

"Good Furniture Makes The Home"

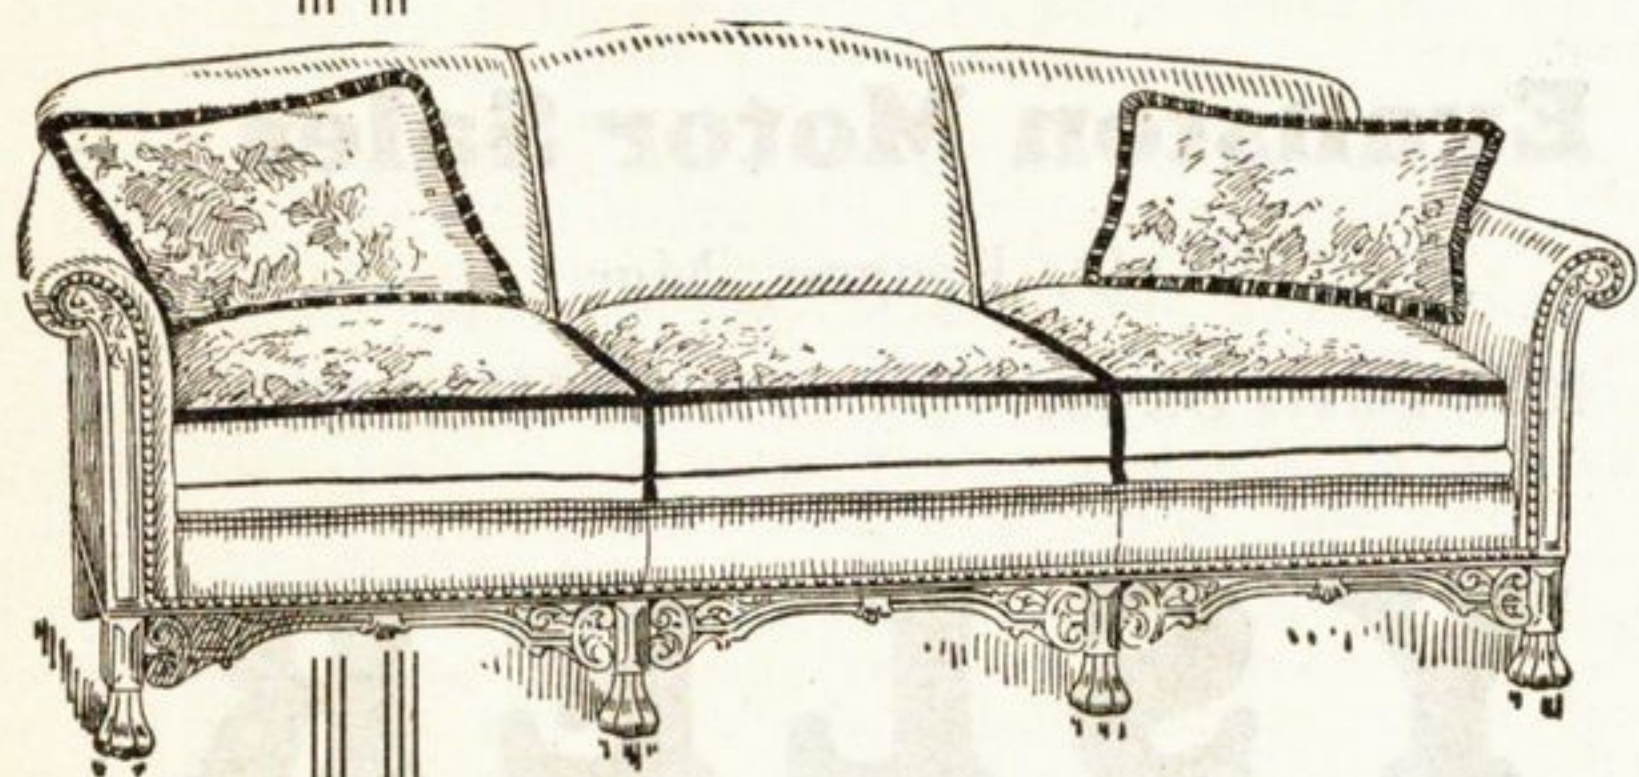

A very well constructed end Table, with a mahogany top and a gumwood base. Beautifully finished and priced at $2.95.

A 50-lb. genuine layer felt, Sealy Mattress, full size, best striped ticking. Price $19.00.

