

WAR VETS PLAN MUSICAL SHOW

Piece Is Written by Two Winnetka Men

"Married at 3" is the name of the show which the Winnetka American Legion Post No. 10 is giving this year. It will be staged at the Skokie school May 7, 8 and 9. Thus ends the mystery which has been puzzling North Shore residents for some time. The many posters on display in the various villages and pasted on windows of taxi cabs and private automobiles announcing merely "Married at 3" are now explained and we all can go about our business with a breath of relief knowing that, whatever the age of the bride and groom, at least it is only a stage wedding.

The Legion is well and favorably known as a producer of stage successes and bids fair to out rival its previous productions with this show. The piece is especially written for the occasion by Howard H. Hoyt, Jr., and Ralph J. Rosenthal. The music, lyrics and every detail, were originated by this pair. Hoyt wrote the last year's success, "The Gay Adventurers," which made such a big hit with north shore folks.

Called Sparkling Comedy

"Married at 3" is a rollicking, sparkling comedy, filled up with pretty girls and tuneful melodies. The personnel of the cast has not been definitely decided on as yet, but rehearsals of both cast and chorus are in progress almost nightly in the Community house in Winnetka. The cast will include many north shore amateurs who are known as stars by local audiences while the chorus will be composed of 50 of the most beautiful maidens to be found anywhere, although they were found right in our own territory.

In addition to all this there will be a top-notch 20 piece orchestra from Chicago to furnish the music. The producers, who have taken care to begin rehearsals far in advance of the date of presentation, are very enthusiastic over the showing already made by those who will take parts and predict that their finished product will rival any musical comedy in Chicago.

Tickets Placed on Sale

Tickets went on sale today at numerous places in the various north shore towns. A unique system of ticket selling will enable those who want to attend to buy seat coupons now which may be exchanged later for choice reserved seats. The coupons will be on sale at the North Shore hotel, Evanston, the Wilmette Music Shop, Wilmette, the Kenilworth Pharmacy, Kenilworth, Adams Pharmacy, and the Community Pharmacy, Winnetka, the Hubbard Woods Pharmacy, Hubbard Woods, and Hillman's Pharmacy and Gilbert D. Johnson and Bros. real estate office, Glencoe. Although there will be three performances of the show it is expected that the reserved seats will be sold out at an early date.

Invite Villagers to Attend Palm Sunday Observances

Palm Sunday will be observed on April 5 in all the services at the Winnetka Congregational church. Rev. James Austin Richards will preach at the morning service on "The Words From the Cross." The music will include Maunder's "On the way to Jerusalem"; and the girls' choir, with the quartet, will sing the anthem, "The Palms", by Faure.

A Lenten cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois, will be sung at the Sunday evening service. This cantata, it is explained, is given not only because of its musical worth, but for the deeply religious significance it holds at this season of the church year. Under direction of Raymond Allyn Smith, the church chorus of 30 men and women will sing with the quartet; Miss Lacey, Mrs. Slade, Mr. Gash and Mr. Kreidler. In the opening service, Mr. Smith's prelude will be "Harmonies du Soir", by Karg-Elert, and Mrs. Slade's offertory solo, "Abide With Me," by Liddle. The organ postlude will be the Chorale from Bach's De Profundis.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pierce and family of 603 Provident avenue, are motoring to La Fayette, Ind., this week-end, to be the guests of Mrs. Pierce's mother, Mrs. John Wahlgren.

I'm sorry about that roast the wife served to-night, old man. It certainly did look as though it had been cut with a hatchet! And he cut it at least two pounds over weight!

Well, no use apologizing, Happy! But if you permit me to advise you, you'll go to PETERS MARKET next time. That man is more than a butcher—he's an artist! He can cut a roast within a fraction of a pound of the weight you want! You'll be surprised how much that saves you in your meat bills and besides you always get real quality meat at PETERS.
