

"Good Furniture Makes the Home"

The Neglected Bedroom

One third of your lives are spent in the bedroom. The appointments of the bedroom impress you the last thing before retiring—the first thing upon awaking in the morning.

A bedroom suite, which has balance of design makes a foundation for a harmonious setting.

Harmonious surroundings really make a lasting impression upon the subconscious mind as you slumber.

The bedroom suite sketched above is inexpensive, yet consistent with BROWN-UMLANDT policy of "good taste."

It is artistically designed—constructed with great care by Master Craftsmen.

The burl walnut panels are carefully matched, and contrast beautifully with the exquisit rose wood used for trim.

This is a bedroom suite you would not wish to wait to buy at a sale. You can purchase it now, at our "one low, year-round price."

We have a line of selected bedroom furniture at prices—when you compare the quality—will make you realize, it is no longer necessary to delay the fulfillment of your long desire; "to fix up that neglected bedroom."

- Dresser .....$81.00
- Duchess Vanity Group... 85.00
- Chiffonette ..... 67.00
- Bed (full or single) ... $55.00
- Chair ..... 15.00
- Bench ..... 15.00

Inquire about our extended charge account purchasing plan.

Open Evenings
Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
7:30 to 9:30

Brown-Umlandt Furniture Co.

Fountain Square
1567 Sherman Ave. EVANSTON Tel. Univ. 6302

ONE LOW, YEAR-ROUND PRICE

IN SOCIETY

Summer Camp Benefit in Easter Week

An event always of social prominence is the benefit given annually for Dr. J. W. F. Davies' summer camp for boys and girls situated at Ludington, Mich. This year the affair, which will consist of bridge and a reading, will take place on Tuesday afternoon, April 14. The card games will commence at 2 o'clock at the Winnetka Woman's club, and Mrs. Ayres Boal will open her home at 701 Sheridan road for those wishing to hear Miss Alice Gerstenberg read some of her own plays. Tickets, which will admit guests to either the card party or the reading, may be procured at Community House.

Community Players Rehearse New Production

ALREADY the Winnetka Community Players are rehearsing for the presentation of Besier's famous three act play, "Don", on April 15 and 16, at Rudolph Matz hall, Community House. Mrs. Taliaferro Milton and Mrs. Delbert W. Poff are coaching the production which will include in the cast of characters, Miss Grace Merrill, Mrs. Charles F. Karnopp, Mrs. Henry A. Craig, Mrs. Merritt Lum, Mrs. Delbert W. Poff, J. P. Yoder, Henry J. Cary-Curr, Norman K. Anderson, and Lloyd A. Faxon.

The North Shore Mac Dowell society met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harrison L. Mettler on Wednesday evening of this week. After giving a treasurer's report, Dr. William Colledge told of the program of the endowment fund drive which is expected to put the Peterborough colony on a permanent footing.

Dr. Mettler opened the evening's program with a talk on Symbolism in Music. This was followed by a suite for violin and piano, "York Bowen," played by Mrs. Valona Brewer of Hubbard Woods and Miss Mary Pratt of Evanston. Then came a group of two piano numbers, "LeMatin" by Chaminade, "Waltz" by Arensky, and "The Jester" by Beecher, given by the Misses Florence and Beatrice Pease. The program closed with three trios for violin, with piano accompaniment. "Idylle" by Hoffman; "Serenade" by Hellmsberger; and "Londonberry Air" arranged by Fritz Kriesler. These numbers were played by Mrs. Valona Brewer, Mrs. Sidney Bartlett, and Mrs. Robert Kingery, with Mrs. Arthur Dean at the piano.

Mrs. Victor L. Cunningham and her son, Billy, of 710 Lincoln avenue, entertained the Lightweight team of the North Shore Country Day school last Friday at dinner and the movies. The physical director, Jack Anderson, and his brother, Henry Anderson, were also members of the party. After dinner Mr. Anderson gave the boys a little talk, telling them they had done well this past season and that they must always remember to play to win. He also impressed them with the fact that it is better to play fair and lose, than to win by fouls.