Italian Davenport

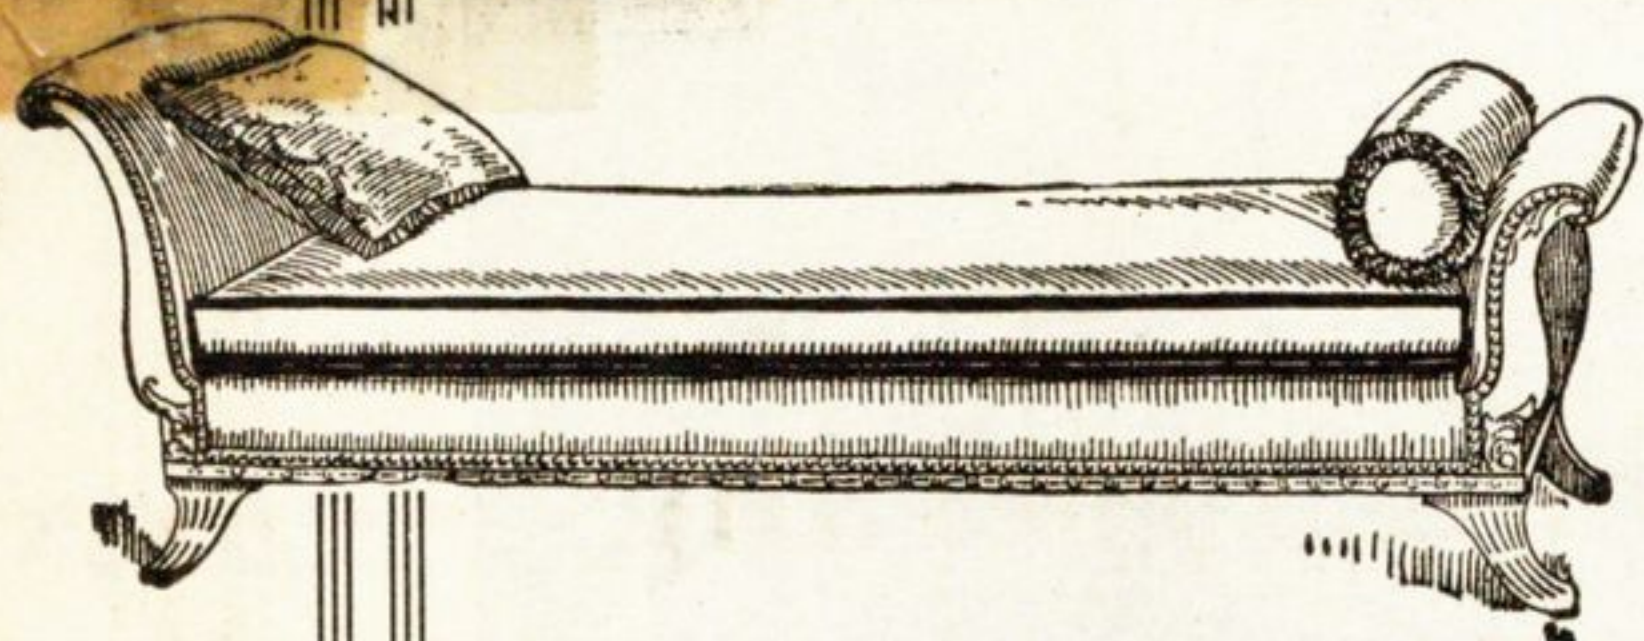

The price is

$267⁰⁰

The work of the old Italian masters is reproduced in the beautiful davenport pictured here. The solid mahogany frame is elaborately hand carved. It is covered entirely with the finest grade of mohair and the reverse side of the cushions with a pastel freize.

