

HERE'S A WOW OF A PROGRAM

Radio Stars Come in Person to North Shore

Next Monday evening, March 16, will, in the truest sense, be Radio Night for the north shore since it is announced that Frint George, originator of the Radio-Stars-in-Person form of divertimento, will at that time escort no less than 25 Chicago radio artists to the Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall, at Skokie school, Winnetka, where they will provide a program of varied and plentiful entertainment under auspices of the Winnetka Temple association.

Radio fans are not to get the mistaken idea that they can "tune in" on this program, for it will be just like a regular variety performance with the stars of the "air" right out there on the stage "doing their stuff" just as they do within the confines of the broadcasting studios. They will be there in person, and that doesn't mean perhaps.

Think of an evening of intimate fun with such notables as Jerry Sullivan, announcer of station WQJ; Harry Geise, the original "How-do-you-do" man; Axel Christensen, father of rag-time and past master in the art of impersonation; the sweet-voiced Harmony Girls; the Langdon Brothers, steel guitar experts; the Melodians, a trio of popular singers who can harmonize like the very dickens; Clyde Hagar, the silver-toned tenor; Grace Wilson, the girl with the beautiful contralto voice, and—don't overlook them—the Emanon Eight, the most unique aggregation of jazz syncopators in captivity!

These, and others with them, will be on hand at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the beautiful and spacious Kuppenheimer hall where there are plenty of seats for all the red hot radio fans.

The Radio stars have appeared in concerts every Monday—silent night for Chicago stations—since last September in cities and villages throughout northern Illinois and lower Wisconsin. They are booked solidly many weeks in advance and always play to packed houses. The idea is to get there early and be prepared to sit back and have a general good time. Request numbers—the songs you like best over the radio—will be a specialty of the program. Just holler 'em out! It'll be a Wow of a night!

LEGION NEWS

From the Post Adjutant

Our meeting on March 9 was well attended. We dispensed with business of the regular nature, and listened to an enjoyable program given by Kettering and Costello, of the Husk O'Hare orchestra, who substituted for "Sleepy" Hall, he being unable to come.

The question of the Soldiers Memorial for Winnetka was taken up and after a lengthy discussion, the post by a unanimous vote, accepted the model of Samuel A. Otis, which was on display in the Legion room.

The Post will travel to Great Lakes hospital Sunday, March 15, as per previous arrangement, all to meet at the office of Commander Lynch in Winnetka, at 2:30 o'clock. This will be a very important trip, both from the standpoint of the veterans and also to satisfy those interested in just what the situation is regarding the Hospital. Don't fail to be present!

Our esteemed comrade, Captain Snell, is at this time confined in the Ravenswood hospital, he having been operated upon last Friday. "Capt." isn't at all superstitious. Our best wishes are with you "Cap." and we all hope for a speedy recovery. It is hoped that those who can, will visit him during his illness.

Mrs. T. Westley Tuttle of Milwaukee has been spending a few days with Mrs. William S. Dillon of 814 Prospect avenue.

"Merico" is Sick About Missing Inauguration

Vice President Charles G. Dawes' pet canine, a wire-haired fox terrier entitled "Merico", was lost for several days last week, and since having returned to its Evanston home, has been under the care of Dr. A. C. Madden, veterinary surgeon, of Glencoe.

"Merico" was left at the Dawes home in Evanston while the rest of the family journeyed to Washington to attend the inauguration ceremonies. He evidently felt chagrined at being left to the care of the servants and started out for Washington on foot, but became ill and discouraged and returned after three days.

Dr. Madden says "Merico" will recover from his illness within a few days.

Wilmette Woman Sings in "Flower Operetta"

Miss Gertrude Stokes of Wilmette gave several songs recently in connection with the presentation of the operetta "The Stolen Flower Queen" at a program given by the English club of Greater Chicago.