Mrs. Katherine Coombs, secretary and treasurer of the Parent-Teacher association at Hawthorn school, entertained the mothers on Monday afternoon, March 23, at her home, 1192 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods. An afternoon which the weather man did his best to ruin was transformed to one of great pleasure by Mrs. Coombs' hospitable fire-side. Some of the members played bridge and some dropped in for a few minutes' chat.

The Winnetka Heights circle will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Melville Chatten, 1025 Dinsmore road, on Tuesday, April 7, at 2 o'clock. The change of meeting from the second Tuesday of the month to the first Tuesday, has been made this time because of the Camp card party to be held on April 14.

Mrs. Harry Mess, 982 Pine street, and her daughter, Mary, left Friday to spend a two weeks' spring vacation with Mrs. Mess's mother in Benton Harbor, Mich.

On Monday evening, March 30, Winnetka Chapter Number 942, O. E. S. was honored by its first official visit from Mrs. Nellie R. Meyers, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Illinois. At 6 o'clock a bountiful dinner was served to guests and members of the chapter. The dining room was beautifully decorated in the five colors of the Order. Many out-of-town members were present. At 8 o'clock, a special meeting of the Chapter was called, and four new members were installed into the Order. Among them was Mrs. Franchon Grant, mother of the worthy matron of the local chapter.

Winnetka Chapter is still in its infancy, and, although barely a year has elapsed since its organization, it consists of nearly 100 members. All sisters, wives, mothers, and daughters of Master Masons are eligible as members.

Julia May Kinstler of 818 Ashland avenue entertained a number of her friends at luncheon and bunco last Saturday in celebration of her fourteenth birthday. Her guests were Martha Farmer, Eleanor Idler, Selma Flesham, Ruth Wenter, Helen Freeman, Mary Elizabeth Townsend, Helene Mahan, Mary Lynch, Mary Louise Byrnes, Marion McDonald, Josephine Otter, Ruth Livingston, Helen Hutchens, Lucile Blumenstock, Jane Wieler, Roslyn Sincere, Ellen Katz, Eleanor Friedlander, Sarah Page, Jane Waterstone, Moni Koretz, and Madeline Kahn.

The two groups of the Mission Study classes of Christ church met on Tuesday of this week. The first, which includes members living north of Willow street, gathered at the home of Mrs. Randolph Butz, under the leadership of Mrs. John Vander Vries, and the second group, which comprises the section of the village south of Willow street, met at the home of Mrs. Frank D. Fulton, with Mrs. Ernest Ballard, leader. "China" was the subject of discussion for both classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Stixrud of 607 Willow street announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Beulah, to E. Erskine McLoed of Evanston, on Saturday afternoon, March 28, at Waukegan. Although the young peoples' engagement was known to the family, their marriage was a surprise. At present Mr. and Mrs. McLoed are staying at the Stixrud home, and are postponing their wedding trip until the first of May when they expect to go to California.

Among the names appearing on the list of hostesses entertaining at the performance of "Joan of Arkansas," the thirty-seventh annual production of the Mask and Wig club of the University of Pennsylvania on Tuesday evening, at the Eighth Street theatre, were those of Mrs. Hathaway Watson and Mrs. Rush Clark Butler. Following the performance a midnight reunion was held in the Ballroom of the Congress hotel.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Edna Westfield of Chicago and Mr. Frederick George Morphett of 964 Tower road, on Saturday April 18, at 6 o'clock in the evening. The ceremony will be performed at the Garfield Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church. The reception will be held at the Southmoor hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Morphett expect to go to Florida.

Mrs. Ivan P. Florsheim of 503 Rosewood avenue entertained the families of Miss Alma Nachman of Montgomery, Ala. and Dr. Gilbert Loewe of Winnetka, on Tuesday of this week. The engagement of Miss Nachman and Dr. Loewe has recently been announced.

Miss Marion Schell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Schell, 800 Elm street, will join the party of New Trier high school girls taking the eight day trip to Washington, D. C.

Miss Herbst Gifts

An exhibit of Early American Glass which includes many unusual examples of

Sandwich and Stiegel

576 1/2 Lincoln Ave.

WINNETKA