Old Colonial Couch

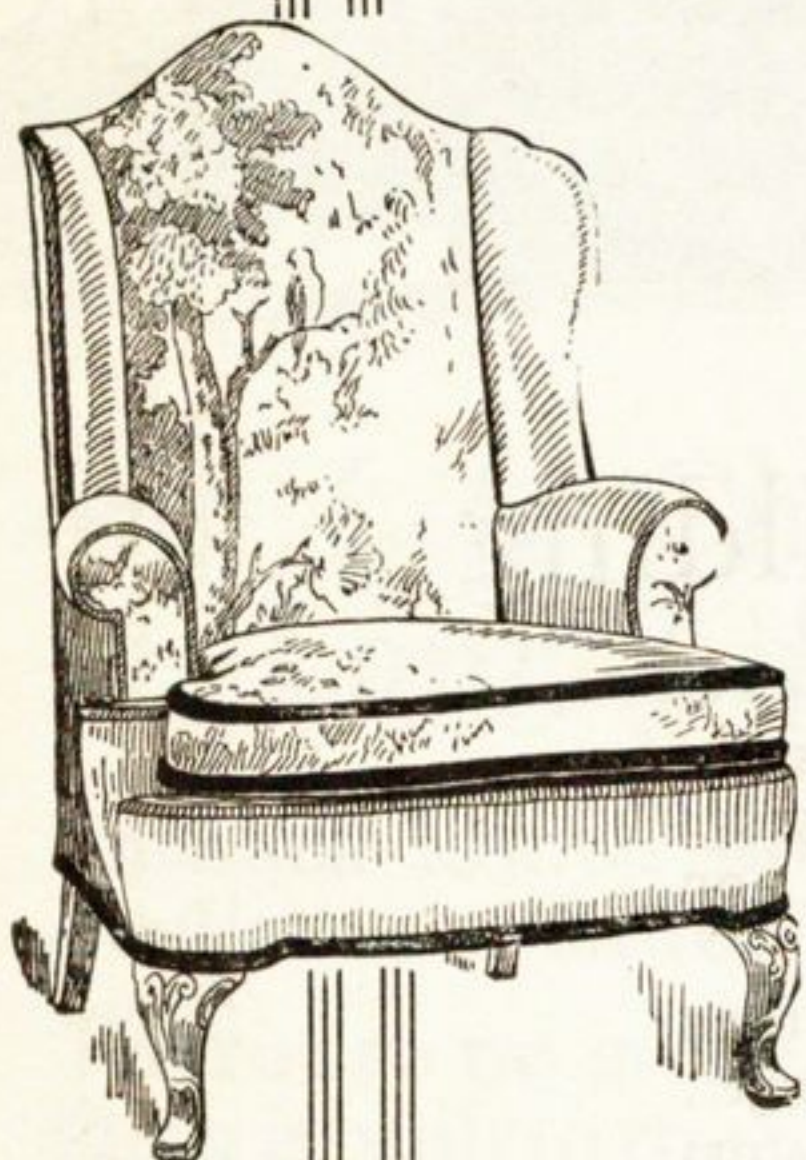

The price is

$243⁰⁰

The very piece of furniture for which you have been searching. The reversible cushion is filled with the finest grade of down, assuring greatest comfort. The solid mahogany, exposed frame is finished in a soft mellow brown.

An English Fireside Chair

With a reversible down-filled cushion and a high back with just the right slant for reading.

It is covered with a beautiful piece of wool tapestry.

The price is

$152⁰⁰

Inquire about our extended charge account purchasing plan.

Open Evenings
Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
7:30 to 9:30

Brown-Umlandt Furniture Co.

Fountain Square

1567 Sherman Ave.

EVANSTON

Tel. Univ. 6302

ONE LOW, YEAR-ROUND PRICE

IN SOCIETY

Parish Group Gives Reception Invitation

NEIGHBORHOOD Group number six of the Congregational church parish is planning an informal evening next Thursday at the home of Mrs. David S. Lasier, 731 Lincoln avenue. All the members of the parish in this neighborhood, which includes everyone who lives east of "the tracks" between Elm and Summit streets, are cordially invited to meet the Ministers, and enjoy the opportunity to become better acquainted with their own neighbors.

Mrs. Lasier will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Allsebrooke, Mr. and Mrs. Ayres Boal, Mr. and Mrs. John Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Janney, Mr. and Mrs. William Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. William Truesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodward, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Yoder.

Woman's Society Meets Next Wednesday

AT 10 o'clock, April 1, the Woman's society of the Congregational church will assemble for its regular all day sewing, luncheon, and program meeting. Mrs. Eugene Rummel will lead the devotional hour, with the morning program in charge of the social committee. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson will read to the auxiliary "April notes from John Burroughs" and for the music group, Mrs. Orval Simpson will sing and Mrs. Charles Sommer will give a piano-logue. Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock will be followed by a musical program given by Dr. Davies Lazear, with Miss Marion Lasier as accompanist. Miss Lasier will also contribute two piano solos.

This meeting, with the one to come on April 15, will close the regular season's work of the Woman's society. The annual meeting and election of officers will occur on May 6.

Mary Barrett Chooses Quiet Wedding

A WEDDING witnessed only by members of the immediate family took place in Wilmette Friday evening, March 20, at the Congregational church when Miss Mary Barrett became the bride of Harry Anton Von Pflugk of Galveston, Texas. Following the service which was read at 6 o'clock by the Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd, a bridal dinner for members of the family was served at the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. P. Barrett, 533 Forest avenue Wilmette.

