

Catholic League Plans a Benefit Rummage Sale

THE social service department of the North Shore Catholic Women's league held a very interesting meeting this week at the home of Mrs. A. J. Roth, 246 Sheridan road, Winnetka. Plans were made at this time to hold a rummage sale for the benefit of this department. Members and friends are urged to save their cast-off furniture, clothing, and dishes, for the sale which will be held during the current month, the exact day and place to be announced later.

The league has taken a block of tickets for the Woman's World's Fair to be held in Chicago, and members and friends may obtain them from Mrs. Frederick Hubsch of Winnetka, or Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster of Glencoe. The study class will meet Monday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster, 816 Bluff street, Glencoe.

Because of a fire in the home of Mrs. Forest R. Lowrey, 550 Oak street, the East Elm street circle will meet at the home of Mrs. George W. Hinman of 576 Oak street, on Tuesday, April 7, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Forest R. Lowrey, Mrs. Justus Chancellor, and Mrs. Harold Wilder will be the assisting hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Whitman and their four children and nurse arrived in Winnetka on Thursday of last week after spending the past eight months abroad. They are at their home, 643 Hill road. For six months they lived in Paris, and spent the remainder of their time in England and Italy.

Mrs. Ayres Boal, 701 Sheridan road, and her son, Stewart, left this week for Washington and New York. Mr. Boal and Ayres Boal, Jr. also are taking a vacation. They have gone to New Orleans, but expect to be back for Easter when Mrs. Boal and Stewart will return.

Mrs. Godfrey H. Atkin and her daughter, Margot, 5 Indian Hill road, have been spending two weeks in Atlantic City. Miss Margot returned to Dobbs Ferry on Wednesday to continue her studies, and Mrs. Atkin is expected home Sunday.

The April meeting of the New Trier circle will be held Tuesday, April 7, at the home of Mrs. Walter W. Etzbach, 481 Elder lane. Mrs. Vincent G. Cartier will assist. As this is election day, the members are asked to please vote before the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Lines, 1152 Asbury avenue, accompanied by the latter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques of Chicago, motored to Menominee, Mich. the past week-end for the purpose of purchasing a boat for cruising this summer.

Mrs. Thomas Wheatley of 329 Fairview avenue, entertained 16 guests at luncheon and bridge on Wednesday. During the afternoon Mrs. A. B. Cooley gave a musical program consisting of several beautiful songs.

Ruth Poff, little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Poff of Walden road, is quarantined at her home with measles.

Miss Marion Fulton is arriving in Winnetka April 8, to spend her 10 day vacation with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Fulton of 884 Hill road. Miss Fulton, who made her debut in December, is attending the University of Syracuse in New York.

On Monday of this week, Marion Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Thomas of 680 Walden road, underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at the Evanston hospital. She is recovering satisfactorily.

Laura Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund B. Bartlett of 710 Walden road, and Lucretia Goodhue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goodhue of 384 Elder lane, both underwent mastoid operations Sunday at the Evanston hospital.

Bobby Groene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groene, suffered a fall recently while at play that resulted in a broken leg. The Groenes are building an attractive new home on Scott avenue which they expect to occupy the first of May.

Mrs. Philemon B. Kohlsaat of Woodland avenue, and Mrs. Homer E. Cotton of Evanston left last Saturday evening for a week in Kansas City where they are attending the National Convention of Music Supervisors.

John Bayley Mordock is expected home from Cornell university the end of this week to spend his spring recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock of 645 Maple avenue.

Mrs. J. P. Anderson returned to her home in Beatrice, Neb. on Thursday of this week. She has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles D. Loper, 821 Prospect avenue.

On Saturday, April 11, the Temple club is having a bakery sale in Patchen's Drug store. The committee asks Winnetkans to "Take your day off, and buy your pie and cake for Easter Sunday!"

Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Ehrlich and their son, Grant, 45 Warwick avenue, Winnetka, have just returned from French Lick Springs, where they spent their annual spring vacation.

Elizabeth Sanford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sanford of 245 Ridge avenue, was operated upon for mastoid infection on Sunday at the Wesley Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stutson of 479 Sunset road left Sunday for a two or three weeks' visit in Ohio.

Among the travelers at The Homestead, Hot Springs, Va., are Mrs. Frank R. Fuller, and her daughter, Miss Phoebe, who is having her spring vacation from Miss Masters school at Dobbs Ferry.

The Rosewood circle will hold its next meeting with the chairman, Mrs. Ida Lyons, at her home, 1070 Cherry street, on Tuesday, April 7, at 2 o'clock. A large attendance is requested.

The Woman's Guild of Christ church is having its regular monthly luncheon on Monday, with Mrs. Frank D. Fulton in charge. There will be a speaker on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Maddox, 705 Oak street, will entertain a company of 20 at dinner next Saturday evening. Their guests will be the members of the "Pitch In" dinner club.

Bruce Karnes of 151 Fuller lane is entertaining 16 of his little friends this afternoon in celebration of his ninth birthday.

Mrs. Harry Barnum of 735 Walden road, will return Monday from a fortnight's visit in St. Louis and Little Rock, Ark.

Harriet Stilling, 159 Bertling lane, arrived from Bradford academy last Saturday.
