhead 1056 Ely road, and Mrs. George T. Mullen of 410 Woodlawn avenue are joint chairmen from whom tickets may be procured.

On February 27, the same organization is giving a card party and dance in the Temple at 7:30 o'clock.

Plans have been perfected for the luncheon of the Alumnae Forum of Eastern Colleges to be held Saturday, February 28, in the Crystal ballroom of the Blackstone hotel.

Mrs. Percival Hart is general chairman of the luncheon committee, assisted by Mrs. Henry Skipp, Mrs. James P. Fleming, Mrs. Richard Bentley, Mrs. Charles F. Kelley, Miss Helen Grant, Miss Florence Huth, and Miss Marion Lyndoa.

The luncheon will be followed by a joint conference on the subject of entrance requirements for the women's colleges. Several speakers of nation wide renown and authorities on educational problems have accepted invitations to be present and take part in the discussion.

As this is to be an open meeting and marks the first time that the graduate groups of these colleges have cooperated in such an undertaking, it is expected that several hundred will attend. Reservations may be made by calling the Blackstone or notifying Mrs. Hart at 1222 East Fifty-second street, Chicago.

"Why Translate the New Testament?" This question is often put to the men who have done it in the Twentieth century. Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed, of the University of Chicago, is the author of "The New Testament: An American Translation," which was published about a year ago. That this translation has been heatedly discussed, is well known. Do we know why it was written, or its sources? Have we determined from first-hand evidence where we stand with those who condemn or those who praise?

The Chicago Tribune called the translation "monkeying with the Bible . . . Tampering with the King James version is chipping a cathedral." On the other hand, the New Republic declared that "The English is so clear and simple that it deserves to take its place as a standard of English as we speak it today." And the World's Work said that "It has a kind of atmosphere which is very remarkable for simplicity, for reverence, for something quite indefinable, which carries a great charm."

Dr. Goodspeed is to lecture here on March 4, at the meeting of the Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church.

The Skokie Dance club gave a beautiful Valentine masquerade party at the Woman's club last Saturday night for 140 guests. The men's best costume prize was awarded to Carrol C. Kendrick, and the women's prize went to Mrs. Heber H. Smith of Ridge avenue. Some of the dinner parties that preceded the dance were given by Mr. and Mrs. Warner Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Urion, Mr. and Mrs. C. Durand Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. McClain Reinhart.

The Parent-Teacher association entertained the teachers of the Winnetka schools at a sleigh-ride Wednesday afternoon from 4 until 5 o'clock, which was followed by a High tea from 5 until 6 at the home of Mrs. William S. Elliott, 650 Blackthorne road. Among those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Walter Fisher, Jr., president of the association, and Mrs. N. H. Blatchford, Mrs. George Gordon, Mrs. Charles Howell Coffin and Mrs. Seymour Olmsted.

Miss Gurli Lagergren, who has been spending the winter in Long Beach, Cal., sailed from San Francisco, January 20, for a 58 day trip to Hawaii, Australia, and the South Sea Islands.

The music department of the Winnetka Woman's club announces an evening son recital Monday, March 9, at 8:15 o'clock, by Clara M. Schevill, mezzo-soprano.

Mrs. Schevill is the wife of Ferdinand Schevill, professor of modern history at the University of Chicago. She is well known in Chicago musical circles, and has made many successful professional appearances during the past years.

In August she gave a lecture recital at Mandel hall, University of Chicago, in conjunction with Professor Schevill, on "Folk and Folk Songs of the Hebrides." In November she appeared as soloist with the St. Louis Symphony orchestra, Rudolph Ganz, conducting, and in October she gave a recital at Fine Arts Recital hall, Chicago. Her press notices at that time were as follows: Hackett, of the Post: "Mrs. Schevill has become an excellent singer. Her voice is a mezzo-soprano of full, warm timbre, ample volume, and with the tone firmly sustained. She tells the story with understanding." Edward Moore, Tribune: "Mrs. Schevill combined the antiquities of Carissimi and Boltegar with the modernity of Castelnuovo-Tedesco in a single group in her song recital at the Fine Arts Recital hall last night, and bridged the gap with complete success." Rosenfeld, of the News: "Rich vocal quality, musical authority." Herman Devries, American: "A perfect musician, a molder of melody, to whom her warm, well modulated voice, is a mere instrument for expression and not a major issue."

Mrs. Schevill's program will be announced later.

Every club member may bring one guest. The hostesses will be the members of last year's and this year's music committees: Mrs. Norman Harris, chairman, and Mrs. C. Colton Daughaday, Mrs. Rudolph Matz, Miss Augusta Fenger, Mrs. Charles Mordock, Mrs. Horace Tenney, Mrs. Darrell Boyd, and Mrs. Gilbert Scribner.

The first exhibit of the North Shore Art league to be given in Winnetka will be held at Community House from February 26 until March 4, inclusive, according to a recent announcement. The display will open on Thursday evening with a dinner at which a number of men prominent in the art world will be present.

The exhibit will contain oils, water colors, pastels, etchings, black and white drawings and sculpture. Members will be permitted to exhibit two pieces of sculpture and two big pictures suitably framed.

The league, recently organized for the promotion of good art, is composed of professional and amateur artists. Plans are underway for a series of lectures by men eminent in the world of art, and in the early spring, the work of pupils of the north shore public schools will be on exhibition.

An informal musical was given at the home of Mrs. Wm. D. McAdams, 734 Lincoln avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. Carstrom of Barrington, formerly of Winetka, gave three groups of songs, and Mrs. McAdams and Mrs. Norman Parker of Evanston played Cesar Franck's Sonata. The entire program was very pleasing.

A party that was a complete surprise was given for Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Banning of 855 Lincoln avenue last Saturday evening when 28 friends dropped in to enjoy bridge, dancing, and light refreshments.