Upon returning from their wedding trip to Hot Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Von Pflugk will be at home at 533 Forest avenue after April 15.

Mrs. Warren Agry, assisted by Mrs. Sherman Aldrich and Mrs. Harold W. Snell, was hostess to the Play Reading group of the North Shore Theatre Guild last Monday evening. "The School for Scandal" was read on this occasion. Those taking part were: Carleton W. Washburne, Mrs. Dudley Cates, William Van Horne, A. H. Barber, William C. Boyden, Jr., James Fentress, Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Miss Frieda Zimmerman, Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, Charles Matz, and Lyman Weld. The place of meeting was changed at a late hour owing to the illness of Mrs. Robert Hammond's children.

One of the largest and most representative art exhibitions held on the north shore is the annual event being held this week at the Evanston Woman's club, where paintings, sculpture, miniatures, drawings, etchings, wood-prints, cards and posters, photographs, textiles, and stage craft are on display. The exhibition closes today.

Among the Winnetka artists exhibiting are Allen Philbrick, Frank H. Dillon, Cora Gould Davis, Anita Willets Burnham, Kate Bacon Bond, Caroline Louise Burnham, Grace M. Haskins, Sybell Vennema, Charles Haag, Olive Grover, and Elizabeth Englehard.

The North Shore MacDowell society will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harrison L. Mettler of 1119 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, on Wednesday evening, April 1, at 8 o'clock.

The program will consist of solos for the violin by Valona Brewer, a violin trio by Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett and Mrs. Robert Kingery; with Mrs. Arthur Dean at the piano; a group of two piano numbers by the Misses Florence and Beatrice Pease; a talk on "Symbolism in Music" by Dr. Mettler.

Guests tickets may be procured from the treasurer of the society, Dr. W. A. Colledge of Kenilworth.

