

Behold Our Village Officials "Digging In"

Monday morning of this week found our Village president and members of the Council up bright and early to start the proceeding which will result in the municipal Administration building at Linden and Oak streets.

Pictured above are the prominent leaders in the act of "digging in" in preparation for the excavation work which has been in progress this week.

After due consultation, members of the WINNETKA TALK editorial staff decided to provide villagers with a little guessing contest—sans rules or restrictions—in which they are invited to speculate regarding who's who among the diligent diggers. We gladly furnish the names.

President John S. Miller, Jr., Mrs. B. F. Langworthy (that should be easy); J. D. Pierce, H. L. Woolhiser, Eugene E. Rummel, L. Sherman Aldrich, Edwin H. Clark (architect), and Donald McPherson.

Trustees E. E. Brown and Henry K. Tenney could not be present at the ground-breaking ceremonies.

A story regarding the ceremony appears in another column.

Winnetka Girl Seriously

Injured When Hit by Car

Virginia DeLay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. De Lay, 878 Oak street, who is a student at Smith college, suffered a fractured skull and concussion of the brain on March 23, when she was struck by an automobile while crossing a street in North Hampton.

Mrs. De Lay hurried East upon word of her daughter's injury. Miss De Lay is reported as recovering satisfactorily. She is a freshman at Smith and is well known in the younger social set of the north shore.

Hermit of Hubbard Woods

Found Dead in His Home

Alexander Dean, known for 25 years as the hermit of Hubbard Woods, died at his home at 998 Linden avenue, Tuesday, March 31. Neighbors had not seen him for a day or two and a friend, investigating, found him dead in a chair in the kitchen of his house.

Dean had lived alone there for the last 25 years or since his wife left him, taking his two sons with her. Mrs. Dean now lives at 1061 Sheridan road, Chicago. The sons, Norman and Douglas, are residents of Winnetka.

'DON' COMES AS PLAYERS' DRAMA

Community House to Be Scene of Production

When the Community Drama Players announce a new play, the Winnetka public has learned to know from experience that a real treat is in store. Now comes the word that they are planning to stage the interesting three-act drama "Don," by Rudolph Besier, on Wednesday evening, April 15 and Thursday evening, April 16, in Community House.

This delightful English play has to do with a modern Don Quixote, or "Don" as he is affectionately called. He is the son of an English canon, a poet by nature, and one whose visionary tendencies and warm impulses lead him into a situation with a lady in distress which brings about a number of tense and ridiculous scenes before the irate husband and well-meaning friends are able fully to understand the meaning of his chivalrous conduct.

This play, though new in this part of the country, has been given with great success by little theatre groups both in America and England.

Those taking part are: Miss Grace Merrill, Mrs. Charles F. Karnopp, Mrs. Merritt Lum, Mrs. Delbert Poff, Henry J. Cary-Curr, Lloyd Faxon, J. P. Yoder, and Norman K. Anderson. The properties are in charge of Mrs. Ryerson Gates and Mrs. Alfred Freeman. The stage crew is under the direction of Myron T. Harshaw. The play is being directed by Mrs. Taliaferro Milton, assisted by Mrs. Delbert Poff.

The public is asked to keep in mind these dates of April 15 and 16.

Operate on Children for Mastoid Infection

Last Sunday at the Evanston hospital, Laura Benton Bartlett, 710 Walden road and Patricia Goodhue, 384 Elder lane underwent operations for mastoiditis, and on Monday at the Wesley hospital Elizabeth Sanford, 245 Ridge avenue, underwent an operation for the same trouble.

On Monday at the Evanston hospital Marion Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Thomas, 680 Walden road, underwent an operation for appendicitis.

All of these little girls are reported as doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall and their daughter, Janet, of 1010 Pine street, will arrive home Monday after a six weeks' trip to Texas, Mexico, and Georgia.

Miss Virginia Ingram, 1005 Oak street, entertained a group of her Smith and Northwestern college friends at bridge, Saturday, March 28.

Winnetka Congregational Church

PALM SUNDAY — 1925

Theodore Roosevelt said,

"In this actual world, a churchless community,—a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs,—is a community on the rapid down grade.

"There are enough holidays for most of us. Sundays differ from other holidays in the fact that there are fifty-two of them every year. Therefore on Sundays go to church."
