PLAYERS HEAR TALKS ON PLAY DIRECTING

Alexander Dean, professor of Dramatic Arts at the School of Speech, Northwestern university, has just completed a series of 12 lectures on play directing before a group of members of the Community Players. Fifteen women took the course. Some of the subjects of his lectures were: "Community Theater Management," "Stage Technique," "Picturization," "Tempo," "Emphasis," "Reading of Comedy," and "Stage Management."

So successful was the course that the Community Players are planning a series of courses by Mr. Dean for next year. Some of the courses to be offered will probably be "Make Up," "The Contemporary Theater," and "Play Construction."

Mr. Dean, in addition to being a member of the faculty of Northwestern university, is director of the North Shore Theater Guild. Previously he was director of the Little Theater of Dallas, Texas and director of dramatics at the University of Montana. He appeared on the professional stage in company with John Drew, Rose Coghlan and Margaret Illington. He is a graduate of the "47 Workshop" of Harvard university. He has been a special lecturer for the Drama League Institute and the University of Michigan and has written many articles on play production for The Drama and other magazines. His one act play, "Just Neighborly" has just come out in book form.

HUBBARD WOODS IN PEP SESSION

Improvement Association
Starts Clean-up Drive

Prof. William L. Bailey, head of the department of sociology at Northwestern university, and the man who recently selected Winnetka as the model suburban community of the United States, spoke before the annual meeting of the Hubbard Woods Improvement association held at the Hubbard Woods school on Friday night of this week. The subject of his address was "The Making of an Ideal American Community."

At this meeting the suggestions for the improving of the Hubbard Woods station environs, which is being undertaken on a large scale by the citizens of the vicinity, supported by the improvement association, were read and discussed, and new suggestions were received.

The association sent out letters to residents of the district last week asking for contributions to carry on the work of improvement and also requesting suggestions as to what should be done. According to officials of the association there has been an immediate response, and both contributions and suggestions have come in in large numbers.

The entire program of improvements was outlined at the meeting and many new suggestions were taken into consideration. The question of parking space at the station was left to the Park board, as it was felt that it could be worked out in connection with the present work of improving Linden avenue.

The annual election of directors of the association was also held at the meeting, and entertainment was provided by Mrs. Asa B. Cooley, local artist, who sang several selections.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Clark are moving from 706 Bryant avenue to their new home at 67 Locust road, this week.

Mrs. Harry S. Marshall, 564 Arbor Vitae road, is ill at the Evanston hospital.

Are You Playing Fair With Your Children's Feet?

A MORE serious question than you may imagine because we realize so many parents are not. Hap-hazard shoe fitting is distorting the feet of thousands of children and laying up a store of future foot trouble.

Both Mr. Pool and Mr. Piper of this firm are specialists in the art of fitting children. They have studied the matter from every angle and you get here the benefit of both study and experience.

No child leaves this store with a shoe that "Looks about right." They must not only look right but be right before we will make the sale. The need of every child is carefully considered.

We are selling service as well as shoes. A new service for children you should know about.

Our Prices Are Moderate

LEE SAYS:

YESTERDAY a lady came INTO our store and TOLD us that she didn't WANT to buy anything IN PARTICULAR but that SHE did want to tell us THAT she certainly did APPRECIATE the way we HAD always treated her AND that she enjoyed TRADING with us, and while WE frequently hear such COMPLIMENTS we couldn't HELP thinking when she LEFT the store how good A LITTLE praise like THAT makes us feel and HOW few people indulge IN IT; for so many folks NEVER think of COMPLIMENTING anybody BUT when a chance comes ALONG to criticise THEY'RE on hand with EVERY cylinder workin', AND so we've made up our MIND to hand out a bouquet WHENEVER we can instead OF throwing bricks.