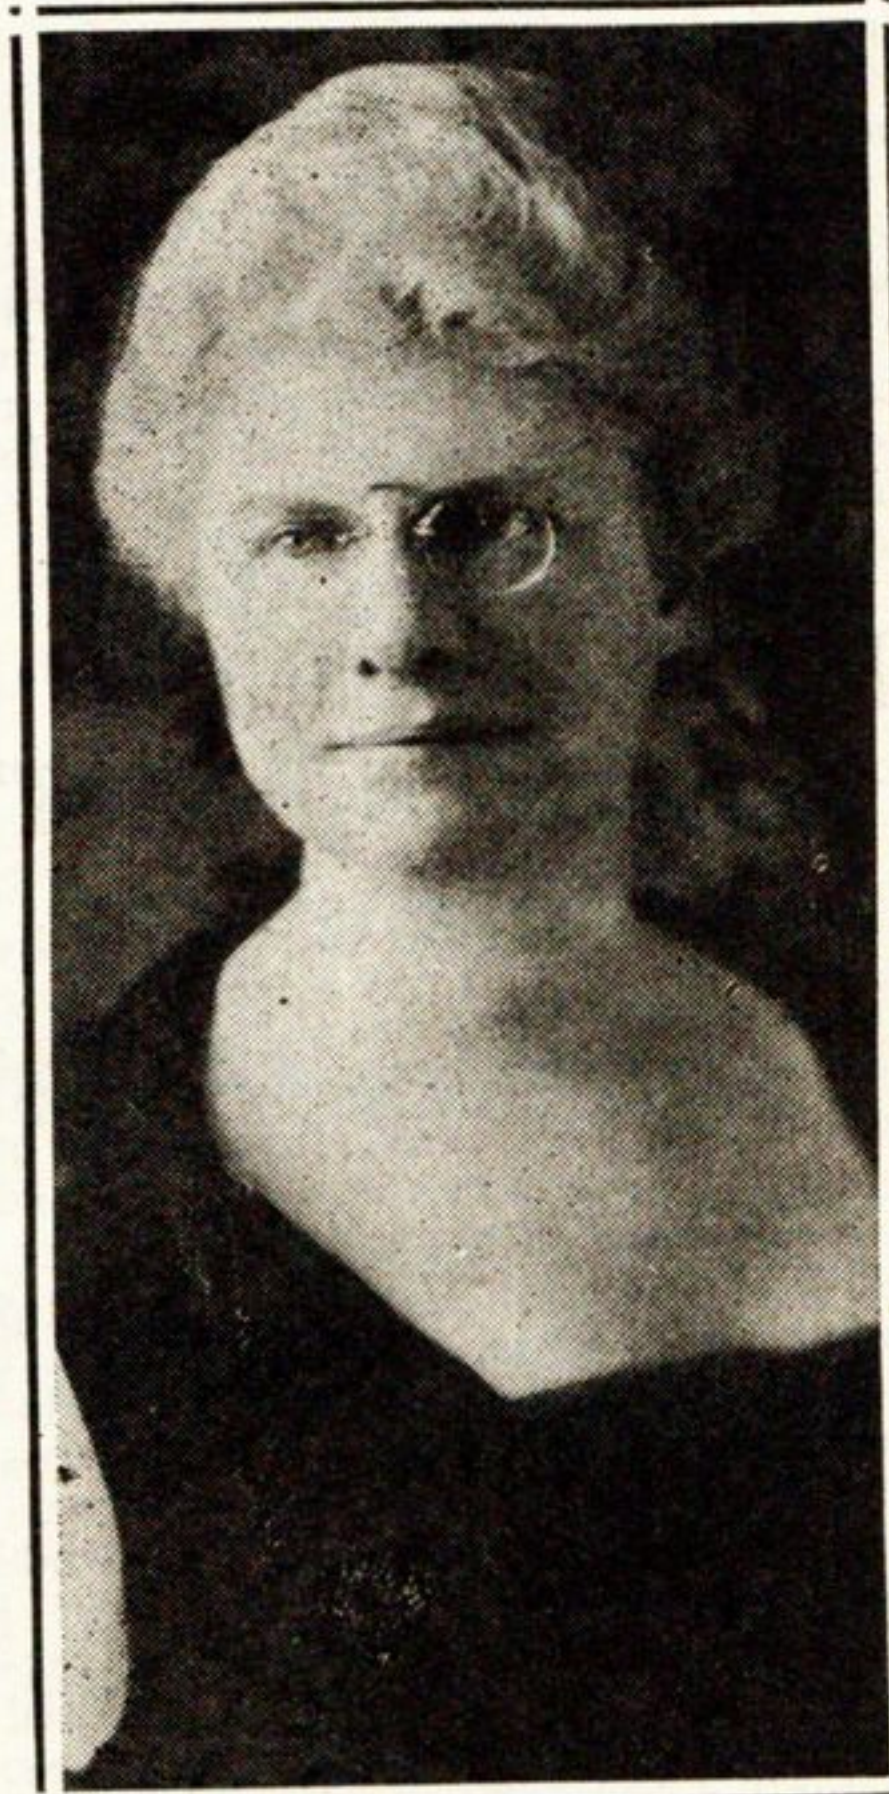

Mrs. William Gold Hibbard is opening her home on Thursday mornings for a course of five talks on current events by Julie R. Adams. The first two lectures have already been given. The following subjects will be discussed at the talks to come: April 2, "The Crisis in the Moslem World;" April 9, "Emigration and Immigration;" April 16, "Political Unrest in South America."

Franklin John Rudolph, the older of Mrs. Franklin Rudolph's two sons attending Williams college, returned to Winnetka about two weeks ago to undergo an operation for appendicitis, from which he has recovered very satisfactorily. Charles Rudolph is coming home next week for his 10 day spring vacation. Both young men will return to Williams together.

Several Winnetka residents attended the meeting of the Tuesday Art and Travel class at the Art institute last week. This was the final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Langworthy of Winnetka, well known on the north shore and Chicago for her club and philanthropic activities, is one of those actively interested in the extensive plans being made for the Woman's World's Fair to be held in Chicago April 18-25.

Interest in this novel venture is spreading to the north shore where committees have been appointed to carry out the plans of the general committee. Mrs. C. P. Evans is the Wilmette chairman. Mrs. John Howard Jones is in charge in Kenilworth, and Mrs. F. R. Harper is the Glencoe chairman. Speakers have already been sent to large gatherings in the suburbs to tell how the work is progressing.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Langworthy

A unique party was given Saturday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Poff of 739 Walden road. "What's Wrong" was the keynote of the affair, for each guest came in attire that would bring lines of worry to the brow of a "correct dress" editor. After playing a "Cootie" game and bridge, the company was served at midnight with grapefruit, poached eggs on toast, and coffee.

Mrs. I. B. Connor of 1152 Hampton-dale road, is expecting her sister, Miss Mona Caverly to arrive today for a few days' visit while enroute from California to her home in the East.

On Tuesday of next week the New Trier circle is giving a card party at Community House.