

Dolls' House Inhabitants Live for Kiddies Today

SATURDAY, March 21, is the day young folk on the north shore have been anticipating, for it is the time when three performances of the engaging play, "Racketty Packetty House" will be given by the clever student players of the North Shore National Kindergarten and Elementary college, under the auspices of the Wilmette alumnae and friends. At 11 o'clock in the morning and 2 and 3:30 in the afternoon at the Byron C. Stolp school the dolls of the well known story from the pen of Frances Hodgson Burnett will come to life for the joy of the youngsters and their grown up friends.

Among the alumnae and friends of the college working with Mrs. Robert Stoddard and Mrs. Jercy Arden in presenting this play to Wilmette are: Miss Clementine Eastman, Mrs. Florence Billow, Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline, Mrs. S. J. Newey, Mrs. H. J. Leach, Mrs. C. P. Dubbs, Mrs. L. M. Cozzens, Mrs. Daniel R. Brower, Mrs. H. W. Mons, Mrs. E. J. Phillips, Mrs. G. S. Cluett, Mrs. J. J. Mills, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, Mrs. W. J. King, Mrs. Frank Nason, Mrs. William M. Burns, and Mrs. Charles L. Wachs.

The Arden Shore board party for the graduate boys was held at Gads Hill center, 1919 West Cullerton street, Wednesday evening, March 18. The committee in charge included Mrs. Marcus D. Richards of Hubbard Woods, Mrs. William E. Casselberry of Chicago and Lake Forest, and Miss Gladys Spry of Evanston. Supper was served, and an entertainment was given in the evening. This party is an annual event and is given by the board of directors of the Arden Shore association to the boys who have graduated from the winter camp.

The annual bridge party for the benefit of the Dr. J. W. F. Davies camp fund will be given April 14, at the Winnetka Woman's club at 2 o'clock. In years past a reading has been given for the same purpose at the Winnetka Woman's club, but this season a departure will be made and while the bridge party is being held, Mrs. Ayres Boal will open her home at 701 Sheridan road for a reading by Miss Alice Gerstenberg.

Mrs. Alfred R. Bates, 617 Noyes street, Evanston, will entertain the north shore alumnae of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college at its regular meeting on Monday afternoon, March 23, at 4 o'clock. Miss Edna Dean Baker, president of the college, will be the guest of honor.

The two older classes of the Bourne dancing school combined their hours Wednesday afternoon to hold a delightful masquerade at the Woman's club. One of the features was a cotillion which gave the youngsters great joy. The costumes were beautiful.
