

COMPLETE PLANS FOR CONVENING OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Illinois Clubs Will Hold Five Day Convention

MAY 18-22 is the time set for the annual convention of the women's clubs of the state, according to a recent announcement made after a meeting of the board of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs held the latter part of March at the headquarters in Chicago.

It is stated that the first day of the convention will be given over to meetings of the state board, with a dinner for board members in the evening. Mrs. George T. Palmer will preside over the Tuesday morning session which will be devoted to addresses of welcome and response, and the reports of state officers. In the afternoon there will be speakers on public health and child welfare.

On Wednesday the nominating committee will name its candidates for the offices of president, first vice president, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, and parliamentarian. In the afternoon, prominent speakers will review industrial and social conditions, and there will also be discussion of community service and conservations, and progress made along these lines during the past year.

The election will be held Thursday morning, the state president's recommendations will be read and the remaining time will be taken up with general discussion of federation and club topics. In the afternoon there will be talks on legislation, education, and civil service. State committee reports and a discussion of law enforcement, followed by the introduction of new officers and adjournment will occupy Friday morning.

Daily luncheons of various state departments, at which speakers will be present, will be special features, and special social events are being planned, including an art exhibit and tea at Milikin university, and a banquet.

Library Club Plans for Spring Programs

PROPOS of the coming season the regular meeting of the Woman's Library Club of Glencoe on April 9, will be in charge of the nature committee which has planned for an illustrated lecture "Color Combinations in Your Garden" by Adelaide D. Heald, whose lantern slides are said to be very beautiful.

The following week will have the program on April 23, with Mrs. Auguste Babitz in charge. Two or three short French plays and French music will provide the afternoon's entertainment.

Glencoe Day, observed on Thursday, proved to be well worth while and exceedingly profitable because of the discussion of village affairs. Merle B. Waltz, the village president, was the first speaker. He divided his subject into three topics, "The Bootlegger," "Taxation," and "The Extermination of the Mosquito." H. W. Butler, building commissioner, talked on "Housing and Zoning," and Clarence MacNeille talked on "The School Question." The interest in the latter question caused the Library club to pass the following resolution: "Resolved that the Woman's Library club of Glencoe favors the school board's plan to build a school on the South School site at once out of available funds, and build an auditorium on the Central site by means provided by law so far as possible, and to make up the deficiency, if any, by public subscription when and if it shall be found necessary."

Home Talent Will Give Winnetka Club Program

THE last musicale of the season will be given by the music committee of the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday afternoon, April 9, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Harvey Brewer, and Mrs. Robert Kingery will give violin trios which will include works of Paul Hoffman, Helmsberger, and Kreisler. Mrs. Arthur Dean will be at the Piano.

J. Williams Macy, David Lasier, Mrs. John Hansel, and Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey will sing a group of negro spirituals, and Mrs. Asa Cooley will give a group of compositions by Hageman, Bantock and Elgar.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Norman Anderson, Mrs. Harry L. Street, Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, and Mrs. Albert Veeder.

North Shore Wellesley Group Meets on Monday

THE North Shore Wellesley circle is meeting Monday afternoon, April 6, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hanchett, 1735 Asbury avenue, Evanston. The afternoon's program will consist of "Some 1924 Opinions," after which the usual social hour will follow.

WINS DEBATE AWARD

Dwight W. Chapman, of Wilmette, a sophomore in Harvard college, and holder last year of one of the Harvard club of Chicago scholarships, won the Coolidge prize in the Harvard-Yale-Princeton triangular debate last week. The Coolidge prize, which consists of $100, goes each year to the speaker for Harvard in the triangular debate.

Plan Woman's Class in Character Study

A WOMAN'S class is being formed in the study of characterology. The basic rules of physiognomy and phrenology, pathology, and analyzing of character will be included in the course of three hour lessons. L. Hamilton, author of the text book, "Characterology," will conduct the class at his residence in Chicago. For information and terms, telephone Mrs. P. J. Sullivan, Glencoe 805.

A strong resemblance to Alice Terry was one of the reasons why Dorothy Sebastian was selected for an important role in "Sackcloth and Scarlet," Henry King's first production for Paramount.