The lyrics for the operetta were writ-

This Shop Will Recharge Your Ailing Radio Tubes

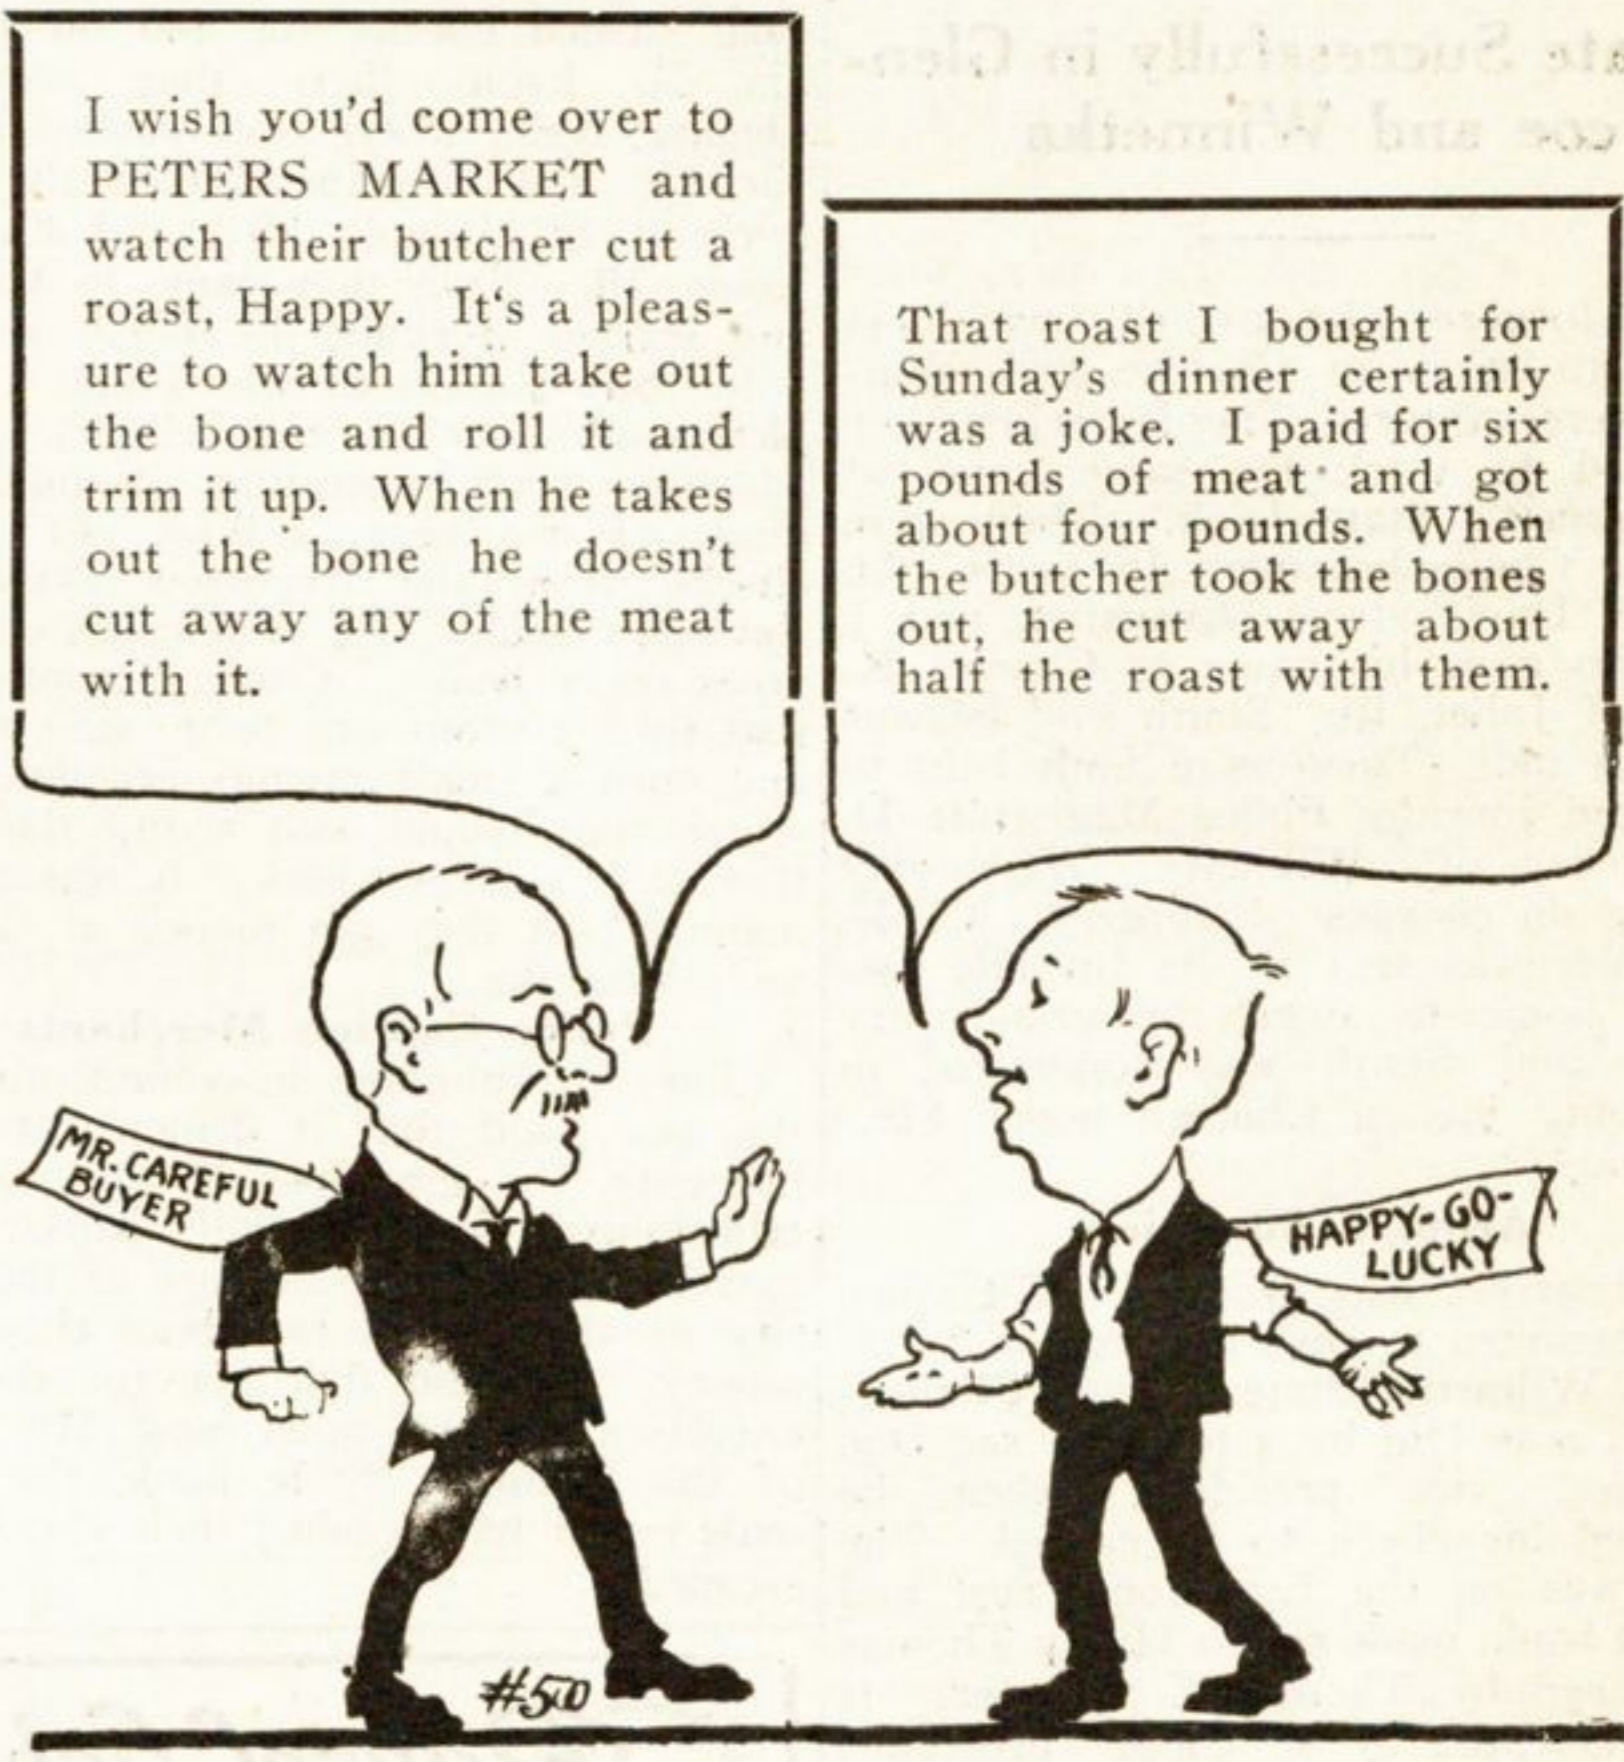

The Radio Service Shop at 18 Prouty Annex announces that it has just installed a new service whereby such tubes as the 201-A, 301-A, UV-199 or C-299 that may have become paralyzed can be rejuvenated to full power, provided the tube lights and grid plates are not shorted.

This service is calculated to provide a great saving to fans since weakened tubes need not be replaced.
